

Brandi Carlile to open for Howie Day

Musical newcomer Brandi Carlile will perform with the Howie Day/Verizon Wireless Tour 2005, Thursday, Sept. 29, in the Reilly Center Arena. Known for her “authentic, rootsy bell-clear voice” and emotion-filled debut album, Carlile is the opening act for the night’s main performer, Howie Day.

Student tickets are $10 and public tickets are $12 each, with all seating general admission. Tickets can be purchased at the Reilly Center Arena’s ticket office, all Tops Friendly Markets, by phone at (888) 223-6000, or online at tickets.com.

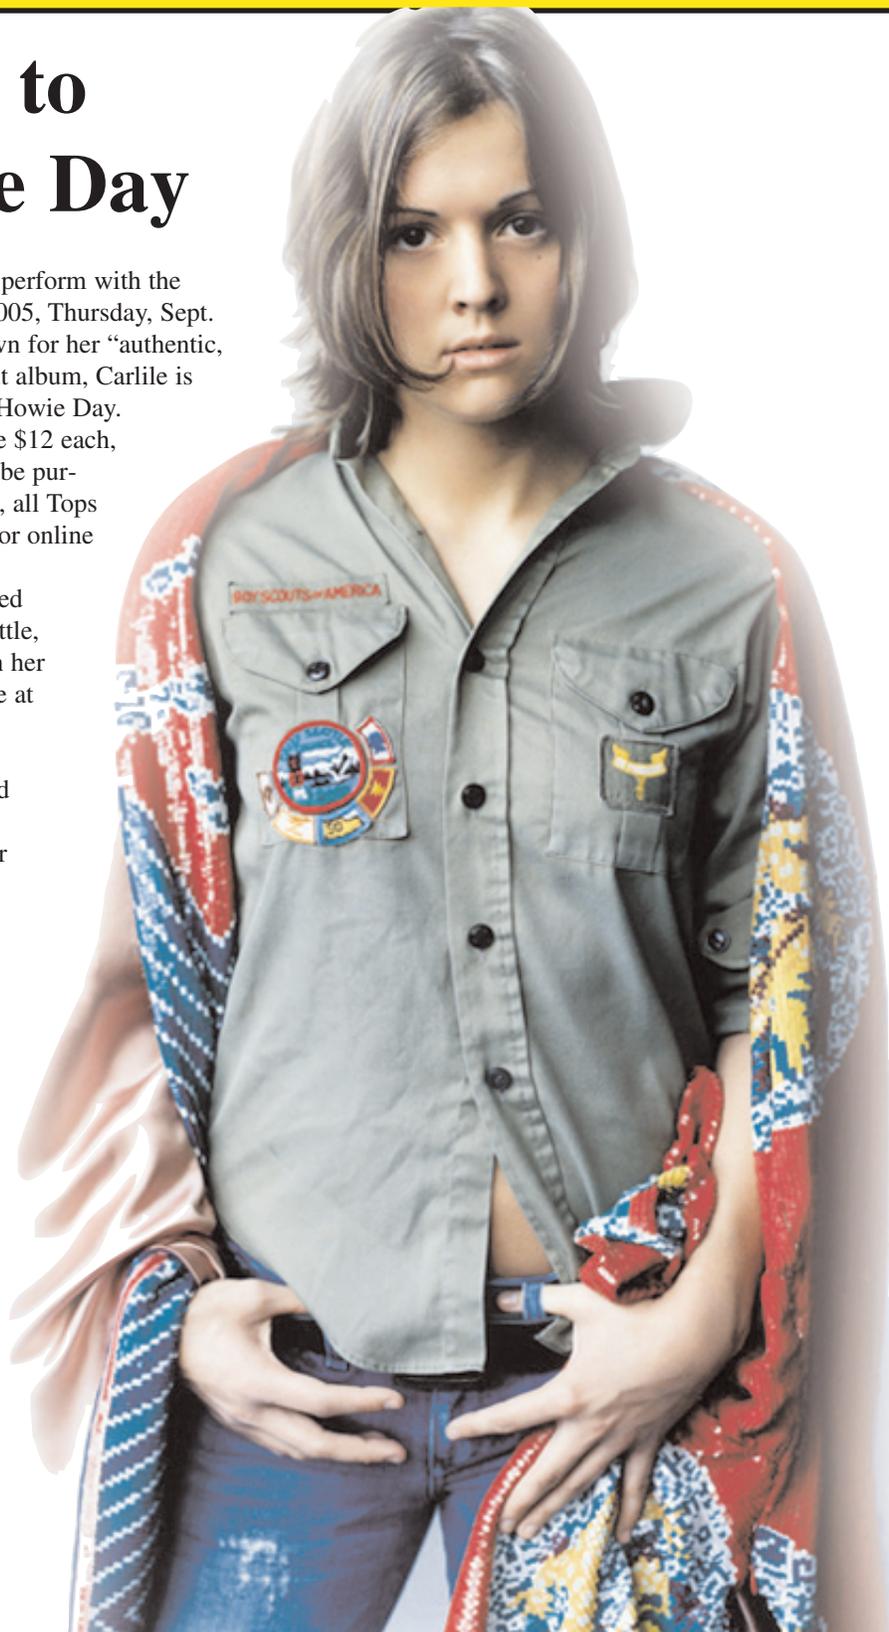

Carlile, 23, who is originally from the isolated foothills of Ravensdale, 50 miles outside of Seattle, was first introduced to the performing arts when her mother, also a musician, brought her out onstage at the Northwest’s version of the Grand Ole Opry.

As a result of living in such a small town, Carlile taught herself to sing, play the piano, and eventually the guitar by the age of 17.

“Ravensdale wasn’t a town,” she says on her Web site bio. “We were the only house around for acres and acres. Being in the middle of nowhere, it wasn’t the kind of place you brought friends back to, so I just hung around the woods and built forts and played music with my brother and sister. That’s all we did. And we thought that’s what everyone else in the world did, too.”

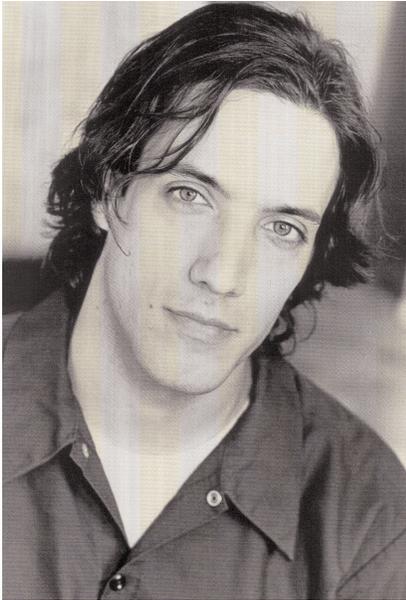

Carlile and her band, which consists of Seattle natives and twin brothers Tim and Phil Hanseroth, began playing at restaurants around Seattle — the local chowder house, a popular sports bar and grill, and at any wedding or birthday party that would hire them so they could get experience.

In late 2004, Carlile signed with Columbia Records, home to several of her favorite artists, including Bob Dylan, Bruce Springsteen, Jeff Buckley, Leonard Cohen, Janis Joplin, and James Taylor, with whom she has also shared a stage.

Quick Arts Center to present 'Simple Gifts'

In the first in a series of seven classical music and jazz concert events this year, The Friends of Good Music, in association with The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts (QCA), will present Simple Gifts at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 23 at the Rigas Family Theater.

Three women, plus 12 instruments, equal one good time. Drawing on an impressive variety of ethnic folk styles, this award-winning trio plays everything from lively Irish jigs and down-home American reels to hard-driving Klezmer frailachs and haunting Gypsy melodies.

Based in the hills of central Pennsylvania, Linda Littleton, Rachel Hall and Karen Hirshon switch with ease among two violins, concertina, mandolin, banjolin, recorders, bowed psaltery, hammered dulcimer, baritone fiddle, guitar, piano, and percussion.

Founded by Littleton in 1989, Simple Gifts has performed throughout the mid-

Atlantic region, including appearances at the Smithsonian. They have also recorded five albums. Their newest "Time and Again" won a bronze star in the Cross Roads Music Awards.

At 12:30 p.m. Friday, Sept. 23, in the QCA the trio will present a demonstration workshop.

The workshop is free and open to the public and is a great way to meet the ladies of Simple Gifts and become familiar with the various instruments.

This performance is sponsored in part by the Pennsylvania Performing Arts on Tour and the New York State Council on the Arts. Ticket prices are $18 at full price, $15 for a subscriber, employee or senior and $5 for students.

For subscriptions and information, call the QCA at ext. 2494.

Bjorn Again to perform in the Reilly Center as part of Family Weekend lineup

Bjorn Again, the re-creation of the original experience of ABBA, will perform in the Reilly Center Arena during St. Bonaventure University's Family Weekend at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24.

Public tickets are $20 each and may be purchased at the Reilly Center Arena's ticket office, all Tops Friendly Markets, by phone at (888) 223-6000, or online at tickets.com.

"We believe that this will be a weekend that further strengthens the bridge between the Bona and Allegany communities by celebrating our friendship — bringing students and their families into Allegany to support local business and bringing the Allegany community to campus to share and enjoy what Bona's has to offer," said Steve Plesac, director of student activities at St. Bonaventure.

The "ABBA-solutely fabulous" Bjorn Again will perform all the greatest ABBA hits as they are meant to be seen and heard — in all their fantastic '70s glitz, complete with the costumes, dance moves and Swedish banter known and loved by ABBA fans everywhere.

Bjorn Again's action-packed, fully live and interactive show creates the ultimate party atmosphere. Fans can sing along to hits including "Mamma Mia," "Dancing Queen," "Waterloo," "Take a Chance on Me" and much more.

The members of Bjorn Again are currently in year 15 of their career as musical artists. They have performed more than 3,000 live shows in over 60 countries, selling out at venues such as the Wembley Stadium in England. They have released a number of videos, DVDs and two full-length albums.

For more information on Bjorn Again, go to www.bjornagain.com.

St. Bonaventure University's Family Weekend will be highlighted not only by musical entertainment, but also by the first-ever Bonogany Street Festival, a family festival complete with music, food and entertainment that will pay tribute to the strong ties shared between SBU and Allegany.

The fall fair will be held from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24, on Main Street in Allegany. Features include a historical display that marks the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the Franciscan friars in Western New York, a student club and organizational fair and free music by Hotel California, an Eagles tribute band.

Allegany restaurants will be showcasing their favorite dishes along the sidewalk and inflatables, including a giant slide and rock-climbing wall, will be available to all ages in the parking lot of First Tier Bank. The rain site will be the covered complex at the Allegany Fireman's Park off North First Street.

Weekend festivities will come to a close at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 25, with a Family Weekend Sunday Eucharist in Reilly Center Arena. To stay up-to-date on all Family Weekend events, go to www.sbu.edu and click on "Student Activities" under "Campus."

Celebrate the 1855 arrival of the friars

St. Bonaventure is inviting the community to join in its celebration of the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the Franciscan friars in Western New York in June 1855.

The celebration, which will include an academic lecture, historical displays and spiritual remembrances, is a first step in marking the 150th anniversary of the founding of St. Bonaventure on Oct. 4, 1858, which will be celebrated throughout academic year 2008-09.

The celebration will begin with an academic lecture, "The Coming of the Friars," by Fr. Dominic V. Monti, O.F.M., vicar provincial of the Province of the Most Holy Name of Jesus, at 4:30 p.m. Thursday in The Regina A. Quick Center for the Arts.

A reception will follow in the lobby of the Quick Center, where movable displays of historical artifacts and photos will be set up for viewing.

At 4:30 p.m. Friday, the First Sesquicentennial Mass will be celebrated in the University Chapel. There will be limited, reserved seating for students, faculty, staff and deans.

Join us in a procession from the Chapel to the kickoff of the Anniversary Campaign for St. Bonaventure 5:45 p.m., on the east steps of the Reilly Center (weather permitting) or in the Reilly Center Arena. An All-Campus Picnic in the Reilly Center Arena will follow.

(Please note: Hickey Dining Hall will be closed Friday evening – please join everyone for the picnic in the RC!)

During the Bonagony street festival from noon to 4 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24, on Family Weekend, the displays will be moved to a booth so local residents, St. Bona families and history buffs can enjoy the photos and artifacts.

CAB Diversity presents

“No Turning Back”

A film starring Jesus Nebot, a suspense about the tragic circumstances that unfold for an illegal alien and his young daughter after a hit and run accident

Tuesday, Sept. 20

7 p.m., Quick Center for the Arts

Zokalo Entertainment's "No Turning Back" was nominated for a 2002 Alma Award in the category of Outstanding Independent Motion Picture. The ALMA Awards was created in 1995 to promote fair, accurate, and balanced portrayals of Latinos in television, film, and music. Born out of a direct response to negative stereotyping of Latinos in entertainment, these awards honor Latino performers for their outstanding artistic achievement, impact, and enhancement of the image of Latinos.

“Key Principles to Harmonious Living in a Multi-Cultural Society”

A lecture by Jesus Nebot

Wednesday, Sept. 21

6-8:30 p.m.. Quick Center for the Arts

Award-winning Spanish actor and filmmaker JESUS NEBOT came to Hollywood three years ago, and since then, has worked non-stop in film, stage and TV.

He's appeared in ABC's hit series "NYPD BLUE," UPN's actioner "THE SENTINEL," Showtime's "ANGEL FROM THE SKY" and the forthcoming feature films "DEMENTIA" and "FINAL VOYAGE" with Ice-T.

On stage, he played the title role in Federico Garcia Lorca's "BLOOD WEDDING" at the Los Angeles Theatre Center.

The talented young actor is internationally known for his starring roles in the top-rated and award-winning television series "LA LOBA HERIDA" and "DIVINA OBSESION."

He is also recognized for his leading roles in seven theater productions and six feature films as well as numerous television commercials and guest appearances around the world.
