

(Figure 32) Col. Patrick Henry Jones. Loved and respected by his regiment, he was promoted to Brigadier General on December 6, 1864. (Courtesy of Michael J. Winey.)

This inscribed Colt 1862 Police percussion revolver belonged to Col. Patrick Henry Jones. It has a six inch barrel of .36 caliber. The backstrap is lightly inscribed "P. H. Jones 154th N. Y. V." Serial number 6998

The gun came out of the famous collection of the late Robert Abels of Hopewell Junction, New York. According to the Colt records of R. L. Wilson this police revolver was manuf. in 1862.