

1832, whom they afterwards named Harmon G. Nov. 9, 1852, in Astabula Co., O., he was married to Elmira Lemon. Four children to them were given: Nathaniel, Fannie A., Lavica and Ida. His second marriage, to Louisa Green, was consummated at Coldspring, by whom he had three children, William, James and Jennie. He was living in Astabula Co., O. when the war burst upon the nation. He enlisted Oct. 16, 1861, at Morgan, O., in Co. K, 29th O. V. I., 2d Brig., Bank's Div., Army of the Potomac, as musician. We mention his battles with pride: Winchester, Port Republic, Culpepper C. H., Chancellorsville, Lookout Valley, Gettysburg, Antietam, Fredericksburg, Cold Harbor and Pittsburg Landing. He was ruptured by prying out a baggage wagon and confined in hospital at Winchester and Stevenson's Station for 11 weeks. In May, 1862 was given a 30 days' furlough with extension of 30 days, and in June rejoined his regiment at Ft. Jackson. June 9, 1864 he was captured at Port Republic but escaped the same night and, after wandering four or five days, regained the lines. In Nov., 1862 he received his discharge but stayed with the regiment till '65 as they did not know he had it. His two brothers fought in the army, William in 29th N. Y. V. I., and Leonard; the latter died in hospital. Nathaniel Wilder, his son, was in Co. A, 29th N. Y. V. I. and is still living. Mrs. Wilder's brothers, James and William Green, were soldiers of the 64th N. Y. V. I. Com. Wilder is the honored Commander of Whipple Post, 651, and lives on a pleasant farm near Onoville, N. Y.

JOSEPH E. WILKINS.

Joseph E. Wilkins of New Hampshire and Emma Gibson of Mass. were the parents of our subject, who was born Jan. 6, 1841, at Buffalo, N. Y. He was employed on the street car line from Buffalo to Niagara when the President called for volunteers, and he enlisted at Buffalo, April, 1861, in Co. F, 21st N. Y. V. I., Patrick's Brig., 3d A. C. as a private and before the end of his service was promoted to 2d Lieut. of 92d N. Y. V. I. He bravely met the enemy at Sulphur Springs and Bull Run, where, Aug. 26, 1862, he was captured, paroled on the field and sent to parole camp, where he remained four months. He was finally discharged at Newburn, N. C., in 1865. Aug. 6, 1867, at Buffalo, he was married to Sarah C. Rounds, daughter of Dr. Levi E. and Anna Walkman Rounds. She was born Oct. 5, 1840 at Lockport, N. Y. Four children have graced this union: Emma, Anna C., Edna E. and Carrie A. Grandfather Gibson was a hero of 1812, while grandfather Wakeman fought in the Revolution. Com. Wilkins is a member of the Sherwood Post, Royal Arcanum, Expressmen Mut. Benefit Association, 121st N. Y. Vet. Association. He is holding a position of trust as express messenger on 13 and 14 on the Erie R. R. He lives in a pleasant home at Salamanca, N. Y.

ROBERT ANDERSON.

A son of James and Susanna Trumbull Anderson, was born Mar. 16, 1836, in Middlebury, Pa. May 15, 1857, at Wellsboro, Pa., he was married to Sarah McCann, daughter of James and Louisa Ames McCann; she was born June 28, 1811, in Cornigug, N. Y. Six children were given to this union, Melvin, Asia (Kelly), Carrie, Georgia, Grace and Lizzie. Mr. Anderson left the farm and was enrolled as a private of Co. H, 45th N. Y. V. I., 3d Brig., 2d Div., 9th A. C. He fought at James Island, South Mt., Antietam, and was called out at Fredericksburg. June 10, 1862, he was deafened in right ear by the concussion of a gunshot at James Island. Feb. 7, 1863 he was confined in Columbia College Hospital, Washington, till Mar. 12, '63. Sept. 14, 1862 he was injured, at South Mt., on left hip and his teeth knocked out. While encamped on Otter Island, Lieut. Col. Beaver (Ex Gov. of Penn.) took Cos. H and K of our regiment to Rosebrook Island; a circular road lead around the house, each company took a separate road and when they met on the circle, supposing each other rebels, a fight ensued and 9 were killed or wounded before mistake was discovered. Mar. 12, 1863 he was given his earned discharge from hospital at Washington, and in fall of '65 came into this county. Thomas and James Anderson, brothers, were in the service, the latter in 45th Pa. V. I., the first in the Bucktails, shot at Fair Oaks and died at Washington. William McCann, wife's brother, in 86th N. Y. V. I., went into battle and never after heard of. Com. Anderson is a member of VanAernam Post at Ellicottville. He thinks of the war days with pleasure, having always done his duty, and faithful to the last.

EDSON D. AMES.

A son of David and Clarissa Edson Ames, was born Oct. 14, 1810, in Charlotte, Chaut. Co., N. Y., and was engaged in farming near Sinclairville when he was enrolled as a private of Co. F, 154th N. Y. V. I., 2d Brig., 2d Div., 11th A. C., at Sinclairville, N. Y., Aug. 28, 1862, and before the end of his service was corporal and sergeant. He was in the fights at Gettysburg and Rocky Face Ridge, and present at Resaca, Peach Tree Creek, to Atlanta, March to the Sea, campaign in the Carolinas, and Review at Washington. He recalls a few incident of Gettysburg: "I was captured at the brick-kiln, as I came onto the road, commanded to surrender, which I did, but escaped and slept in the cemetery at night at foot of a tombstone. Near the railroad, my ankle was turned by concussion of a cannon-shot; Dr. VanAernam sent me to the hospital; was detailed to the dead-house, and as I was never fond of dead people I dug out for Baltimore Distribution camp, and joined regiment in Lookout Valley. A woman drove into the orchard at Gettysburg with a load of bread, gave it to Irwin and me, and we distributed it among the wounded soldiers. The rebel Gen. Olmstead was shot many times at Gettysburg while trying to take a battery on Little Round Top; Irwin and I carried him into the Spangler House, Irwin gave him whisky; he raised up in bed and shouted, "Toll my comrades that I died a brave man." He passed away that night." May 9, '64 he was injured at Rocky Face Ridge. The pioneers were cutting down the trees in front of the line, the camp had to move, and he took his tent on his shoulder and climbed a fence which broke and he severely injured a testicle and broke three ribs, but did not go to hospital and staid with the boys. In April, 1863, was in the hospital for six weeks, sent to Acqua Creek Hospital, got tired of it, and ran away to his regiment. He was discharged June 11, 1865, at Bladensburg, Md. His brother Adelbert, Co. F, 154th N. Y. V. I., served as first lieut., in every fight of the regiment, and promoted for bravery. Jonathan, his younger brother, was in only six weeks. Com. Amos is a member of Van Aernam Post at Ellicottville. He is honored by all his townsmen of Sugartown, N. Y.

MOSES BOWEN,

Son of Moses and Betsey Hopkins Bowen, born Dec. 11, 1843, in Mansfield, N. Y., and was engaged in farming when he enlisted, as a private, Aug. 15, 1862, in Co. B, 154th N. Y. V. I., 2d Brig., 2d Div., 10th and 20th A. C. Nov. 5, 1862, he was taken with typhoid fever and confined in the hospital at Alexandria, Va. in the Baptist church till Jan. 9, '63, then sent to Portsmouth Grove, R. I. for three weeks, returned, but had a severe relapse of the fever and was in Lincoln Hospital, Washington, till Sept., '63, when he joined his regiment at Bridgeport, Ala. He fought at Wauhatchie, Mission Ridge, Lookout Mt., Rocky Face Ridge, Resaca, Pumpkin Vine Creek, All Burnt Hickory, New Hope Church, sent from Chatt. to New Albany, Ind. to Joe Holt Barracks on account of sickness, and at close of war was discharged from Louisville, June 27, 1865. "A little before Kenesaw Mt. we were ordered to advance our pickets, we did so, and that night were so near to them that the outer vidette could hear the rebels talking. We had driven them back that day with the bayonet, and they did not like that kind of medicine." Dec. 29, 1868, at Perrysburg, N. Y., he was united in marriage to Adiline Harvey, child of Charles and Eliza Manley Harvey, and after 25 years of devoted companionship, the wife and mother passed away, May 7, 1893. Two daughters feel her loss, Mary E. and Maude E. Francis M., his brother, was in the 154th N. Y., was wounded. Com. Bowen is an A. O. U. W., and a member of Van Aernam Post, 232. He is a kind and respected neighbor, and lives on a large, fertile farm near Ellicottville.

WILLIAM BIRD,

Son of William and Mary Christie Bird, was born June 29, 1830, in Aberdeen, Scotland, and was united in marriage at Ellicottville, N. Y., Feb. 20, 1859, to Mary C. W. McCadden, daughter of Francis M. and Anna Mathews McCadden. Nine children were given to their home, Minnie, William J., James L., Charles E., Harry, Alexander, Richard, John H., and Benj. P. When the war burst upon the nation, Com. Bird was among the first to respond and rendered his valued services. He was enrolled May 13, 1861, at Ellicottville, N. Y., in Co. I, 37th N. Y. V. I., as 1st Sergt., promoted to 2d Lieut. May 5, 1862, 1st Lieut. Sept. 13, 1862, and Capt. Dec. 20, 1862. He was to the front in engagements of Yorktown, Williamsburg, Fair Oaks, 2d Bull Run, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Cold Harbor and Petersburg. May 31, 1864 he received a gunshot through shoulder at Fairmount, Va., and June 17, 1864, at Petersburg, a piece of shell in left knee. His hospital record reads; Field Hospital, Savage Sta., 2 days; Mt. Pleasant Hospital, Washington, two weeks; Naval Academy, Annapolis, four weeks; all account of wounds receive in line of duty. Oct. 28, 1862 he was transferred, at Poolesville, Md., from Co. I to H, 37th, and was discharged from it June 22, 1863, at New York City, and re-enlisted Feb. 16, 1864, in Co. D, 179th N. Y. V. I., and was finally discharged Aug. 29, 1864, at Annapolis. His three brothers; George M. in 26th Mo. V. I.; James and Alexander in 154th N. Y. V. I. The wife's brother, R. J. McCadden, was in the 154th N. Y. Com. Bird has ably served as supervisor and sheriff, and also on the Board of Game and Fish Commissioners for 14 years. He is a member of F. & A. M., and Phil. Kearney Post, 18, of Minn., G. A. R. He is spending the declining years of life in Fairmount, Minn., respected by all.

LEVI D. BRYANT,

Son of Seth and Lois Bryant of Pelham, Mass., was born near Rochester, N. Y., Nov. 16, 1822, and settled in this county in 1856. Feb. 16, 1858 he was married to Cornelia A. Hyde, daughter of Ira and Hannah Eldridge Hyde; she was born June 13, 1836, in Ellicottville, N. Y. Eight children crowned their home ties, Francis M., Dora A., Nellie M., Olive L., Mary, William, Lois and Mabel, dec. He was a painter when the war of Rebellion assumed its large proportions; he left the brush and took the musket, Sept. 5, 1864, at Avon, N. Y., in Co. G, 154th N. Y. V. I., 2d Brig., 2d Div., 20th A. C. He was on the march to the Sea, campaign in the Carolinas and Grand Review at Washington. Com. Bryant says, "At Savannah happened an incident which shows Sherman's character. The army had seized a lot of cotton. Three English officers claimed it as property of the Queen and

Ames Family Source- Presidents, Soldiers, Statesmen

Edson D. Ames

A son of David and Clarissa, Edson Ames was born Oct. 14, 1840 in Charlotte, Chautauqua County, New York State and was engaged in farming near Sinclairville when he enrolled as a private of Co. F 154 N.Y.V.I., 2nd Brig. 2nd Div. 11th A.C. at Sinclairville, N.Y. August 28, 1862, before the end of his service was Corp. and Sgt.

He was in the fights at Gettysburg and Rocky Face Ridge, present at Resaca, Peach Tree Creek to Atlanta, March to the Sea, campaign in the Carolinas, Review at Washington. He recalls a few incidents at Gettysburg. "I was captured at the brick-kiln, as I came onto the road was commanded to surrender which I did but escaped and slept in the cemetery at night at the foot of a tombstone near the railroad my ankle was turned by concussion of a cannon shot. Dr. Van Aernam sent me to the hospital, was detailed to the dead house and as I was never fond of dead people I dug out for Baltimore Distribution camp and joined regiment in Lookout Valley. A woman drove into the orchard at Gettysburg with a loaf of bread, gave to Irwin and me, we distributed it among the wounded soldiers. The rebel General Olmstead was shot many times at Gettysburg while trying to take a battery on Little Round Top. Irwin and me carried him into the Spangler House. Irwin gave him whiskey, he raised up in bed and shouted 'Tell my comrades that I died a brave man,' he passed away that night.

May 9th, 1864 he was impaired at Rocky Face Ridge. The pioneers were cutting trees in front of the line, the camp had to move and he took his tent on his shoulder and climbed a fence which broke and he severely injured a testicle, broke three ribs, but did not go to the hospital but staid with the boys. In April 1863 was in the hospital for six weeks, sent to Acqua Creek Hospital, got tired of it and ran away to his regiment. He was discharged June 11, 1865 at Blanden Md. His brother Adelbert Co. F 154 N.Y.V.I. served as first lieutenant in every fight of the regiment and promoted for bravery. Jonathan (our grandfather) his younger brother was in only six weeks. Edson Ames is a member of Van Aernam Post at Ellicottville, N.Y.

(Courtesy of Carolyn Ames Simons, Nashua, N.H.)

PRESIDENTS, SOLDIERS, STATESMEN.

1491

ROBERT ANDERSON.

A son of James and Susanna Trumbull Anderson, was born Mar. 16, 1836, in Middlebury, Pa. May 15, 1857, at Wellsboro, Pa., he was married to Sarah McCann, daughter of James and Louisa Ames McCann; she was born June 28, 1841, in Corniing, N. Y. Six children were given to this union, Melvin, Asia (Kelly), Carrie, Georgia, Grace and Lizzie. Mr. Anderson left the farm and was enrolled as a private of Co. H, 45th N. Y. V. I., 3d Brig., 2d Div., 9th A. C. He fought at James Island, South Mt., Antietam, and was called out at Fredericksburg. June 10; 1862, he was deafened in right ear by the concussion of a gunshot at James Island. Feb. 7, 1863 he was confined in Columbia College Hospital, Washington, till Mar. 12, '63. Sept. 14, 1862 he was injured, at South Mt., on left hip and his teeth knocked out. While encamped on Otter Island, Lieut.-Col. Beaver (Ex-Gov. of Penn.) took Cos. H and K of our regiment to Rosebrook Island; a circular road lead around the house, each company took a separate road and when they met on the circle, supposing each other rebels, a fight ensued and 9 were killed or wounded before mistake was discovered. Mar. 12, 1863 he was given his earned discharge from hospital at Washington, and in fall of '65 came into this county. Thomas and James Anderson, brothers, were in the service, the latter in 45th Pa. V. I., the first in the Bucktails, shot at Fair Oaks and died at Washington. William McCann, wife's brother, in 86th N. Y. V. I., went into battle and never after heard of. Com. Anderson is a member of VanAernam Post at Ellicottville. He thinks of the war days with pleasure, having always done his duty, and faithful to the last.

~~*~~ = EDSON D. AMES.

A son of David and Clarissa Edson Ames, was born Oct. 14, 1840, in Charlotte, Chaut. Co., N. Y., and was engaged in farming near Sinclairville when he was enrolled as a private of Co. F, 154th N. Y. V. I., 2d Brig., 2d Div., 11th A. C., at Sinclairville, N. Y., Aug. 28, 1862, and before the end of his service was corporal and sergeant. He was in the fights at Gettysburg and Rocky Face Ridge, and present at Reseca, Peach Tree Creek, to Atlanta, March to the Sea, campaign in the Carolinas, and Review at Washington. He recalls a few incident of Gettysburg: "I was captured at the brick-kiln, as I came onto the road, commanded to surrender, which I did, but escaped and slept in the cemetery at night at foot of a tombstone. Near the railroad, my ankle was turned by concussion of a cannon-shot; Dr. VanAernam sent me to the hospital; was detailed to the dead-house, and as I was never fond of dead people I dug out for Baltimore Distribution camp, and joined regiment in Lookout Valley. A woman drove into the orchard at Gettysburg with a load of bread, gave it to Irwin and me, and we distributed it among the wounded soldiers. The rebel Gen. Olmstead was shot many times at Gettysburg while trying to take a battery on Little Round Top; Irwin and I carried him into the Spangler House, Irwin gave him whisky; he raised up in bed and shouted, "Tell my comrades that I died a brave man." He passed away that night." May 9, '64 he was injured at Rocky Face Ridge. The pioneers were cutting down the trees in front of the line, the camp had to move, and he took his tent on his shoulder and climbed a fence which broke and he severely injured a testicle and broke three ribs, but did not go to hospital and staid with the boys. In April, 1863, was in the hospital for six weeks, sent to Acqua Creek Hospital, got tired of it, and ran away to his regiment. He was discharged June 11, 1865, at Bladensburg, Md. His brother Adelbert, Co. F, 154th N. Y. V. I., served as first lieut., in every fight of the regiment, and promoted for bravery. Jonathan, his younger brother, was in only six weeks. Com. Ames is a member of VanAernam Post at Ellicottville. He is honored by all his townsmen of Sugartown, N. Y.

MOSES BOWEN,

Son of Moses and Betsey Hopkins Bower, born Dec. 11, 1843, in Mansfield, N. Y., and was engaged in farming when he enlisted, as a private, Aug. 15, 1862, in Co. B, 154th N. Y. V. I., 2d Brig., 2d Div., 10th and 20th A. C. Nov. 5, 1862, he was taken with typhoid fever and confined in the hospital at Alexandria, Va. in the Baptist church till Jan. 9, '63, then sent to Portsmouth Grove, R. I. for three weeks, returned, but had a severe relapse of the fever and was in Lincoln Hospital, Washington, till Sept., '63, when he joined his regiment at Bridgeport, Ala. He fought at Wauhatchie, Mission Ridge, Lookout Mt., Rocky Face Ridge, Reseca, Pumpkin Vine Creek, All Burnt Hickory, New Hope Church, sent from Chatt. to New Albany, Ind. to Joe Holt Barracks on account of sickness, and at close of war was discharged from Louisville, June 27, 1865. "A little before Kenesaw Mt. we were ordered to advance our pickets, we did so, and that night were so near to them that the outer vidette could hear the rebels talking. We had driven them back that day with the bayonet, and they did not like that kind of medicine." Dec. 29, 1868, at Perrysburg, N. Y., he was united in marriage to Adiline Harvey, child of Charles and Eliza Manley Harvey, and after 25 years of devoted companionship, the wife and mother passed away, May 7, 1893. Two daughters feel her loss, Mary E. and Maude E. Francis M., his brother, was in the 154th N. Y., was wounded. Com. Bowen is an A. O. U. W., and a member of VanAernam Post, 232. He is a kind and respected neighbor, and lives on a large, fertile farm near Ellicottville.