

that to secure these
 rights are instituted.
 signed instrument sets
 supreme proposition of
 are big corollaries of that governments are
 are rights.
 seems to be growing al-
 in these latter days
 should confer rights
 when the demand is so
 can no longer safely
 If this be true Colum-
 than old King John.
 of history, ancient or not recorded an in-
 dominant majority of issues ever asked for
 rights or privileges.
 could not contain the es in the world's history, aggressive intended an extension of privileges and received the story of the evolution but an illustrated series where the few have many received. To consider our own country we we had a Declaration of
 it had been necessary
 of the colonists de-
 the majority, and essentially people, in color it better to endure
 than to run the risk they knew not of. At the Revolutionary twice as many Am-
 against the cause of
 there were in the Am-
 The loyalists in this claimed that they were
 In New York State
 freeholders voted. Did unanimously petition for burg. No conversions as yet have been reported.

Master Eddie Moss while skating on the sidewalk last Thursday, fell and broke his left arm. He broke the same arm a few weeks ago while at play and was rolling over a barrel at the time.

Luke H. Fay is Brocton's most enthusiastic gunner. He attended a three days' shoot at Buffalo last week and carried off prizes enough to pay all of his expenses.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Harmon returned home on Saturday from a several weeks visit with relative in Titusville.

L. M. Ogden returned home on Saturday night from Spartensburg, Pa., where he was summoned some time since by the serious illness of his brother, Reuben R. Ogden, who died on Friday night of heart trouble of several years standing. The remains will be brought here to-night for interment. Mr. Ogden was for many years a resident of this place and was held in the highest esteem by every body who knew him. L. M. Ogden is now the sole survivor of seven brothers none of whom lived to be very old men.

There was a serious wreck here on the Lake Shore on Saturday afternoon.
 An east bound freight train was about to take the siding to permit the passing of a passenger train when the work train coming from the same direction crashed into it, striking the caboose and literally converting it into kindling wood. Three freight cars were also badly wrecked and the oncoming locomotive will have to go to the shops for extensive repairs. Unfortunately no one was hurt, the caboose happened to be empty and the

W
 Fredown Connor
 Jan. 27, 1897

73 Ma

Porce

FC 1/27/97