

Fredonia Advertiser, November 14, 1862

We have also to add to our local record of Army mortality, the name of DAVID MILLER, of Co. K, 9th N.Y. Cavalry, (son of William Miller, of Cornova, in this town, Englishman,) aged 17 years, who died of wounds received in a recent skirmish at Haymarket; and that of AUSTIN MUNGER, (son of Mr. Norman Munger, of this village,) member of a Cattaraugus regiment, who died in hospital at Alexandria on Wednesday last.
