

FRANKLIN VILLE
N. Y.

THE CHRONICLE, week ending August 24, 1894

JOHN HOGG died Monday morning. He was born on the old WILSON HOGG farm 58 years ago and was a son of GEORGE HOGG, a former long respected resident. About ten years ago he was married to MINA GRIERSON, daughter of JAMES GRIERSON of this village and as a result of their union two children were born, ANNA HOGG & ETHEL HOGG. His brothers still living are JAMES HOGG, Franklinville, GEORGE W. HOGG, Lyndon, B. F. HOGG, Columbus, Kansas and ADAM HOGG, Kansas City. Two sisters are left, MRS. A. E. WEED of this place and MRS. MARGARET E. MILLER of Northfield, Minn.

2nd wife of
Wm F. Weed
she is no relation

Mr. Hogg has been a resident of this vicinity his entire life and has always been characterized as a man of high standing, sterling qualities, strong personal convictions, and possessing a high sense of honor and justice commanded the universal respect of all neighbors and acquaintances. He enlisted in the War of the Rebellion in Company D 154 N. Y. Volunteers, and served with distinction in the Union army until the battle of Gettysburg, where he was taken prisoner. He was placed in the RICHMOND PRISON, was afterwards transferred to BELLE ISLE, then to MILLEN and having spent seventeen months in the ANDERSONVILLE PRISON, was finally paroled and received an honorable discharge at the close of the war.

His brothers ADAM HOGG, GEORGE HOGG & BENJAMIN HOGG also served in the Civil War, BENJAMIN LOSING AN ARM AT GETTYSBURG. Mount Prospect.