DIED IN HOSPITAL.—Edward Shults, son of William Shults, of this village, died in one of the Washington Hospitals, on the 16th inst. He was a member of Company-K, 154th regiment.

REVENUE DECISIONS.—The Lockport Union says the Collector of Internal Revenue has notified the wood-drawers thereabouts that they must take out a peddler's license or stop peddling wood on the streets.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that a quit-claim deed, releasing a mortgage on real estate, and an assignment of a mortgage, are exempt from stamp duty.

ARTHUR'S MAGAZINE FOR MARCH.—This favorite Monthly Magazine has been received, and, as usual, is filled with choice and interesting literature, etc. Its engravings, fashionplates, designs for needle-work, etc., are superb.
 Arthur's Home Magazine is one of the cheapest, as well as one of the most entertaining, of our monthlies. Terms, $2 a year, in advance.
 Address T. S. ARTHUR & Co., 323 Walnut St., Philadelphia, Pa.

HOME.—Capt. LEONARD B. SEXTON, of the 154th Regiment, arrived in this village on Monday last, having obtained a furlough for a few days. Like most of our returned soldiers, the Captain's political opinions have undergone a great change, having become convinced that the policy of 'nigger-ism' and radicalism, are 'making things no better very fast,' and henceforth may be called a conservative, square-toed Democrat.

SERVED HIM RIGHT!—The Olean Advertiser says that two soldiers wives, residents of Olean, have latterly been the subject of slander at the hands of a man who ought to know better. The ladies bore it as long as forbearance would warrant, and then resolved to punish their shameless traducer. They sent for 'Mr. Man,'—he came—acknowledged his slander—received a glorious cowhiding—begged like a dog for release—promised never to do so any more—and left—a wiser and better man it is hoped.—The Advertiser suppresses the names of the parties for obvious reasons.

NOTARY PUBLIC.—We notice that the Governor has appointed H. A. THORNTON, Esq., of Yorkville Centre, Notary Public. The Governor could not have made a better selection, and we rejoice to see this favor bestowed upon one so worthy and deserving as Mr.
 Thornton. See his Carbon the inside of to-complete system in this country.

TELEGRAPHING.—The increasing demand for Telegraph Operators has induced us to set up in our College Rooms Telegraph Instruments, enabling us to give thorough and practical instruction in this department.
BOOK-KEEPING in all its departments. Commercial Law Commercial Arithmetic and Penmanship, are taught in the most thorough and practical manner.
 The Spencerian System of Penmanship is taught by competent and experienced teachers.
 Scholarship, payable in advance.

 Rooms, or send for Catalogue and Circular enclosing two stamps. Address BRYANT & STRATTON,

 Balsam is prepared with all the requisite care and skill, from a combination of the best reme from the vegetable kingdom alike. Its medicinal qualities are based on its power to assist the healthy and vigorous circulation of the blood, through the lungs. It is not a violent remedy, but emollient—warming, soothing and effective; can be taken by the oldest person or youngest child.

Mad'e ZADOC PORTER'S

 others.

 Curative Balsam is sold at a price which brings it in the reach of every one to keep it convenient for use. The timely use of a single bottle will prove to be worth 100 times its use.

NOTICE—Save Your Money!—Do not be persuaded to purchase articles at 4c. to 5c., which do not contain the virtues of a 13 cent Bottle of Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, the cost and manufacturing which is as great as that of almost any other medicine; and the very low price at which it is sold, makes the profit to the seller apparently small, and unprincipled dealers will sometimes recommend other medicines on which their profits are larger, unless the customers insist upon having Madame Porter's, and none other. Ask for Madame Porter's Curative Balsam, price 13 cts., and in large bottles at 25 cents, and take no other. If you cannot get it at one store you can at another.

Sold by all Druggists and Store-keepers at 13 cents, and in larger bottles at 25 cents.
