

Local and Miscellaneous.

ELLICOTTVILLE, FRIDAY, MARCH 6, 1863.

GOOD.—C. D. MURRAY is elected Supervisor of Hinesdale by 1 majority. There was tie, as reported last week.

600,000 MORE.—It is stated that the President will immediately call out 600,000 under the Conscription act.

A. & G. W. RAILROAD.—The cars commenced running from Meadville to Akron, Ohio, Monday last, 2d inst., on this Road.

ERIE RAILWAY.—The Erie Railway is giving 7 per cent. upon every dollar of its stock bonds. The road was never in so good condition, nor so well managed as at present.

EPISCOPAL SERVICES AT GREAT VALLEY & SALAMANCA.—The Rev. Mr. KIDDER will give Divine Services (D. V.) at the above named places as follows:

March 15th, at Great Valley at 11 A. M.
do do at Salamanca at 2½ P. M.

DIED.—The Jamestown Democrat announces in fitting terms of sorrow at his loss, the death of WM. P. MARTIN, son of Judge R. MARTIN. He was a member of Co. B, 72d Regiment. He died at his father's residence in Jamestown on the 17th ult.

THE CASE OF MYERS.—We understand that O. H. Myers, charged with stabbing a man at Salamanca, waived an examination on Monday last, and was committed for trial. It is understood that his counsel will apply to the Supreme Court to have him admitted to bail.

THE MILLERITES are again trying to cause an excitement. They now set the 17th of August as the day on which all sublimity shall be closed up. If they would set a lay for the end of the war, and strive to bring about, they would be better employed.

COL. BINGHAM.—We are gratified to learn that Col. Bingham has been honorably discharged from arrest, and has now joined his Regiment, although not in a fit condition to do so, but because he considered it his duty—charges against him were founded on a

DEATH OF EDWARD SHULTZ.—This young man, who belonged to the 154th Reg't, was formerly a resident of this place; where his parents now reside. His age was 22 years.—The following letter from the Hospital where he died, will be read by many of his young friends with much interest:

ODD-FELLOWS HALL HOSPITAL,
Washington, D. C., Feb. 19, '63

DEAR SIR:—I suppose long before this you are aware that your son, EDWARD SHULTZ, is no more. His brother had the satisfaction of seeing him alive, having arrived about an hour previous to his death. I thought you might be gratified to hear more of the circumstances of his sickness and death than your son could give you. He was brought here six days before he died, and it soon became evident that his case was a severe one; his fever ran very high; his pulse beat at times 130 in a minute. He was most of the time delirious and seemed to suffer much, though he did not probably realize it. I perceived at once that he had been accustomed to think on religious subjects, and I took the first opportunity to converse with him. I began by remarking to him that he seemed to be a friend to Jesus. "Yes," said he, "I have trusted in Him for a few years past, and I find it a good thing now—first-rate, first-rate;" repeating it with emphasis. It was painfully interesting to hear him pray and sing and shout, when his mind was all in confusion. I sometimes think that at such times persons show with greater certainty the current of their thoughts. We all felt interested in him, and did all we could to soothe his pathway to the grave; but we trust he had a friend that was better to him than father or mother, brother or sister. His last night was one of great suffering, and the two lines he repeated during a lull of his pain, were very impressive. They were these:

"Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly."

These lines embody a prayer which I believe has been answered, and he is now in the paradise of God. It was but little we could do for him in his last hours but to keep him in bed and give him water as often as he required it. Soon after his brother arrived it was evident to us all that he was dying. He sailed rapidly, and at just 11 o'clock, when the church bells were tolling to call together the worshippers of God, his spirit took its flight to the abode of the blessed. Thus passed away a Christian

Farmer's Exchange

W. A. BOSWORTH,

NEW GOOD

FOR THE

Winter of 1862

Farmer's Exchange

ELLICOTTVILLE, N. Y.

Are just receiving an immense
of Goods for the Winter Trade consisting, in part, of

STAPLE AND FANCY

DRY GOODS

Hardware

Crockery, Glass-ware

Ready-made Clothing

Hats, Caps, Boots

Shoes, School

Miscellaneous

BOOKS STATIONERY

is in fitting terms of sorrow at his loss. The death of Wm. P. MARVIN, son of Judge R. MARVIN. He was a member of Co. B, 72d Regt. He died at his father's residence near town on the 17th ult.

THE CASE OF MYERS.—We understand that H. Myers, charged with stabbing a man named Amman, waded an examination on Monday, and was committed for trial. It is understood that his counsel will apply to the Supreme Court to have him admitted to bail.

THE MILLWRIGHTS are again trying to create an excitement. They now set the 17th of August as the day on which all subsidiary laws are to be closed up. If they would set a target for the end of the war, and strive to bring it out, they would be better employed.

COL. BINGHAM.—We are gratified to learn that Col. Bingham has been honorably discharged from arrest, and has now joined his regiment, although not in a fit condition to do so, but because he considered it his duty. The charges against him were founded on a mistake.

While in Buffalo, a few days ago, we had occasion to visit BRYANT & STRATTON's Law Office, where we were agreeably surprised at meeting Prof. C. B. KNOWLTON, formerly of this village, and recently of the Law Academy. He is now Professor of Penmanship at that institution. Prof. K. is bound to succeed, for he knows there is virtue in penmanship. Send on your favors, "Professor!"

OUR LISTS OF JURORS.—We are indebted to A. E. LEXIS, County Clerk, for the following list of Petit Jurors, drawn to serve at a County Court and Court of Sessions, to be held in this village on the first Monday of April, 1863.

John Conant, Perole,	H. Hammond, Machias,
Knowlton, Perryburg,	Henry Jones, Allegany,
Wm. Farley, Machias,	Henry Rush, Ithaca,
Wm. Harris, Napoli,	J. F. Parker, Ellicottville,
Wm. Whipple, Dayton,	Daniel Dibble, Yorkville,
F. Wood, Franklinville,	F. Stubbins, Yorkville,
Roberts, Jr., Dayton,	Ira Whitecomb, Perryburg,
Thomas, Great Valley,	Wm. Booth, Napoli,
Wm. Wells, Ashford,	Isaac Wright, Allegany,
Wm. Yorkville,	Isaac Wright, Ellicottville,
Wm. Payne, New Albion,	Daniel Warner, Allegany,
Wm. M. Brown, Cucklesburg,	Stephen Austin, Machias,
T. Amersett, Machias,	Simon Francis, Leon,
Wm. Webb, Dayton,	Allen B. Rice, Portville,
Henry Wright, Portville,	Ambrose Lipson, Ashford,
Amos Wier, Freedom,	Joel Woodruff, East Otto,
T. Fisher, Allegany,	H. Chittenden, Yorkville,
Wm. H. Smith, Great Valley,	Wm. Beasey, Machias,

WHO IS HE, AND WHERE FROM?—The Buffalo Commercial Advertiser of Friday last says:

"A STRAY HUSBAND.—A married couple arrived in this city yesterday from a lovely village in Cattaraugus county. We did not understand the nature of the business which brought them here, but it is related to us that, after providing a temporary place of abode for the wife, the husband, who had been out in the ing it with emphasis. It was painfully interesting to hear him pray and sing and shout, when his mind was all in confusion. I sometimes think that at such times persons show with greater certainty the current of their thoughts. We all felt interested in him, and did all we could to soothe his pathway to the grave; but we trust he had a friend that was better to him than father or mother, brother or sister. His last night was one of great suffering, and the two lines he repeated during a lull of his pain, were very impressive. They were these:

"Jesus, lover of my soul,
Let me to thy bosom fly."

These lines embody a prayer which I believe has been answered, and he is now in the paradise of God. It was but little we could do for him in his last hours but to keep him in bed and give him water as often as he required it. Soon after his brother arrived it was evident to us all that he was dying. He failed rapidly, and at just 11 o'clock, when the church bells were tolling to call together the worshippers of God, his spirit took its flight to the abode of the blessed. Thus passed away a Christian soldier, leaving dear ones to mourn his loss; but you do not mourn as those that have no hope; you have the cheering assurance that he was prepared to die, and that your loss is his eternal gain. Such was the evidence he gave us of his piety, that I have heard the remark made like this, "I wish I was as sure of going to Heaven as that young man." I assisted to lay him out, and I have seldom seen so pleasant a corpse.

Let me recommend to you, his bereaved parents, the consolations of that religion which he professed, and which seemed to stand by him in the dying hour; and let me exhort all his relatives to secure that preparation for death which will enable them to meet him in Heaven.

Yours, in christian sympathy,
ANDREW KENNISEN.

WENDELL PHILLIPS says that "the niggers must help somebody." PRENTICE replies: A nigger woman would be a help meet for him.

MARRIED.

MEACHAM—CALKINS.—In this village, at the residence of the bride's father, on the 14th ult., by E. Dickinson, Esq., Mr. GEORGE H. MEACHAM, of Mansfield, to Miss DELANA JANE CALKINS, of Ellicottville.

ROHRICH—BROWN.—At the Mansion House, in this village, on the 18th ult., by the same, Mr. JOHN ROHRICH, to Miss ANNA MARY BROWN, all of Ellicottville.

The Horrors of War can be greatly mitigated by that sovereign remedy, HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, as it will cure any wound, however desperate, if it be well rubbed around the wounded parts, and they be kept thoroughly covered with it. A Pot of ointment should be kept in every man's knapsack. Only 25 cents per Pot.

Office of the ELICOTTVILLE & G. V. P. R. ROAD CO.
March 4, 1863.

NOTICE is hereby given that the annual Meeting of the Ellicottville and Great Valley

STAPLE-AND FAN DRY GOOD Hardware

Crockery, Glass-Ware
Ready-made Cloth
Hats, Caps, Boots
Shoes, School and
Miscellaneous
BOOKS, STATION
GROCERIES
Paint Oils, Wall
Window Paper,

TO THE PUBLIC!

THE SECRET of our great success in selling a large amount of Goods at a very small profit. We constantly on hand one of the largest and most complete stocks of Goods brought into Cattaraugus which we are now selling at small advance, in order to make for our Spring stock. For particulars please call.

W. A. BOSWORTH
Ellicottville, Feb. 11, 1863.

PICTURE GALLERY

D. H. BROOKS, Photographer

WOULD ANNOUNCE to the citizens of ELICOTTVILLE and vicinity, taken the Rooms recently fitted up by son, one door west of the Huntley Hotel is prepared to do most kinds of work in the ART OF PHOTOGRAPHY, viz:

AMBIOTYPES, FERTOTYP
Cartes de Visites, Photographs at prices to defy competition. Having years experience, and devoted much study of this beautiful art, he flatters he can suit the most fastidious.