

IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT COLLEGE AUTHORITIES CONTINUE TO REGARD WITH APPROVAL THE PROGRAM NOW BEGUN TO CONTINUE THE EDUCATION OF FACULTY MEMBERS. DURING THE SUMMER OF 1950, THE HEAD OF THE DEPARTMENT WILL ATTEND NEW YORK UNIVERSITY. IT IS HOPED THAT OTHER DEPARTMENT MEMBERS WILL BE GRANTED LEAVE TO DO LIKEWISE DURING THE SUMMER WHEN POSSIBLE.

IV. CONCLUSIONS

HAVING SEEN ITS FIRST STUDENTS RECEIVE THEIR BACHELOR'S DEGREES, AND ITS FACULTY STAFF ROUNDED OUT, THE DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM CONSIDERS ITSELF A FULL-GROWN, RESPONSIBLE MEMBER OF THE COLLEGE COMMUNITY. LOOKING AHEAD, IT VIEWS THE FUTURE WITH THE PROSPECT OF CONTINUING IMPROVEMENT TO MEET CONSTANTLY CHANGING CONDITIONS IN COMMUNICATIONS. LOOKING BACKWARDS, IT CONSIDERS THAT A FIRM FOUNDATION HAS BEEN BUILT UPON WHICH THE CHANGES OF THE FUTURE WILL FIND SUPPORT.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

RUSSELL J. JANDOLI
HEAD, DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM
