

I have forwarded your letter to the address above given

Am sympathizing with you in your present affliction & trusting that you will find comfort in the Providence & Grace of God

Believe me

Yours Truly

Dear C. L. Evans

Dear Madam

When I saw your husband he was in the 11th Army Corp Hospital at Gettysburg I presume he is there yet. The wounded are being moved to Hospitals near their homes as far as possible but I doubt whether your husband has been removed

It affords me pleasure to assure you that he with the rest of the wounded are receiving every attention at the hands of many kind friends whose patriotic & Christian & sympathies have prompted them to repair to the scene of suffering
