

the blue. He enlisted at Sandusky, N. Y., in Co. F, 19th N. Y. V. I., Sept. 5, 1864, 2d Brig., 3d Div., 19th A. C., as a private. He participated in the fight at Cedar Creek and the memorable campaign in the Shenandoah Valley. His career was remarkable, never wounded or sick in the hospital, captured or furloughed, serving straight thro' until the close, receiving his honorable discharge Aug. 28, 1865 at Washington. He returned to his wife and family, for he had been married in 1858, to Sarah Davis, daughter of Josiah and Unice Davis. Eight children crowned their marriage ties, Celia, Emma, Adilaide, Anette, May, Mattie and Frank G. Com. Hudson is a faithful member of the G. A. R. Post of Delevan. He is a kind, true man and one of the splendid examples of a life well lived. He may be addressed at Elton P. O., N. Y., where he is engaged in blacksmithing.

FRANK A. HOWELL.

Son of Alfred and Patience (Bowen) Howell, was born May 27, 1832, in Yorkshire, N. Y., and was studying law in Vermont when the war of the Rebellion began; he enlisted as a private of Co. I, 4th Ver. V. I., Mar. 14, 1862 and in due time, owing to his meritorious conduct on the field, was promoted to 1st Lieut. He was injured on the foot while building breastworks and was confined in hospital for a short time; again at Port Hudson he was in the hospital with typhoid fever and came home on a furlough after his sickness. At one time he was detailed as orderly and was carrying a message through the lines when he was attacked in an open lot by the rebels; he was lucky and escaped without great injury. He was in battles too numerous to mention here; among them were Gettysburg, Antietam, 2d Bull Run, Fredericksburg and Port Hudson. Mar. 28, 1864 he was given his discharge at Brandy's Station. In Jan., 1866, he was enlisted in Co. B, 50th U. S. Colored Troops as an officer and was discharged about March, 1866. May 7, 1867 he was happily united in marriage to Marcella E. Jakman, daughter of Alonzo D. and Marite (Smith) Jakman. Com. Howell served as School Com. for 3 years and was a member of the Royal Templars and of the Baptist church of Delevan. It is with sadness we record his death, Sept. 17, 1888, from abscess on the lungs, at Yorkshire, N. Y. His wife is an estimable lady and lives on a farm near Yorkshire Corners, N. Y. Howell post of Delevan was named in his honor.

CHAUNCEY KING.

Son of Alva and Hannah Kearney King, was born Nov. 17, 1838, in Concord, N. Y., and was engaged in farming when our flag was trailed in the dust of the South. He was a true citizen and enlisted Sept. 18, 1861 in Co. A, 100th N. Y. V. I., as a private. He had inflammation of the lungs during the service and was never well after it. He was engaged in battles of Antietam, Chancellorsville and Gettysburg. He was happily united in marriage to Adell Cofran, daughter of Moses and Lydia Thornton Cofran, Aug. 2, 1868, in Delevan, N. Y. Mrs. King was born Oct. 19, 1849, in Yorkshire, N. Y. Three children were given to this marriage, Adelbert, Dana A. and Roy C. His brother, Philmeman King, of Springville, N. Y., was in the service. It is with sadness we mention the death of our friend and comrade, Feb. 13, 1896, at Delevan, N. Y., death resulting from catarrah and heart disease contracted while in the service. He was a kind, true husband, ever faithful to the last. His widow lives on the quiet farm near Delevan, N. Y.

CIVILIAN MANWARING.

Son of Elisha B. and Rhoda Bixley Manwaring, was born in Freedom, N. Y., Feb. 11, 1831. He was married in 1854, to Orinda J. Chessman, daughter of Abner and Nancy Ball Chessman. She was born Feb. 4, 1836, in Freedom, N. Y. Five children were the happiness of this union, Herbert S., Ernest D., Ina B., Nettie E. and Lillian I. Com. Manwaring was a farmer when the President issued his call for 300,000 volunteers. He was enrolled as a private in Aug., 1862, at Jamestown, N. Y., in Co. D, 154th N. Y. V. I., 1st Brig., 2d Div., 11h A. C., and in time was promoted to corporal. He was stricken with paralysis of the hip-joint and suffered in the field hospital at Thoroughfare Gap, Gen. Hospital, Washington; thence was sent to Christian St. Hosp., Philadelphia; confined in all about two months, and was given his discharge, by reason of disability, in Jan, 1863, in Philadelphia. The wife's brother, Morris Chessman, was in the service. Com. Manwaring has faithfully served the public as Assessor for nine years; Justice of the Peace for three years; member of the board of Excise for three years. He is a member of the Crosby post of Franklinville, N. Y., and the A. O. U. W., Past Master Workman, and Q. M. of the G. A. R. Com. Manwaring is spending the declining days of his life on a large farm near Elton P. O., N. Y., honored and respected by all.

CAPT. CHARLES B. POTTER.

John and Mary A. McIntyre Potter were living in Otto, N. Y. when a son Charles B., was born into their home, Dec. 30, 1837. He grew to manhood and was employed as a carpenter when the War of the Rebellion began. He was enrolled as a sergennt May 9, 1861, at Ellicottville, N. Y., in Co. I, 37th N. Y. V. I., 3d Brig., Kearny's Div., 3d A. C. Before the close of his memorable service he was promoted to
