JESSIEK. GREEN.

David and his good wife, Phoeba Brown Green, were rejoiced on the birth of a son, Jessie K., April 16, 1839, in Lackawana, Pa. When the dark pall of Civil War covered our fair land, he enlisted, Sept. 6, 1862, at Hinsdale, N. Y., in Co. 1, 154th N. Y. V. I., 1st Brig., 2d Div., 11th A. C, as a private. Before the close of his valued services he was made corporal and sergeant. With his heroic command he fought at Chancellorsville, Missionary Ridge, Lookout Mt., Wauhatchie Valley, and all engagements from Dalton to Reseca. May 3, 1863, at Chancellorsville, Comrade Green received three gunshot wounds, in fore arm, left hip and right side., and being left on the field he was captured, but on May 18th was paroled and sent to the Acqua Creek hospital, where he remained two weeks, from thence taken to Mansion House Hospital at Alexandria, and finally to convalescent and parole camp, Alexandria, remaining here until Sept., 1863. He rejoined his command at Bridgeport, Ala. In winter of 1863-4 he came home on a 30 day furlough, returning promptly at end of time to his regiment in Lockout Valley. At Reseca he was wounded in the left palm, losing his largest finger, by a gunshot, and as he dryly remarks, "The last ball I attempted to catch." He was taken to hospital at Nashville. At Cleveland, O., Feb. 6, 1866, he was discharged. He was first married to Helen M. Webster, by whom he had one child, Archie S. Was married secondly Mar. 17, 1875, at Otto, N. Y., to Lucy J. Tarbox, daughter of Jonathan and Rachel A. Tarbox. Nellie M. has graced this union. Mrs. Green was born on July 5, 1843 rt Brokenstraw, Pa. Comrade Green has ably filled the office of Constable, Collector and School Trustee, and is one of the respected men of llinsdale, N. Y.

MARTIN GREEN

Is a son of Jabez and Eliza Luther Green, and was born May 28, 1828 at Spencer, Mass. His early training was excellent, fitting him for a useful, manly life. At Milford, N. Y., Feb. 9, 1851, he was united in marriage to Henrietta S. Newell, daughter of Sylvester G. and

Mary Ann Rider Newell. Mrs. Green was born April 22, 1831, at North Hampton, Mass. Four children were given to this union, Carrie E. (Henson), dec., Eddie L., dec., Nellie A. (Rathbone), and Hattie D. (Caverly). When our country was plunged into war and brave men were needed, our comrade left his shoe shop and, Sept. 5, 1864, collisted as a landsman and was assigned to the gunboat Undine of the Miss. Squadron. While patroling the Tenn. River near Fort Henry, a rebel masked battery of Forrest's opened fire on them and the boat was captured; 22 of the crew escaped and for four days Mr. Green guided them over the Tenn. mountains, without food, and they at last reached Johnsonville, then to Nashville and came home. Before the capture he was detailed on board to care for the wounded. After his return he reported for duty at New York to the gunboat Vermont, and received his honorable discharge Sept. 18, 1865. New York Navy Yards. Among his battles may be mentioned Johnsonville. Nashville, and constant skirmishing with the guerillas of Forest and Wheeler. His father was captain in a Mass. militia, and a brother Edwin, it, an Ill, reg't of Hooker's Corps, was on the March to the Sea. Mrs. Green's cousin, John Newell, was at Gettysburg. Our subject has been honored by public office, overseer of the poot, school trustee and J. of P. His wife is an Episcopalian, and they live in a quiet home in Hinsdale, N. Y.

GEORGE R. GREY

Is a son of David and Lorinda Warner Grey, and was born Aug. 13, 1839, at Napoli, N. Y. Exchanging the plowshare for the bayonet, he enlisted July 4, 1864, at Little Valley, in Co. A, 154th N. Y. V. I. as a private and in due time was made corporal. He shared the glory of this heroic regiment on many bloody fields, Chancellorsville, Chattanooga, Lookout Mt., Mission Ridge, Rocky Face Ridge, Dalton, Reseca, Pumpkinvine Creek, Kenesaw Mt., New Hope Church, Atlanta, March to the Sea, ending with the campaign in the Carolinas at Bentonville. May 3, 1863, at Chancellorsville, he was wounded by gunshot in right arm; was captured by the rebels and in 12 days paroled and sent to Alexandria; from thence was sent home and on exchange in Sept., 1863, went to his command in Lookout Valley. He was