

Elliotville Department

BOOKS AT COST.

There are only a few books left of the large Holiday trade and we have every book in our store, (except the new books,) at cost rather than at the old goods, next year.

former price	10,	now	.08
"	20,	"	.16
"	25,	"	.18
"	30,	"	.22
"	50,	"	.38

N. Alexander.

Case was in Buffalo, Wednesday.
Ward was in Great Valley, Tuesday.
Tortelot of Buffalo, is in town.
Ward found business in Tuesday.
Nichols visited in Saturday.
Clark was in Buffalo, the last of the week.
C. L. Ticknor was in Saturday on business.
Mullally was home over from his school at Plata.
Flora and May Tillingham are visiting in town.
Harrington of West Sala-

Local News of Interest.

Capital Herald
March 29, 1900

Death of Harry Matteson.

Charles Harry Matteson died of consumption at Foxburg, Pa., on March 7th, and was buried in the Episcopal cemetery on March 9th, 1900.

Harry Matteson, as he was best known in this vicinity, was born at Elliotville, N. Y., Sept. 3rd, 1840, the son of Abram and Mary Matteson, and lived there until his removal to Foxburg, in 1875, at which place he has since made his home. He leaves a widow and one son, James Burton Matteson at Foxburg, and a sister, Mrs. Bethuel Moore at Branwell, W. Va. He was a veteran of the civil war, enlisting as hospital steward in Co. 1, 154th N. Y. Vol. Infantry, in 1862, and served until the close of the war, Jan. 1865.

He was a member of Elliotville Lodge, F. & A. M., the Royal Arcanum, G. A. R. Post, 249 of Foxburg, and the Union Veteran Legion Camp, at Butler, Pa.

That he was highly esteemed in the place where he spent the latter years of his life, the following tribute paid him by a citizen of Foxburg, whom I quote, will show: "He was a good son, a loving brother, and a devoted husband and father. This entire community will miss one of its most esteemed and progressive citizens. Generous to a fault, his heart and purse were always open to the calls of charity, and no worthy person ever applied to him for help in vain." To this testimonial the friends of his youth can add. He is mourned by all who knew him. What more could be said of any man, Elliotville, N. Y., Mar. 20, 1900.

LEON.

Mrs. Isidora Smith died Thursday

Bridget Heffernan returned from Rochester Sunday.

John McPherson has been spending a few days with friends in Buffalo.

John Lynd of Rochester visited friends here recently.

P. M. Brown and daughter Mand were in Buffalo Saturday.

Rev. C. W. Remington called on Mr. and Mrs. J. Horning at Ashford Junction.

Mr. Simms is slowly improving in health.

ELKDALE.

Allen Sikes of Maples was on our street last week.

W. F. Niles is having a serious time with rheumatism.

Charles Minnick has purchased the house and lot of Mrs. Ann Holdridge, known as the U. B. Parsonage.

Albert Niles is working for C. E. Canfield on Whig Street.

F. G. Daniels spent Sunday at John Delp's in Mansfield.

Miss Bessie Cook has returned from her visit at Batavia.

Perry Messenger of Kennedy had business here last week.

Mrs. Michael Smith of Onoville visited her sister, Mrs. W. F. Niles last week.

H. L. Bullock of East Avon, had business here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Newel of Napoli visited their daughter Mrs. R. F. Winship, one day last week.

Miss Mae MacMillen who has been staying with her grandmother Mrs. A. MacMillen a few weeks, has returned to her home in Alton, Pa.

Master Lee MacMillen has returned from Alton, Pa., where he went some time ago to have a tumor removed from his hip.