

The Collector's Receipt shown below shows payment of taxes on the Bollow farm home on Town Line, Town of Ellicottville, County of Cattaraugus, for the year of 1910. This Collector's Receipt was borrowed from the files of Marjorie Bollow Stadler in Feb. 1982; these files include many more of these Collector's Receipts. Note that the name of Frederick Bollow, Jr. is written as Bollow on this receipt.

COLLECTOR'S RECEIPT.

"The Collector shall deliver a receipt to each person paying a tax, specifying the date of such payment, the name of such person, the description of the property as shown on the assessment roll, the name of the person to whom the same is assessed, the amount of such tax and the date of the delivery to him of the assessment roll on account of which such tax was paid. For the purpose of giving such receipt each Collector shall have a book of blank receipts, so arranged that when a receipt is torn therefrom a corresponding stub will remain. The State Board of Tax Commissionere shall prescribe the form of such receipts, stubs and books, and they shall be furnished to the Collector by the Board of Supervisors, at the expense of the county. At the time of giving such a receipt the Collector shall make the same entries on the corresponding stub as are required to be made on the receipt. Such book shall be subject to public inspection and shall be filed by the Collector, with his return together with the assessment roll in the office of the County Treasurer,"—Sec. 94, ch. 908, laws '96, amended by ch. 489, laws '97.

Several generations of Bollows lived in the Bollow farm home on Town Line Road, Town of Ellicottville, Cattaraugus County, New York. It was here that Fred C. Bollow and his brother and sisters were born. This was the farm that Fred and Lena Bollow purchased from Fred's parents when they were married. It was in this house that Fred and Lena Bollow's children--Marjorie Helen and Arnold Frederick--were born. Fred and Lena Bollow and their family lived in this house until they purchased the house on Court Street in Little Valley about 1929.
