

Here is a good chance for a bargain. For full particulars enquire at this office.

FROM THE 64TH.—Just as we were going to press, we received from Col. BINGHAM a complete list of the killed and wounded in the 64th regiment, but the late hour of its receipt prevents our publishing it. The following is a summary of the casualties:

Killed outright..... 2
 Mortally wounded..... 4
 Wounded..... 51

Total..... 57

PERSONAL.—Capt. LUKE G. HARMON, Co. H, 37th regiment, returned home from Washington on Monday, having received an honorable discharge from the service on account of poor health.

Lieut. WALTER C. HULL, of the 37th regiment, also returned home on Monday last, on a furlough, to visit his relations in this village. We notice that private Wm. HOLBURN, Co. I, is also here on a visit.

A. PETTIT, who went as Sutler to the 154th regiment, has returned home, satisfied that "dying for one's country" ain't so "sweet" as "what it used to was."

GIDEON SEARL, JR.—We learn with pleasure that GIDEON SEARL, JR., son of GIDEON SEARL, of Franklinville, has received a commission as 1st Lieutenant in the 85th Regiment N. Y. V., for meritorious conduct in the late battles.

We are glad of this recognition of merit. Young SEARL is an energetic young man and has well earned his present position. If he works in the army as well as his father works in politics, we would bet on his head—that he would take Richmond alone in less than a month—for the old gentleman is some on political tactics and strategy, as army officers would say.

We shall expect soon to hear of young SEARL's further promotion, for he has the gift of fighting his way up to the "top shelf"—"a cap of his old block."

Success to the young Cattaraugus volunteer. We wish we had a few more like him.

NOTICE.—We are indebted to the Hon. J. M. Jones, County Clerk for the following list of Grand and Petit Jurors, drawn by the County Court and Court of Oyer and Terminer, to be held in this village on the 1st of Monday, 17th January, 1865:

Wm. Jones, Clerk
 J. M. Jones, County Clerk

also well fenced and in good condition. This farm is a desirable one for a good farmer, and will be sold at a reasonable price. For further particulars as to terms, &c., enquire of the subscriber at his residence two Miles north of Frank-linville.

D. H. BROOKS, Photographic Artist.

WOULD ANNOUNCE to the citizens of ELLICOTTVILLE and vicinity, that he has taken the Rooms recently fitted up by T. H. Johnson, one door west of the Huntley House, where he is prepared to do most kinds of work known in the ART OF PHOTOGRAPHY, viz:

AMBRÔTYPES, FEROTYPES,

Cartes de Visites, Photographs, &c., at prices to defy competition. Having had several years experience, and devoted much time in the study of this beautiful art, he flatters himself that he can suit the most fastidious.

Thankful for past favors, he solicits a continuance of the same.

New Meat Market. PRICES REDUCED!

(FORMERLY GEORGE RANDALL'S)

THE SUBSCRIBER having bought out Geo. Randall's Meat Market, under the Exchange Hotel, he is now prepared to

SELL MEAT CHEAPER

than ever before offered in this village. Cash paid for fat cattle, sheep, hogs, &c.

LARD AND TALLOW

kept constantly on hand, and sold at the lowest market price. I shall also keep, in their season,

POULTRY, SAUSAGES, FISH, &c.

The public are invited to give me a liberal share of patronage, which I shall try to deserve. "The proof of the pudding is in the eating thereof."
