

Oct. 10th, 1900, Mr. Learn was united in marriage to Miss Agnes O'Brian, who survives him with four children: Mary, Nellie, Nelson Jr., and Martin. There survive also eleven grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; a brother, James of Rushford; two sisters, Mrs. Will Van Slyke (Ida) of Belfast and Mrs. Theron Guild (Mary) of Cuba.

Mr. Learn was a prosperous farmer. Three years ago, he retired and moved to Cuba, residing on the North Cuba road. He was a member of the Methodist church.

The funeral took place at the late residence, Rev. John Shank of Friendship officiating. There were beautiful floral offerings and a large attendance.

"We've missed him the hour he left us, with his smile and loving way. We'll miss him more as years roll on, as we miss him more today."

LESTER P. LINDERMAN, another of our old and respected residents, passed to eternal rest last Saturday morning at five o'clock... For a number of years, Mr. Linderman had been more or less troubled with a malady, but not until three weeks ago was he obliged to take to his bed, since when he constantly grew weaker, until relieved of his sufferings at the hour named above. (Month and day not determined, year was 1906.)

He was genial and cheerful even while in distress, and an honest, upright, industrious man, kind and loving husband and father, always an agreeable neighbor and an enterprising and public-spirited citizen.

Lester P. Linderman was the son of Nicholas and Rebecca Linderman and was born in the town of Ischua, March 13, 1842. He first married Frances Smith, by whom he had one daughter, Gertrude. In 1876, he was married to Clara H. Whitlock, who survives him.

He lived on the farm where he was born until 1881, when he moved to the Five Mile, where he resided six years. He then purchased the Schultz farm on the Nine Mile Road, where he lived until a year ago when he retired to Allegany village.

He leaves his wife, one daughter, Mrs. Chas. Canada, one adopted daughter, Mabel Linderman, all of Allegany; four brothers, John and Orson of the Five Mile, Alonzo of Ischua, Ezekiel of Hinsdale; and two sisters, Mrs. A. D. Sill of Franklinville and Mrs. Eugene Pierce of Fitch.

The funeral services were held at his late residence on Cemetery Street last Tuesday at one o'clock, in charge of the local Masonic Fraternity, of which he was a member the past two years. Rev. Charles E. Hoyt officiating. Burial in Allegany cemetery.

NICHOLAS LINDERMAN, an old resident of the town of Ischua, aged eighty-three years, died Thursday last (February 3rd, 1887). Mr. Linderman had lived on the same farm for fifty-five years. (Born November 22nd, 1803, buried Fitch cemetery.)

(Nicholas Linderman married Rebecca Whitlock (b.1807-d.1849), the daughter of John and Mary Morris Whitlock, and they had nine children:

1. John C. - b.1831-d.1914, married Ellen Farwell, the daughter of Thaddeus and Elizabeth Conrad Farwell. Buried Five Mile cemetery, Allegany, N.Y.

2. Ezekiel - b.1833-d.1923, married three times: 1. Addie Frantz; 2. Gertrude S. Kent, by whom he had two children: Ella G. and Phoebe Rose; and 3. Mina Thrall.

3. Orson C. - b.1836-d.1909?, married Hannah Farwell, the daughter of Thaddeus and Elizabeth Conrad Farwell and they had seven children: 1. Charles O.; 2. Alice E.; 3. Frank G., who died as a baby; 4. Catherine, who also died as a baby; 5. Nicholas B. (b.1880-d. 1960, who married Emma Pifer and had five children, all born in Ischua: Ruth Arlene (Mrs. Wayne Feeman), Orson, Nicholas, Van Dean and Ronald; 6. Eola and 7. Ellen.

4. Alonzo B. - b.1838-d.1922, married Lucinda Searl, the daughter of Joseph (or Jacob?) and Betsy Southwick Searl, and had five children: 1. Ora A.; 2. Lewelyn; 3. Edgar E, who married, first, Maude G. Isaman and had six sons: Alonzo, Howard, Carl and Kenneth, who were twins, Norman and Vernon; married second, Blanche J. Rice, and third, Florence Drew Cooney; 4. Frank and 5. Merton. Carl Linderman married Eloise Kessler and they had a dairy farm in Ischua for many years, formerly owned by his father, Edgar E.

5. Mary B. - b.1840-d.1902, married Andrew Jackson Sill and had two children: Will N. Sill and Harriet Sill, who married Lewis Ely.

6. Lester P. - b.1842-d.1906, see obituary

7. Emma - b.1844-d.1923, married Eugene Pierce

8. Addie (or Adeline) - b.1844-d.1943, married Alonzo D. Sill

9. Edgar C. - b.1847-d.1850

LYDIA PARRINDER LOCKWOOD - who died at her home near Abbots, was born in England eighty-two years ago last May and died December 18th, 1916, after a few moments illness.

...She came to this country when fourteen years of age, crossing the ocean in an open boat and taking six weeks to make the voyage. She came to Allegany County from New York City on a buckboard, that taking several weeks more. One sister came with her. She left twelve brothers and sisters in England, there being fourteen in the family. These, she never saw again.

The deceased was married April 14th, 1862, to Jacob Lockwood and would have been married fifty-five years had she lived until April. To them were born three children: Mrs. Edgar (Alice) Bugbee, Bert and Stanley. Stanley died eight years ago. (See under Abbots.) Her husband, age eighty-five years, the daughter and son, seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren mourn her loss.

The Rev. Overton of Cuba M. E. church conducted the funeral services last Saturday morning, she having been a member of that church for many years. Interment at Franklinville, N.Y.

(Jacob Lockwood was born May 12th, 1831 and died August 20th, 1918.)

THE CHILD OF OLA LOCKWOOD - who resides near Ischua, died last week and the funeral was set for Sunday. When the hour arrived for the service at Abbots, it was found that the mourners and their beloved dead had not arrived.

The funeral party assembled at the church and waited for the body to

60.C