

John Dawley died at his home on Johnson St. and the funeral at Perysburg, burial at Ruggtown cemetery. He was a soldier and a member of Darby Post. He has been ill for a year or more. He was formerly a fine singer and helped much in the services of the Methodist Church.

Died November 4, 1904

Courtesy of Phil Palen, Gowanda, New York