

McClellan, and that part of the Campaign in Northern Virginia under Major General Pope, in which my Division, after the Evacuation of the Peninsula, participated. Was present for duty and participated in all the actions, and the several duties in which my Regiment was engaged until the 8th day of October 1862, & viz. The Siege of York town. Battle of Williamsburg. Fair Oaks, Richmond (June 25), Glendale, Malvern Hill, Bull Run, Chantilly, and the several skirmishes incident to such service, intervening

On the 8th day of October 1862, I was promoted to the Colonelcy of my present Regiment, attached to the Eleventh Army Corps and reported for duty with it was present at the general engagements Chancellorsville and Chattanooga. I was not present at the Battle of Gettysburg being under Medical Treatment for wounds received at Chancellorsville, and still on Parole This is the only occasion upon which I have been absent from the field during