July. THURSDAY, 14. 1864.

Morning warm with cool breeze of a hot day. Nothing of interest transpiring in our front. Pass the day in quiet, write to Home and to Pariah. Worked some on Cochman's Returns, the army seems to be very quiet at present. Do not mind the quiet that precedes the storm. Some rain in the evening with wind.

FRIDAY, 15.

Morning cool after last nights rain. Worked heavily all day on Cochman's Returns, with some reading, thereon is no variety.
All quiet along our front to day. Received notice of the death of Capt Crosby, at Nashville July 9th. Both Officers gone. who a short month since were in full health and vigor. Very hot.

SATURDAY, 16.

Morning very hot. Up early by D S Harding. worked hard all forenoon on returns.
got them finished and mailed.
Exposed some berries for supper, to pay for going without dinner. Berries came afternoon fully realizing all expectation in quantity

July. SUNDAY, 17. 1864.

Quite a shower last night which settled the roads pleasant. Ordered to prepare for Inspection by Lieut Hoober, Comp Clerk Sgt and Lieut Stacker, Orderly Commissioned, and an hour thereof an order to prepare to March at 3 P.M. At 4 ordered to fall in, men of long time in getting started but at length got under way, completed the march crossed the N & C R R at Franklin Station, and the rivers on pontoon bridges by Brentwood at 6 or 4 miles above the N & C bridge. Marched about 12 miles from camp and bivouacked by the right of the line at 9 P.M.

MONDAY, 18.

Morning pleasant and warm did not move camp till about 10 A.M. then our Brigade marched out and proceeded to Harney and then turning to the left to Wood's while the Pioneers built a bridge over the creek, crossed and marched about 12 miles over then turned to the left of Lotte and in this manner advanced some 2 miles on a portion of the ground through the most beautiful woody that ever my eyes beheld on this portion we met no enemy however only small cavalry scouts about 10 A.M. Halted for dinner at Hollow with light a little west of south from our position here just at sun set our brave out for the night, the Brig and Pioneers have marched some 18 miles in the afternoon Orders have come to move at 5 A.M. to-morrow to go down into Dixie. TUESDAY, 19.

Orders to move at 5 A.M. early got up slept at about 4 A.M. at night on the ground without tents or anything else over us. Moved out at about 7 A.M. and marched in the direction of Franklin which we reached about 12 M. and after a considerable delay went into camp on the left of the line of Battle. Camp in the woods
