

CORRY CIVIL WAR VETERAN IS DEAD AT 88

John Farnham Dies at Home of Niece

Special to The Times

Corry, Jan. 25.—Ranks of the Civil War veterans in the city were further diminished Thursday with the death of John Farnham, who passed away at the home of his niece, Mrs. Walter Casler, at Columbus, following a week's illness with pneumonia. He was 88 years old.

Mr. Farnham, a resident of Corry for over 50 years, was long prominent in the affairs of Post 70, G. A. R., being a regular attendant at the meetings of the post. His last trip out of the house was to attend a meeting of the Grand Army, in which he maintained the closest interest.

The old veteran saw service in the Civil War with Company F of the 154th New York Infantry. He served continuously until June 16, 1865, when he was honorably discharged. Among the major engagements in which he served was the battles of the Potomac and at Lookout Mountain.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at the chapel of Alexander and company. Rev. A. L. Roth, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate and interment will be made in Pine Grove cemetery.
