

POST
by John A. Moffitt
Editor and Publisher
H. MOFFITT
and Business Manager Publication Office
11111 Cataract Co., N.Y.
PLEB PAPER

aturday afternoon at 7:30 Ellicottville, N. Y.
$1.00 per year, payable not give express notice to considered as wishing to con-from year to year. Pay-made before subscription is only, run of paper, all plate each insertion, $125 per col-ortments are to be set, be-is to be paid for compo-or all changes. An extra and special positions. ange in address, subscrib-is old address as well as office, Ellicottville, N. Y., as ster.

WEEKLY
VALLEY-LIVELY TIMES

INTER

in of Europe was a er after all.

r there are not some inst the rulers who ar. It takes a lot of stupidity—to fight and can't know what he pean monarchies are imited" or altogether e near future it will be ople are willing to reand slaves all their a man drives over a and a train of cars d smashes him, what the train or the track? a weak constitution ter unlikely of itself to y, and the child is vasdie—was it the vasdie disorder that caused some may think it was n, but you won't find the death certificate does not mitigate the of the parent who perobed to a doctor who comto a doctor who per-colic cattle we should go very hurry" and that "the meat of a cow slightly affected with tuberculosis may be made safe to eat if it is well cooked, just as the milk of a tuberculosis cow is rendered safe by boiling or pasteurization.

All very true, without doubt, but that "second class" label is going to demoralize the canned meat trade unless we are very much mistaken.
To the average person it is going to change the taste of the contents of the can which bears it. However good the meat, the American nose is going to be elevated.

Virginia is voted "dry" by more than 82 thousand votes. The new temperance law will prohibit the sale of liquor even in clubs.

John A. Moffitt

Andrew Fedick.

Andrew Fedick, the son of Jacob and the late Emma Fedick, died at his home Saturday, Sept. 19th.

He was born at Star Mills on August 24, 1901. His parents moved to Killbuck and later to his present home northeast of Great Valley village.

He was a faithful and willing boy.
By these two traits he gained many fast friends.

His death was a shock to all his friends. On Monday he seemed as well as usual and drove to Ellicottville with his parents to see the doctor and received his vaccination certificate.
Tuesday he was not feeling as well as usual but was not seriously ill but on Wednesday he was taken suddenly worse and from that time never spoke a word. He grew worse until Saturday about 5 he passed away.

He is survived by a father, two brothers Irwin and Arthur and three sisters Eva Sanford, Josephine Lemper, and Rose.

He will be missed by those of the family and many a time will they call for him in vain. His friends both young and old and especially his schoolmates who were with him until approximately a week will miss him more than any.

Andrew Fedick was born and bred in the town of Killbuck. He was educated in the district school and at the Ellicottville High School. He was employed by E. Green, and later by the power company. He was a member of the Y.M.C.A. and all his time was devoted to his studies and to his family.

Injuries Cause Death of Francis M. Bowen.

A fatal accident which resulted in the death of Francis M. Bowen, occurred about 9 o'clock Thursday morning Sept. 10, on the Jo Jo road, Mc-Kean Co., Pa.

Mr. Bowen was riding on one of the big delivery wagons of Stoll & Co., which was being driven by A. R. Lowing who was making a delivery of groceries and feed to the James home on the Jo Jo road. After making the delivery, Mr. Lowing started turning the horses around and the back wheel sunk in a rut in the road tipping the wagon. Mr. Bowen was thrown from his seat by the sudden lurch and Mr.
Lowing attempted to grab him and in doing so the wagon in some unaccountable manner overturned and pinned Mr. Bowen beneath the rear wheels and entangling Lowing among the front ones so that he could not render any assistance to Mr. Bowen.

A. C. Snyder, who was working on a lease nearby, witnessed the accident and rushed to the men's assistance.
Lowing was only slightly bruised but Mr. Bowen had both legs broken and was otherwise injured. He was rendered unconscious by the accident and the men immediately sent a hurry call to the Kane Summit Hospital for the ambulance.

Dr. Burdick quickly arrived on the scene, as well as the two daughters of the injured man who were hurriedly taken there in an automobile to render what assistance they could.

He was immediately taken to the hospital where all was done that was possible, but after a night of unconsciousness, he died at five o'clock Friday morning.—Kane Leader.

Francis M. Bowen, son of Moses and Betsey Hopkins Bowen, was born in the town of Mansfield, Aug. 21, 1888.
He served about three years in the civil war in Co. I, 154th Reg. N. Y. V.
Since 1865 he has lived most of the time at various points in northwestern Pennsylvania. He was married in 1868 to Miss Salina M. Barber of Linesville, Pa., who died in December 1911.

He is survived by two brothers Cyrus Bowen and Moses Bowen of Ellicott-ville four daughters, Mrs. Lydia Badger and Miss Aohsah Bowen of Kane, Pa., Mrs. Geo. Hatch of Falconer, Mrs. J. Milton Hillier of Ft. Wayne, Ind. and two sons, Herbert L. and Charles M. of Spangsbury, Pa.

The funeral was held at North Girard, Pa. on Sunday, Sept. 15.
Those from Cattaraugus who were in attendance were: Cyrus Bowen, Moses Bowen and Frank Bowen and Mrs. Emily Bowen and daughter Miss Ina of Ellicottville, Mrs. Annie Edmunds of West Otto, Hamilton Bowen and Edy Bowen of the Valley.

Finn-Rosch.

The marriage of Miss Kathryn Rosch, daughter of Daniel Rosch, general superintendent of The Ohio Oil company pipe lines in Illinois, and James H. Finn, of the Producers' company, Tulsa, Oklahoma, was solemnized at St. Mary's church, Marshall Illinois, Wednesday morning, September 23rd, in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. The bride wore a beautiful gown of exquisite embroidered ivory satin in full train.
Her tulle veil was caught with a wreath of lilies of the valley and roses. Miss Mary Ann Rosch, her sister, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of pink taffeta, with lace picture hat. She carried pink Killarney roses. John O'Brien of Lima, O., was best man and Ed Finn of Lima, and William Loftus, Jr., of Bridgeport, Ill., were ushers.

Breakfast was served at the Rosch home immediately after the ceremony to about 40 guests, covers for 12 being laid at the brides' table, which was decorated with bride roses and lilies of the valley, the remaining guests being served at small tables in the library.

The gift table was covered with many elaborate pieces of silver, of glass and linen.

Mr. Finn and wife left for a honeymoon in the East and will be at home after November 1st in Tulsa.

The out of town guests were Mr.
Peter Caldwell and Miss Anne Cal-well, Chicago; Mrs. M. Connel-Crossingville, Penna.; M. J. Duffy a wife, Martinsville, Ill.; Misses Grand Mary Halpine, Findlay, O.; Thur Halpine, Carlyle, Ill.; Miss Ne-Roach, Ellicottville, N. Y.; W.
Loftus and wife, Miss Mary Loftus of William Loftus, Jr., Bridgeport, Ill.; Mrs. J. Finn, Edward Finb, J-O'Brien, Lima, O.; James Rosch Bridgeport, Ill.; Thomas Roach, long, Ill.; Frank Fitzpatrick, Bri-port, Ill.; and Mrs. William Kier-Martinsville, Ill.

Wives, be Careful.

Mrs. Clarke came running hurri-ng to her husband one morning.

"Oh, Diok!" she cried, as she gasped for breath, "I dropped my diamond ring off my finger, and I can't find it anywhere."

"It's all right, Boss," replied Clarke, "I came across it in my pockets."—Public Ledger.

It will Pay
If you Put It in The Post

