A list of all the battles (and the date) in which your regiment participated, together with the name of the commanding officer, and the brigade commander.

The information you desire can be best obtained of E Northrup

W. Colville

Catt Co N.Y.

who is writing up an extended history of the 154th N.Y.

I see that the regimental officers made no report of Battle of Gettysburg Lieut Col D B Allen of Otto N.Y. was in command at the time. The regimental monument at Gettysburg says the regiment lost 1 killed and 11 wounded, now 14 known names are in the National cemetery at that place

I know am among the unknown as the rebels held the ground where we fought the first day & they stripped the dead so we could not tell just how many they were In talking it over with Dr Van Derman our Surgeon since the war we estimate the Regiment lost about 25 killed at Gettysburg

I was acting Hospital Steward of the Regiment at Gettysburg

If a detachment, give the letters of the companies composing it, together with the name of the commanding officer,
