

of him that of the last five years in which he has represented his town on the Board of Supervisors, he was returned the last time with only four opposing votes, and this in one of the largest towns in the county, having four election districts.

Gen. Jones, the candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals, is opposed on the What is it ticket by H. O. Perrin, of Know Nothing memory. Mr. Perrin was in this village in the time of dark lanternism, when he hailed from down in Tennessee, and was very apprehensive that "their village was in danger" won a name by gallant services in the army. His regiment was the first to enter Atlanta, and they endured all the hard toil and peril of the campaign through Georgia. He was promoted for meritorious services, and the voters of this State will give him a good endorsement.

How "Democrats" Love Generals
 —The Warren Mail says a resolution was introduced in the Pennsylvania Legislature in January, 1864, voting thanks to Gen. Grant and the officers and soldiers, for their gallant services, and every "Democratic" member voted against it. That was at
