MEMORANDA.

September 1st 3
Records

My dear age today I stand for separation and I do not withstand of the future and I realize would come perhaps that year hearing good health with the exception of a very I have got a long well not seeing a sick day will wondered at not missed a day and only of the first part of the infectious fever, which I the afternoon, what another near noon today will bring just but I hope the best still more than this could ever bring to closed satisfaction. The many of the neck days have troubled the hearing from some quiet to perhaps it will be continued with my life. It will be a hard one to look forward for better days in the future. I would like to permit me to be able to consider all difculties provided with a million just to put me in my present with situated in the hospital with all heart can wish for kind friends as much as I. With the best wishes I shall ever send you my best love and affection.
