Personally came before me a Notary Public in and for the aforesaid County and State, Mrs. Dora Kahler a citizen of Ashford, whose Post Office address is West Valley, well known to me to be reputable and entitled to credit, and who, being duly sworn, declares as follows:

She has known Mrs. Louise Bollow for many years, and also her late husband Frederick Bollow. She knew her before her marriage to him.

Her maiden name was Louise Westendorf, and when she first knew her she had just recently come from Germany.

That on August 2d 1870 she was married to Mr. Frederick Bollow by Rev. Gasleichter, of the Evangelical Methodist (German) Church at my home, and myself and my husband Joseph Kahler (deceased) were witnesses to the marriage.

I have always lived within a few rods of their home and know that they have always lived together as man and wife since their marriage.
