PRESIDENTS, SOLDIERS, STATESMEN.

married in Youngsville, Pa., Sept. 13, 1854, Emma E. Stilson, born in Sugar Grove, Dec. 22, 1838; her father, Anson Stilson, is dead, as is also her mother, Miretta H. (Gray) Stilson. The following children have been born to this union: Charles W., who is an adopted child, Edmund W., Viola L., Sadie M., Etta A., Nellie P.; he was living in Sugar Grove at the time of his enlistment at Waterford, Erie County, Sept. 3, 1864, at the age of 39 as a private in Co. G, 211th Pa. V. I., 3d Brig. 1st Div., 9th A. C. In Oct. 1864, at Appomattox, Va., he was in pioneer Corps about two months. April 2, 1865, at final assault on Petersburg, he received a slight gunshot wound in left knee; in Dec. 1864, he was in hospital at City Point, Va., about four weeks with fever, ague and diarrhea; he took part in the following battles—Siege of Petersburg, charge of Ft. Steadman and final assault on Petersburg; he received his honorable discharge at Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1865; his wife had one brother, Franklin A., who served in Co. D, 111th Pa. V. I., and was wounded at battle of Atlanta, Ga. Comrade Pilling draws a pension, is engaged in farming, and his postoffice address is Sugar Grove, Pa.

MERRICK PRICE,

Son of Nathaniel G. and Ann (Westfall) Price, was born Feb. 18, 1833, in Steamburg, Cattaraugus Co., N. Y.; he enlisted from that county Aug. 27, 1862, in Co. K, 154th Regt. N. Y. V. I., and served until Dec. 7, 1862, when, at Fairfax, Va., on account of physical disability, he was honorably discharged; he was mostly employed in scouting, skirmishing, and in general guard and garrison duty. Two half brothers of Mr. Price were in Indiana Regts. In Sept. 1862, before going to the front, Mr. Price was granted a week's furlough; he returned to Cattaraugus County, where, Sept. 7, 1862, at Leon, he married C. A. Cunningham, a native of Conewango, N. Y., born July 24, 1845. Six children have been born to this union: Emma E., Alson H., Minnie J., Marion J., Alta L., and Florence A. Mrs. Price's parents were Joseph and Cynthia (Russell) Cunningham; both of whom have long since passed away. The former was drafted into the British army in the war of 1812, and was three times wounded; but lived to the age of 75, and carried with him to the grave a bullet received in battle. Comrade Price was Constable of Conewango, N. Y. In 1891 he moved to Bear Lake, Warren County, Pa., where he is now engaged in farming, and draws a pension.
