

ANDRES FRANKLIN.

Andres Franklin, a son of Samuel and Betsey (Nichols) Franklin, was born Nov. 25, 1844, in New Albion, New York. When our flag was trailed in the dust in the South, our subject was engaged in farming. He was among the first to enlist from Catterangus Co.; being enrolled Aug. 17, 1861, at Randolph, N. Y. in Co. B, 64th N. Y. V. I., 4th Brig., 1st Div., of the 2d A. C. With his gallant regiment, he faced the enemy in the following battles: Fair Oaks, Seven Day's Fight, Harri-son's Landing, Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, Petersburg, Yorktown, Antietam, Snicker's Gap, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, Deep Bottom, Gettysburg and Appomattox C. H. July 2, 1863, Comrade Franklin was wounded in the leg by a gunshot, and was confined in the hospital at Washington from August, 1863 to May 4, 1864 when he received his discharge. In March, 1864, he came home on a furlough for forty-five days, returning to the hospital at the end of the time. Again fired by his love of country, he reenlisted in Co. M, 13th N. Y. H. A. (Navy Brig.) He was often detailed on provost duty at Hampton Roads in 1864, also at Ft. Monroe, guarding all ships passing in and out of the harbor. He was transferred to U. S. gunboat "Burnside." When the war was ended and "Johnny came marching home again," our hero was given his honorable discharge, June 28, 1865, at Norfolk. Andres Franklin was united in marriage, Jan. 1, 1861, at Conewango, N. Y., to Mary A. Williams, a daughter of John and Mary (Vansickers) Williams. Mrs. Franklis was born April 2, 1848, in Conewango, N. Y. Three children were given to this union, Henry A. born Aug. 28, 1867; Edward S. born Sept. 13, 1869 and Etta M. born Aug. 28, 1871. Herschel Franklin a brother, was in the service, died at Hampton of typhoid fever. Comrade Franklin is an honored member of the Brown Post, No. 285, and resides on a pleasant farm at Smith Mills, N. Y.

FRANK FROMYER.

In the City of Kalb, Kingdom of Wittenburg, Germany on the 10th of September, 1845, Frank Fromyer was born. He was the son of Frederick and Christina (Schmidt) Fromyer. They came to this country in 1852 and settled in Buffalo, N. Y. At the outbreak of the Rebellion, he was engaged in farming near Silver Creek, N. Y., he was one of the many thousands of boys to respond to the President's call. He enrolled as a private in Co. K, 112th N. Y. V. I., 1st and 3d Brig., 2d Div., 10th A. C. and in due time was made corporal. He bore conspicuous part in the following battles: Deserted House, Black Water, Suffolk, Morris Island, Ft. Wagner, Drewry's Bluff, Bermuda Hundred, Cold Harbor, Petersburg, Ft. Fisher and Wilmington. In August, 1864, Corp. Fromyer was confined in the hospital at Point of Rocks, later in the Saterlee hospital of Philadelphia, and finally in the Augur general hospital, for five months. On Dec. 22, 1864, he was given a twenty days' furlough, and returned promptly to Auger general hospital and immediately to his regiment at Wilmington, N. C. From Nov. 27, 1863, to Aug. 1, 1864, Comrade Fromyer was on detailed service as mounted orderly for Gen. Vorhees at Folly Island, and for Col. Drake, commanding the brigade until June 1, 1864, and Gen. N. M. Curtis' orderly from June 1 until Aug. 1, 1864. After the horrors of war had ceased and peace rested like a benediction upon our nation, the regiment was discharged from the U. S. service June 13, 1865, at Raleigh, N. C. In the great city of Buffalo, on the 12th of August, 1873, occurred a very pleasant wedding, when Pauline Huetter, the daughter of Carl and Margaret (Seigle) Huetter, became the beloved wife of Frank Fromyer. Their children are Matilda, Margaret and Frank Frederick. Comrade Fromyer has held the office of school director. He still keeps in touch with the boys by being a faithful member of John Braden Post, No. 488, having been honored by the offices of Commander and Officer of the Day. He now resides in North East, Pa.

CHAS. O. FURMAN.

Charles O. Furman, a son of John and Clarissa (Howard) Furman, was born in Brocton, N. Y., June 13, 1841. He was engaged as a clerk in a store when the President called for volunteers. The sight of the 1st Pa. Rifles (Bucktails) going down the Allegheny to Pittsburg, so enthused the young man that he could not resist the "war fever." On Aug. 22, 1862, at Brocton, N. Y., he was enrolled as private in Co. E, 154th N. Y. V. I., 1st Brig., 2d Div., 11th A. C. May 3, 1863, we find him in the thickest of the fight at Chancellorsville, where he was captured and held at Richmond and Bell Isle for one month. In September, he was given a thirty days' furlough, which was extended twenty days, and he came home. While on his way to his regiment he was injured in a railroad wreck, which happened between Nashville and Chattanooga. He was taken to Murfreesboro hospital for treatment, and on recovery was detailed here in the mail department, medical department and as hospital steward, until finally discharged July 4, 1865. On the beautiful June morning of the 4th, 1863, Chas. O. Furman was united in marriage to Harriet N. Whitford, a daughter of Archibald and Nancy (Furman) Whitford. Mrs. Furman was born Sept. 6, 1851, at Sherburne, N. Y. Three children were given to this marriage, Lyda Rose, born May 24, 1874; Archibald R., born Aug. 9, 1875, and Floyd A., born Dec. 10, 1877. The young son, Floyd, was in the 65th N. Y. V. I., in the Spanish-American war. Mrs. Furman's brothers, DeForest and John, were in the service. Mr

Furman has been supervisor for four years of Portland township, this county, and P. M. at Brocton for twenty years. He is a faithful member of James R. Hall Post, No. 292, G. A. R., and since the war has been one of the foremost merchants in Brocton, N. Y.

C. W. GREELY

Was born in Leon, Catteraugus Co., N. Y., June 14, 1845; his parents were Ira and Mary (Loveland) Greely. When but sixteen years old he heard the call to arms in defence of his country and was among the first to volunteer, as did also his two brothers, Mathias W., killed at Brandy Station Oct. 11, 1863, and Daniel E., who died since the war. Charles enlisted Aug. 10, 1861, at Stockton, N. Y., in Co. G, 49th N. Y. V. I., 3d Brig., 2d Div., 6th A. C. Though never wounded he did not escape the hardships of army life; he was confined in hospital near Richmond for three months, and transferred to hospitals at White House Landing, Ft. Monroe and Clyburn hospital at Washington, D. C. He was captured and held at Bell Isle for twenty days and paroled. Comrade Greely participated in the battles of Mechanicsville, Big Bethel, Yorktown, 1st and 2d Fredericksburg, 2d Bull Run, Antietam, White Oak Swamp, Drainsville, Malvern Hill, Fair Oaks and Cedar Creek; he received an honorable discharge Sept. 3, 1864, at Washington, D. C. "When Charlie came marching home" he found his best girl in a Miss Emma J. Cook, of Summerdale township, Chautauqua Co., N. Y., daughter of James and Sabina (Benson) Cook, of Westfield, N. Y., to whom he was married. Three children were born to this union, Gertrude M., M. Pearl and C. Claud. Mrs. Greely is also of the pure patriotic blood; her grandfather, Wm. Benson, was in the 1812 war, also her father, James Cook, and uncles, George and Murry Benson and Daniel Cook, were all in the Civil war. In politics Comrade Greely is a Republican; he is a notary public and court crier at Mayville, N. Y., and also works his farm at Summerdale to meet the demands of his loving family of which he may well be proud.

H. H. GREELY.

H. H. Greely, son of David and Lucinda (Smith) Greely, was born in Chautauqua county, N. Y., May 30, 1843, and on Christmas Day of 1879, was married, at Jamestown, N. Y., to Miss Phoebe Gates, daughter of William and Lydia (Martin) Gates. Mr. Greely was previously married to Miss Sarah Wright, and three children blessed this union, Lucinda, William and Sarah. Early in 1861, H. H. Greely, although a mere boy of 17 years, enlisted at Smithport in Co. C, 43d Pa. Vol. Inf., 6th A. C., and bravely took his place beside older men in the battles of 2d Bull Run, Seven Days' Fight around Richmond, Cedar Mt., Gettysburg and Warrenton. Because of severe wounds received at the 2d battle of Bull Run, also at Gettysburg, Comrade Greely was confined to the hospital for some time. Because of continued disability, the boy soldier was honorably discharged from the field hospital at Gettysburg in August, 1863, and is now a prosperous farmer near Gerry, N. Y.

MARCUS L. GREEN.

Marcus L. Green, private of Co. K, 112th N. Y. V. I., 3d Brig., 2d Div., 10th A. C., is the son of Samuel and Elanor (Ferguson) Green. He was born Nov. 2, 1841, at New Albion, N. Y. In 1859 Comrade Green settled in Chautauqua county, N. Y., and enlisted August 25, 1862, at Hamlet, N. Y. Private Green bore a conspicuous part in the following battles: Deserted House, Siege of Suffolk, Blackwater, Carysville, Ft. Wagner, Jacksonville, Fla., Bermuda Hundred, before Petersburg, Spottsylvania, Cold Harbor, Ft. Fisher (right hernia received in this assault) and Appomattox C. H. It was at Drewry's Bluff in 1864 that our subject was wounded in the right arm. January, 1863, he was sent to Div. hospital on Folly Island for two weeks, on account of bloody dysentery, resulting in piles. He was detailed in the wagon train under Reuben Gouldthread for three months. Marcus L. Green was honorably discharged June 13, 1865, at Raleigh, N. C. His first marriage was to Emma Meachem, by whom he had two children, Nellie D. and William J. Later he was united in marriage with Marcia Waterman, daughter of Daniel and Mary (Broad) Waterman. Mrs. Green was born July 15, 1838, at Egan's Centre, N. Y. Three children were given to this union, Lee M., Mamie G. and Daniel B. H. Green, brother of Marcus L., was a member of the "bloody" 9th N. Y. Cav. Comrade Green is a faithful member of the Staring Post, No. 393, and is now living on his broad acres near Smith Mills, N. Y.

ROBT. LEE GOLDIN.

Robert Lee Goldin, was born Nov. 13, 1841, at Ellington, N. Y. His parents, Robt. and Sally (Fisk) Goldin, have long ago passed to their reward. His boyhood days were spent on the farm helping his father, and even then the low mutterings of civil strife were born on the winds from the South. Not until the storm had burst in its lemoniac fury did the North fully realize its stupendous task of "guiding the Ship of State." Our subject was a member of the famous Co. K, 9th N. Y. V. Cav., having been enrolled Sept. 13, 1861, at Ellington. His active services began at Yorktown May 4, 1862; he followed the glories
