

spent nearly the funeral services enture's church, lock.—Allegany l in Limestone, ided to build a l creamery. The d on the Wag- ry will be 28x66 onstruction will ce and it is ex- will be in opera-don, wife of the lon, died at her last Wednesday. three daughters, Mrs. Juliette Mel- l Mrs. Norton of sons, James Gilbert Brown of Brown of Olean. years old.

ance of a man's y a window sash e of the neighbors Allegany, Wednes- week. Upon in- und that he was s an old man and lived alone, his ral years ago and liate relatives. It ring the night he ad drawn his bed o secure fresh air, ting his head on indow slipped from aper. en all waste mat- mething or other, lize what a great Waste paper, as gathered and sold he office buildings paper taken from is gathered into a In one of the bly sale nets $150.

West Valley—Wm. H. Proctor. Yorkshire—David D. Smith.

ALONZO D. SILL.

The Last Member of a Well-Known Family Dies Suddenly.

Alonzo D. Sill, one of Franklinville's esteemed citizens, died very suddenly, Wednesday morning, March 13th, while driving toward his farm about five miles south of that vil- lage. He left his home about 9 o'clock and half an hour later he was found by James Duncan near the Jay Button farm, leaning forward in the cutter. Mr. Duncan jumped into the cutter and drove to the nearest house where a doctor was summoned, but he died before medical aid reached him. Death was attributed to heart failure. He leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. George Longaker of Buffalo.

The funeral services were held at his late home, Saturday, the Rev. Dr. McKay officiating.

Mr. Sill was born in the town of Humphrey, March 28th, 1835, where his early days were spent and when the war broke out was the first to enlist in the 154th regiment from that town. He served one year, when he was taken ill with typhoid fever and after his recovery he was honorably discharged.

He was united in marriage to Miss Adelina Linderman of Humphrey, Dec. 27th, 1864, one daughter being born to them. About 21 years ago he with his family moved to Franklinville where he took an active interest in the village affairs and was a faith- ful member of the Baptist church where he will be greatly missed.

Expensive Fuel.

You may think by this article that the Thurbers have money to burn, but such is not the case. Last Fri- day night, as Mrs. N. H. Thurber, thinking the stove needed a little more coal for the night, leaned over to

In' be- is

First she trembles on th' water an' th' c Ripplin' inter baby billers, sputt'rin' on' Then she jumps like all creation, does f Gittin' me all flushed an' fi Count o' that there bin *bob.

An' when night comes I turn homeward S'prisin' all them city fellers—causin' t They had thrun away ther riggin', reel Fishin' like a "native" fish bol With a stick pole an' a Copyright.

The One Tha

The biggest fish you ever caught The biggest chance you ever soug But if another chance you seek.