

There is a possibility that plans for increasing photographic instruction will involve upward revision of the budget, but such expenses are as yet indefinite. It is most desirable that the department have a Speed Graphic for its use and that film be available for it. In radio/television classes, use of a cine camera is also desirable, but it is possible here to call on the School of Education for such equipment.

Respectfully submitted,

Russell J. Jandoli
Russell J. Jandoli (Prof.)
Chairman