the barns burned.
everyone ran like
moths to the flames.
we stood and
watched as the flames and the friars raged . . . but we knew what had really been destroyed.

time for bed, if you can find it. it's amazing how grubby things have gotten since the maid
service stopped. you
move the junk to the desk til that's full, to the chair til that's full . . .
you wonder what comes after the floor.

"ghosts" presented by garrett theatre, december 1970

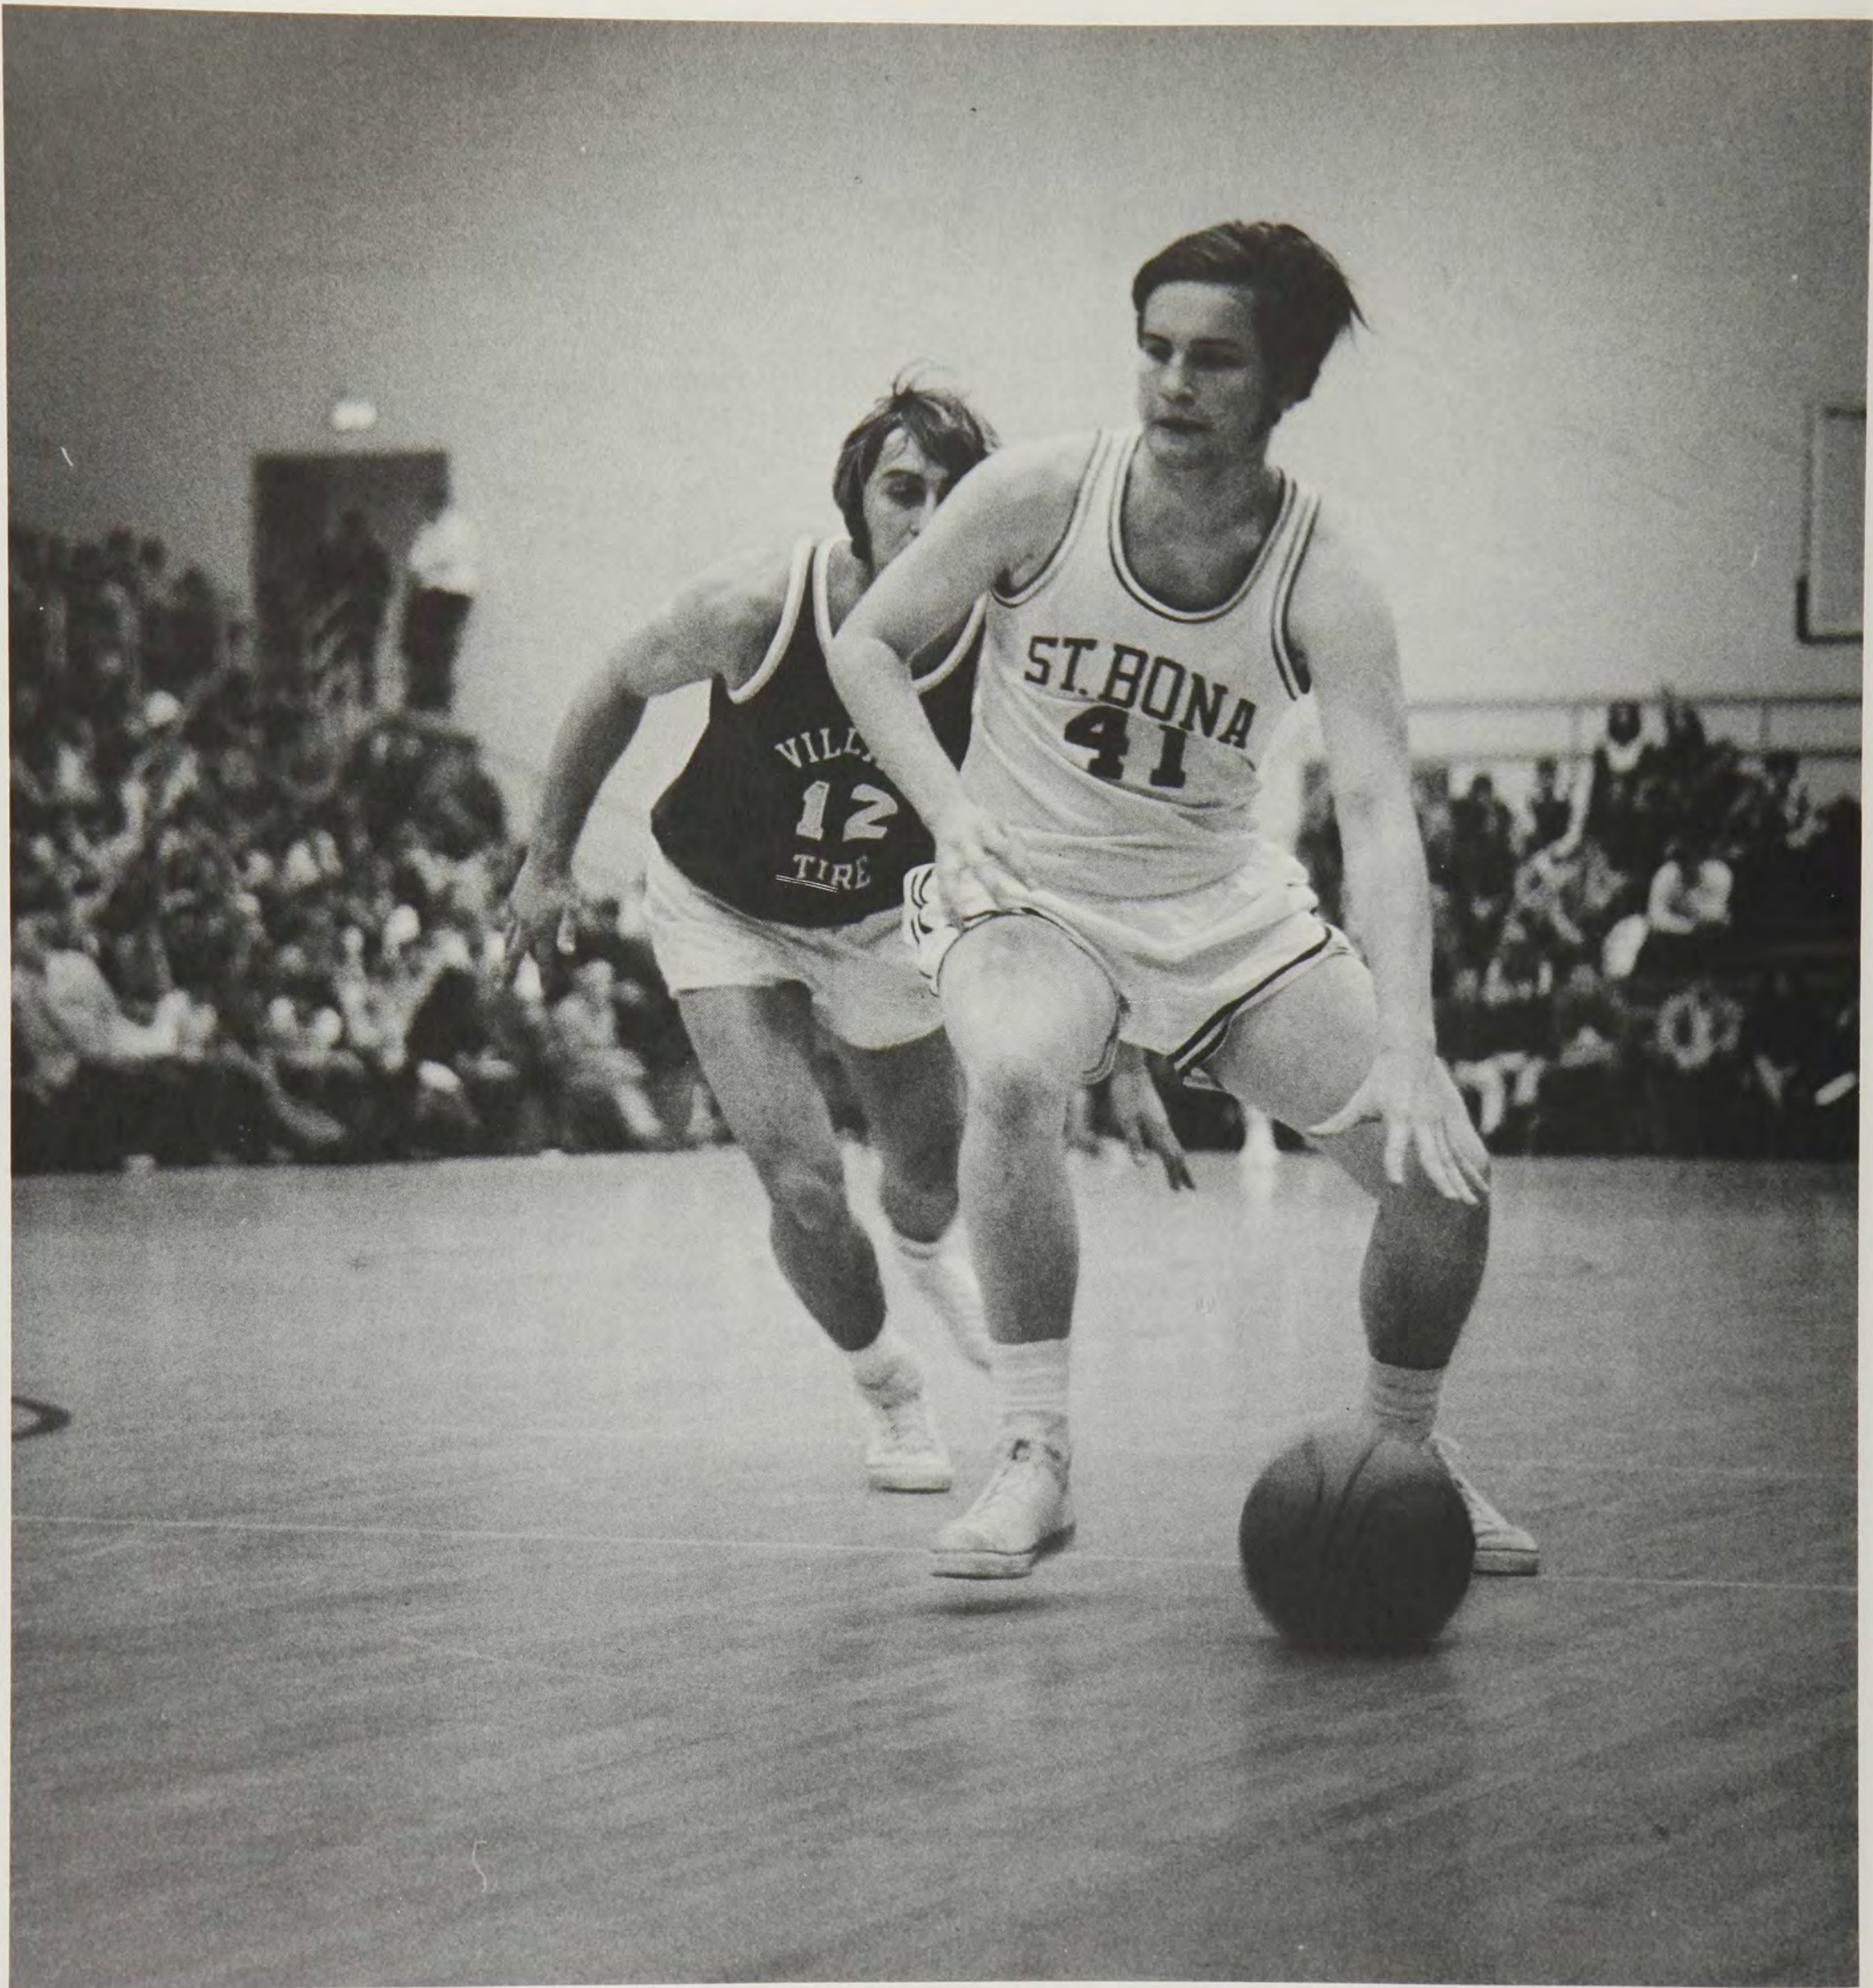

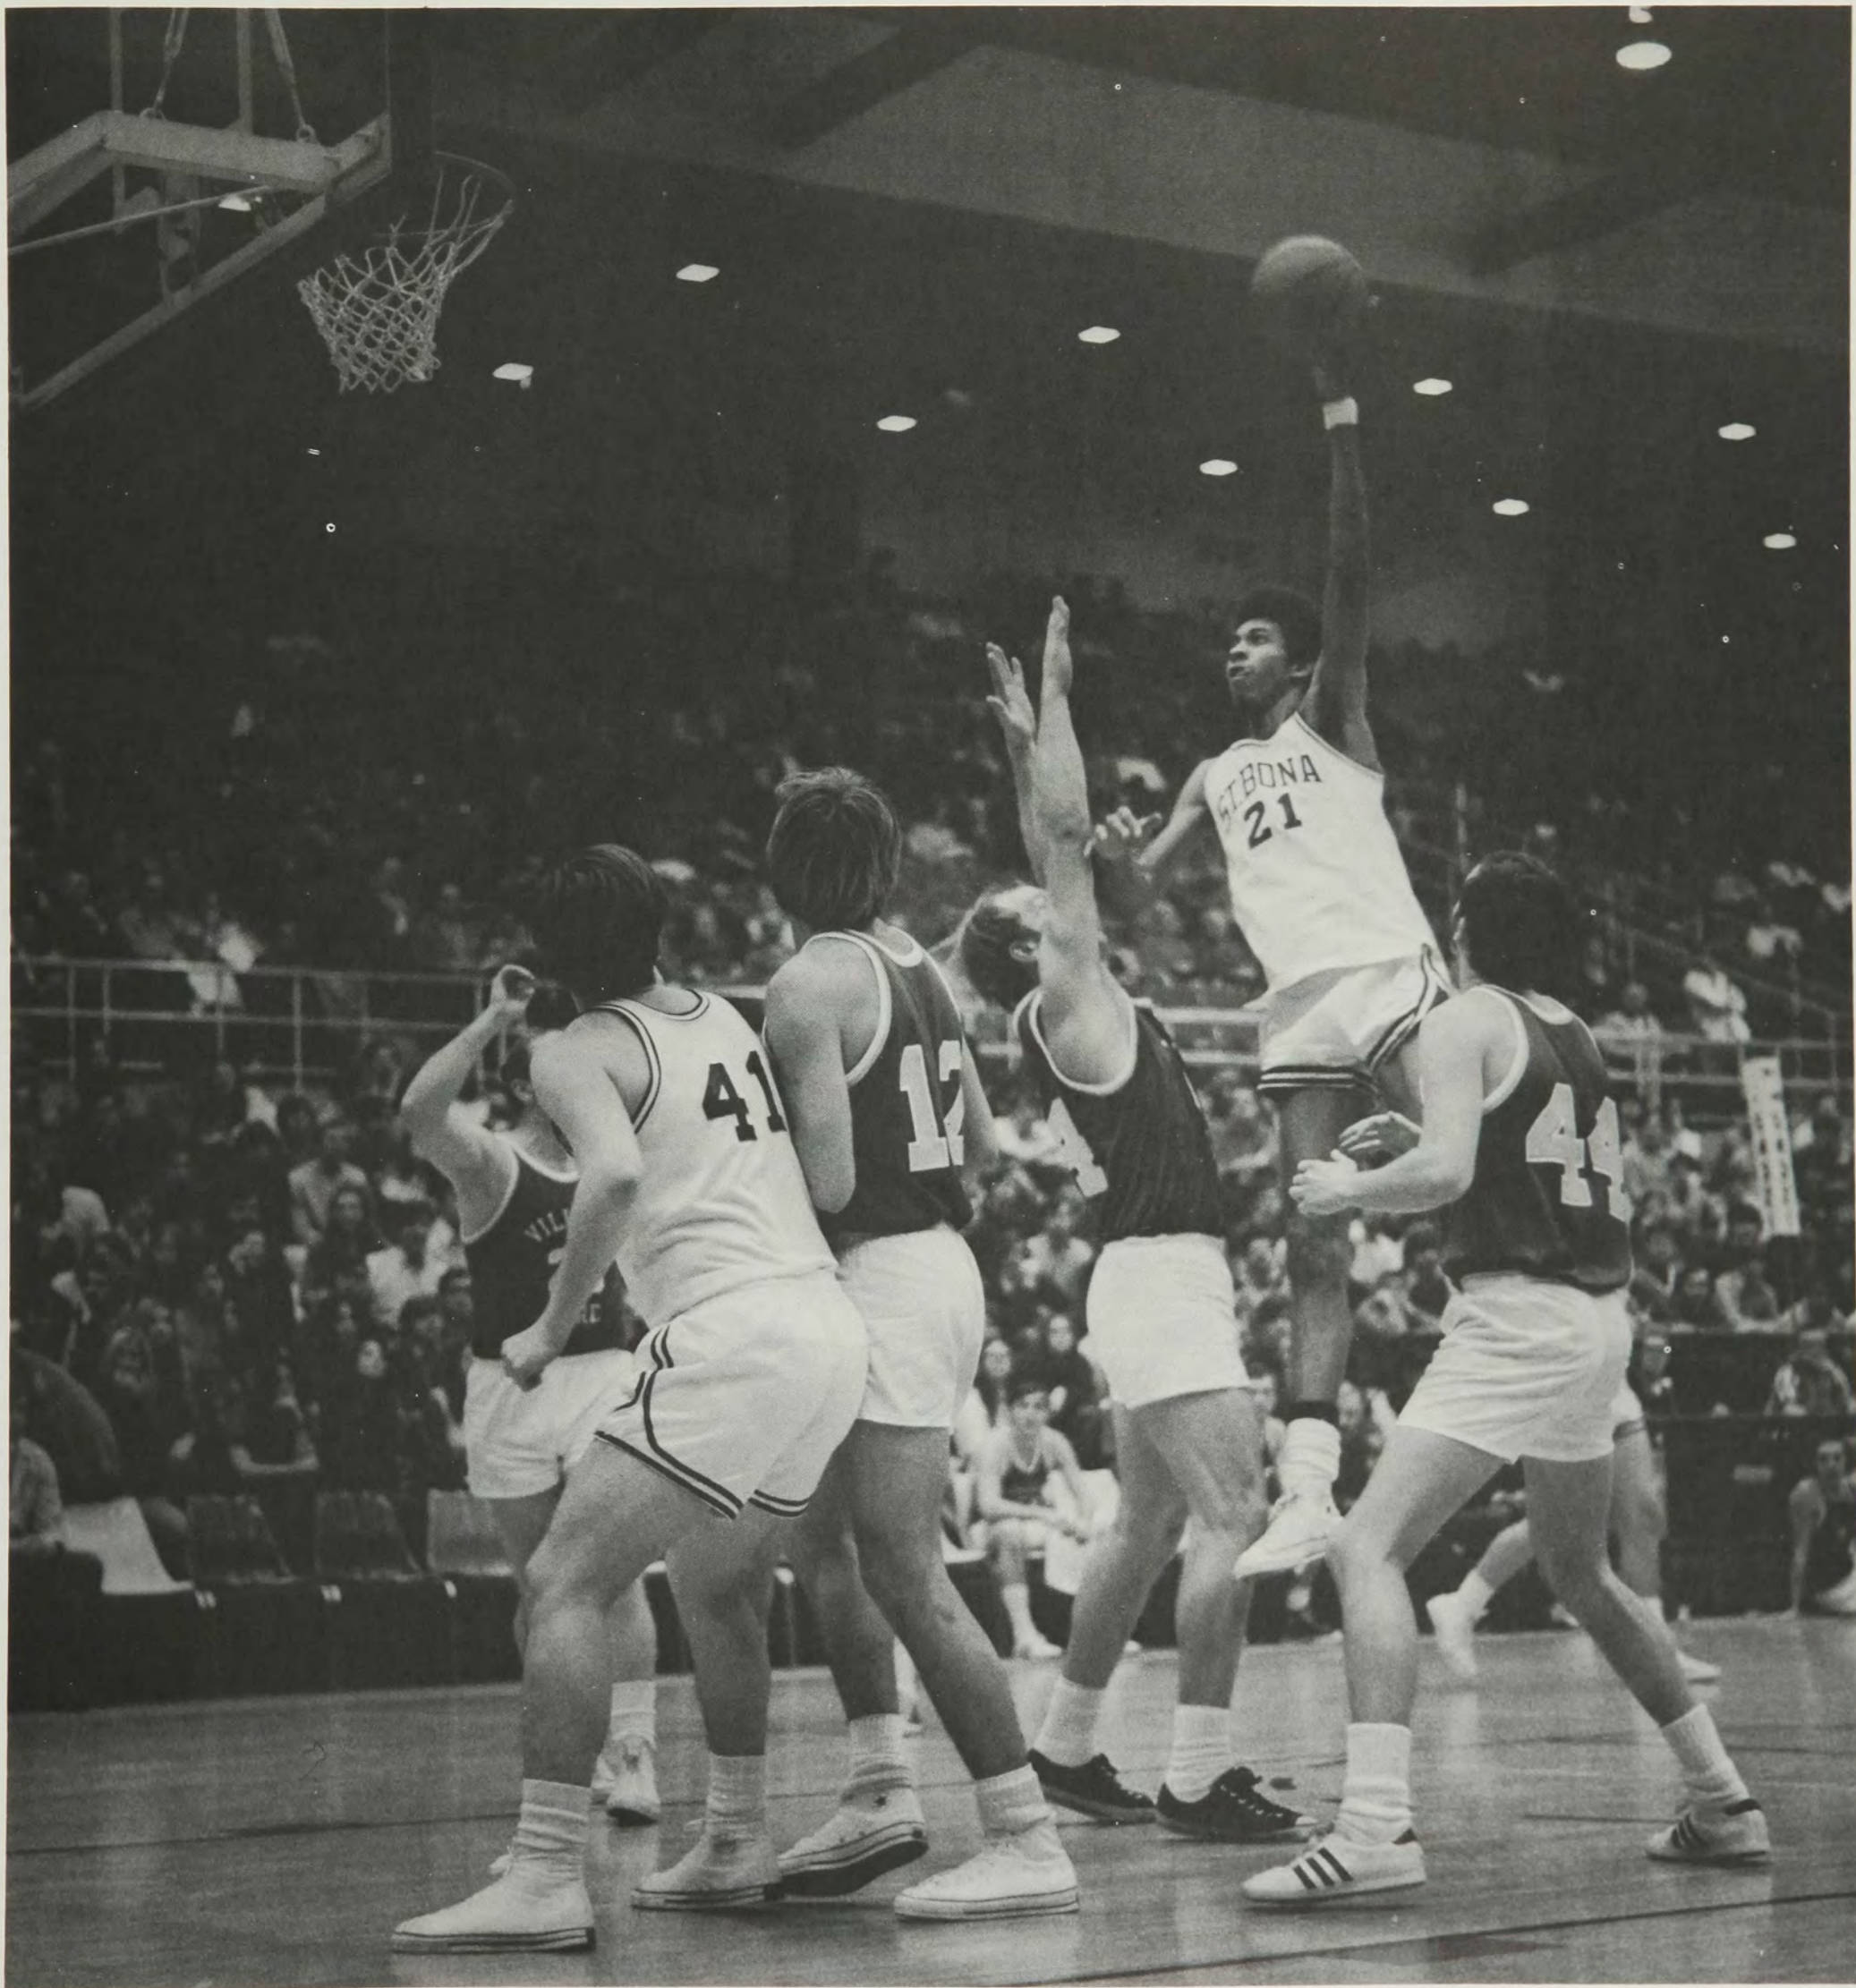

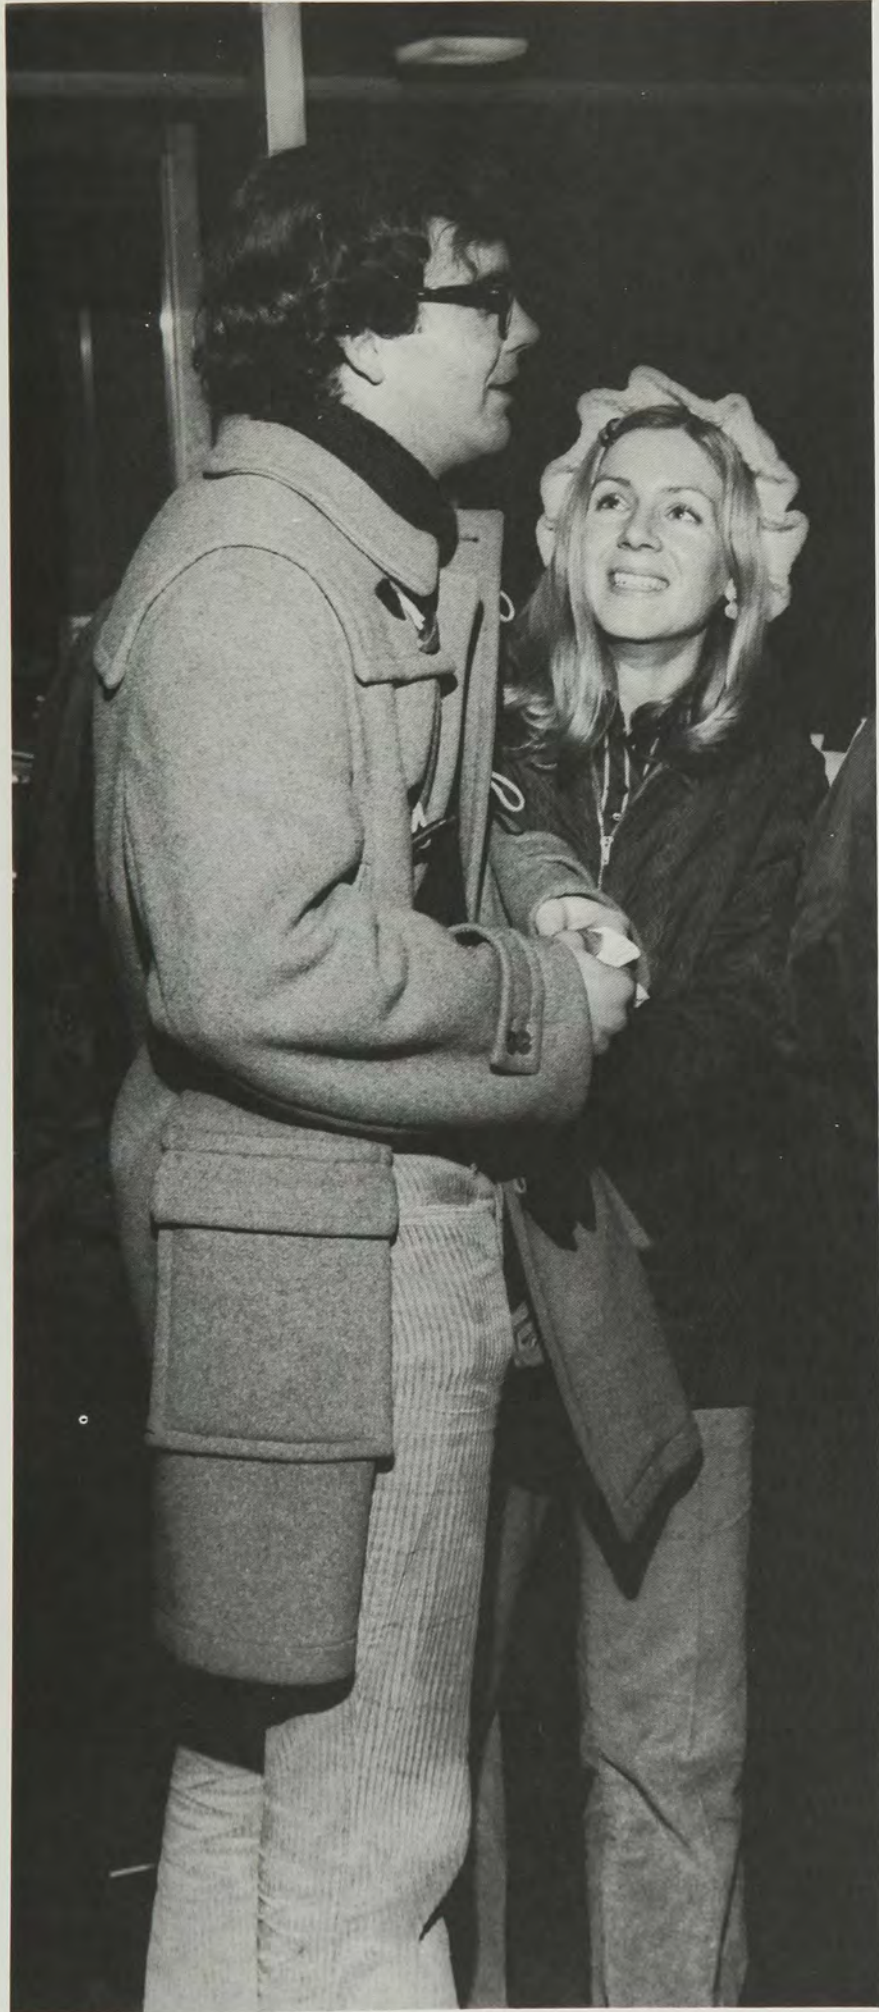

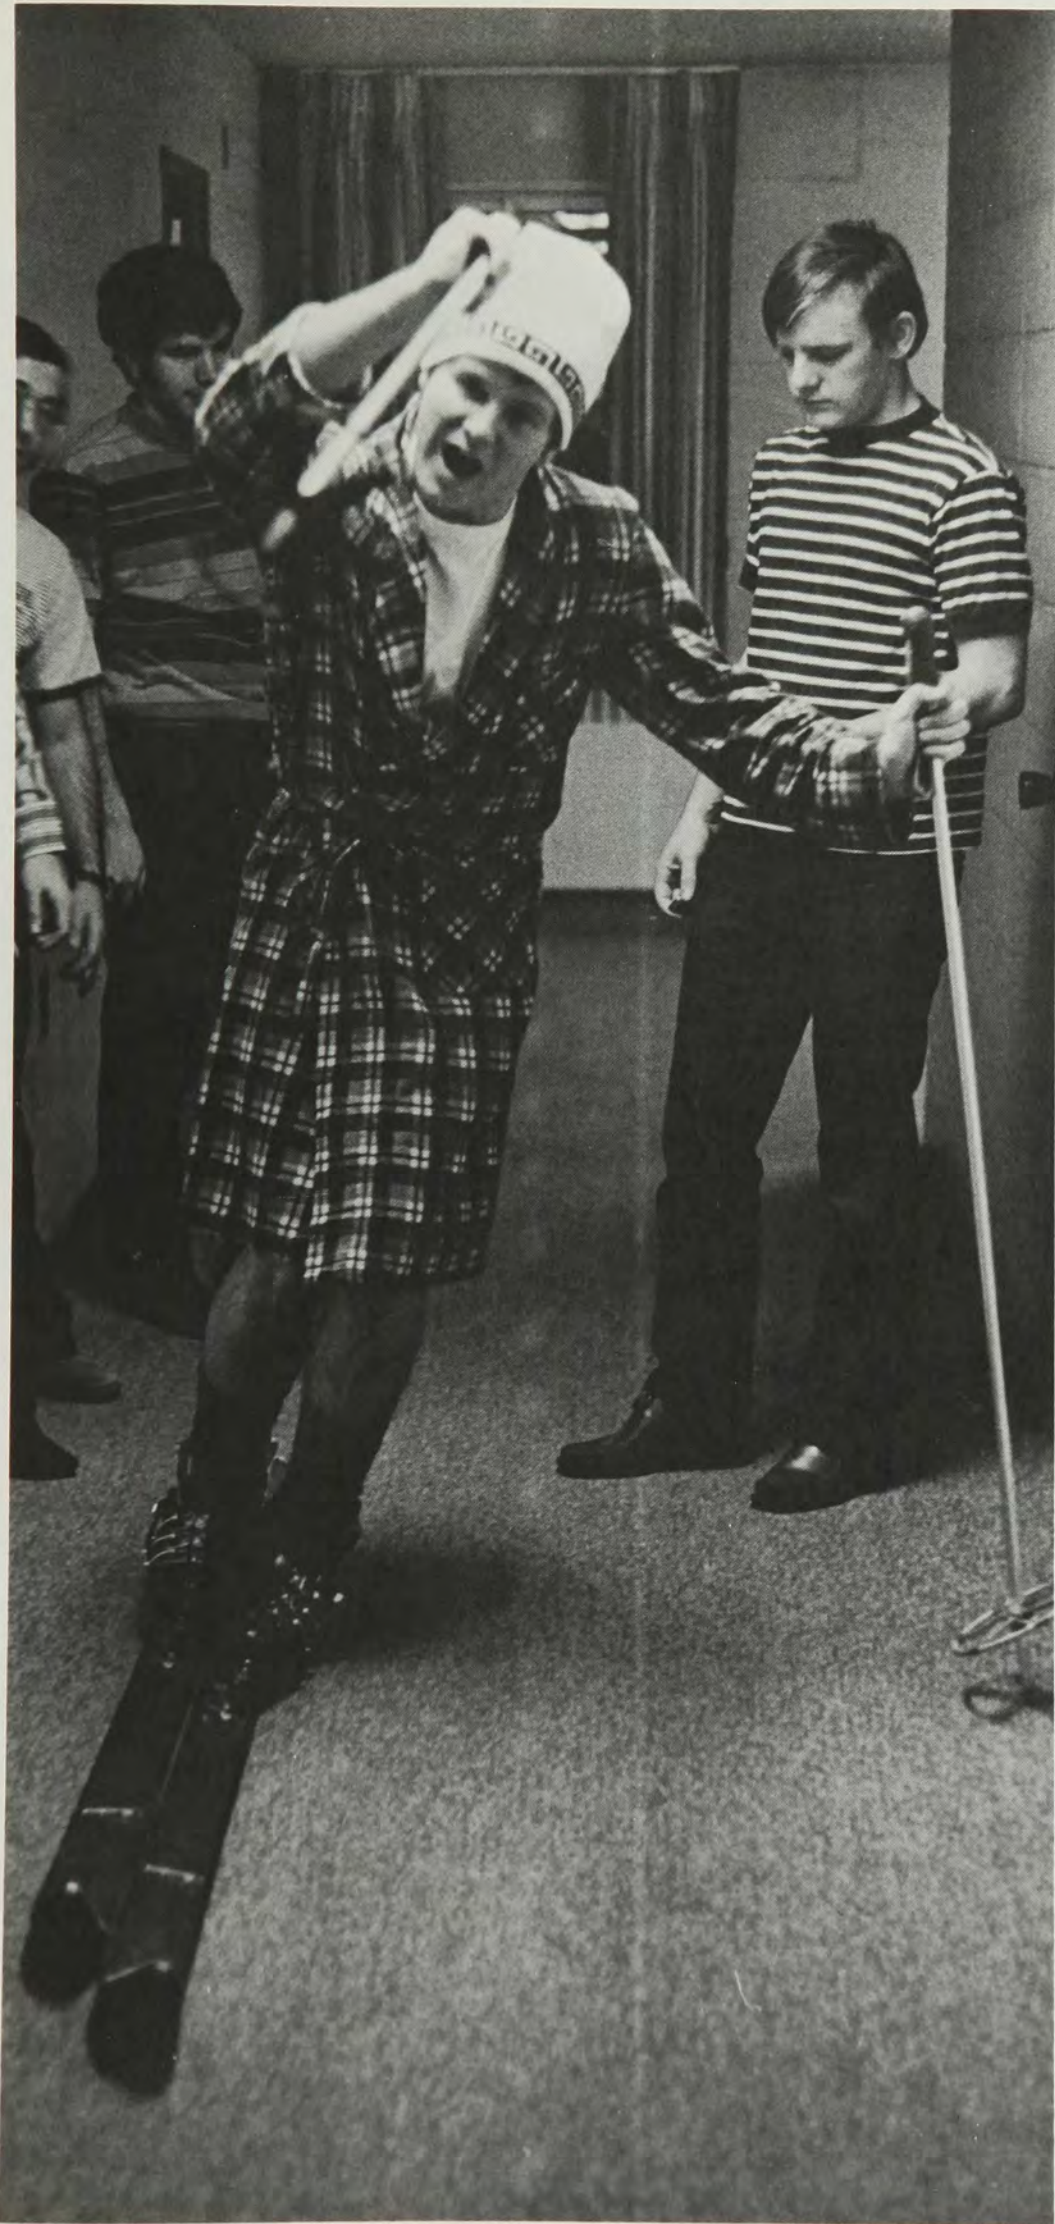

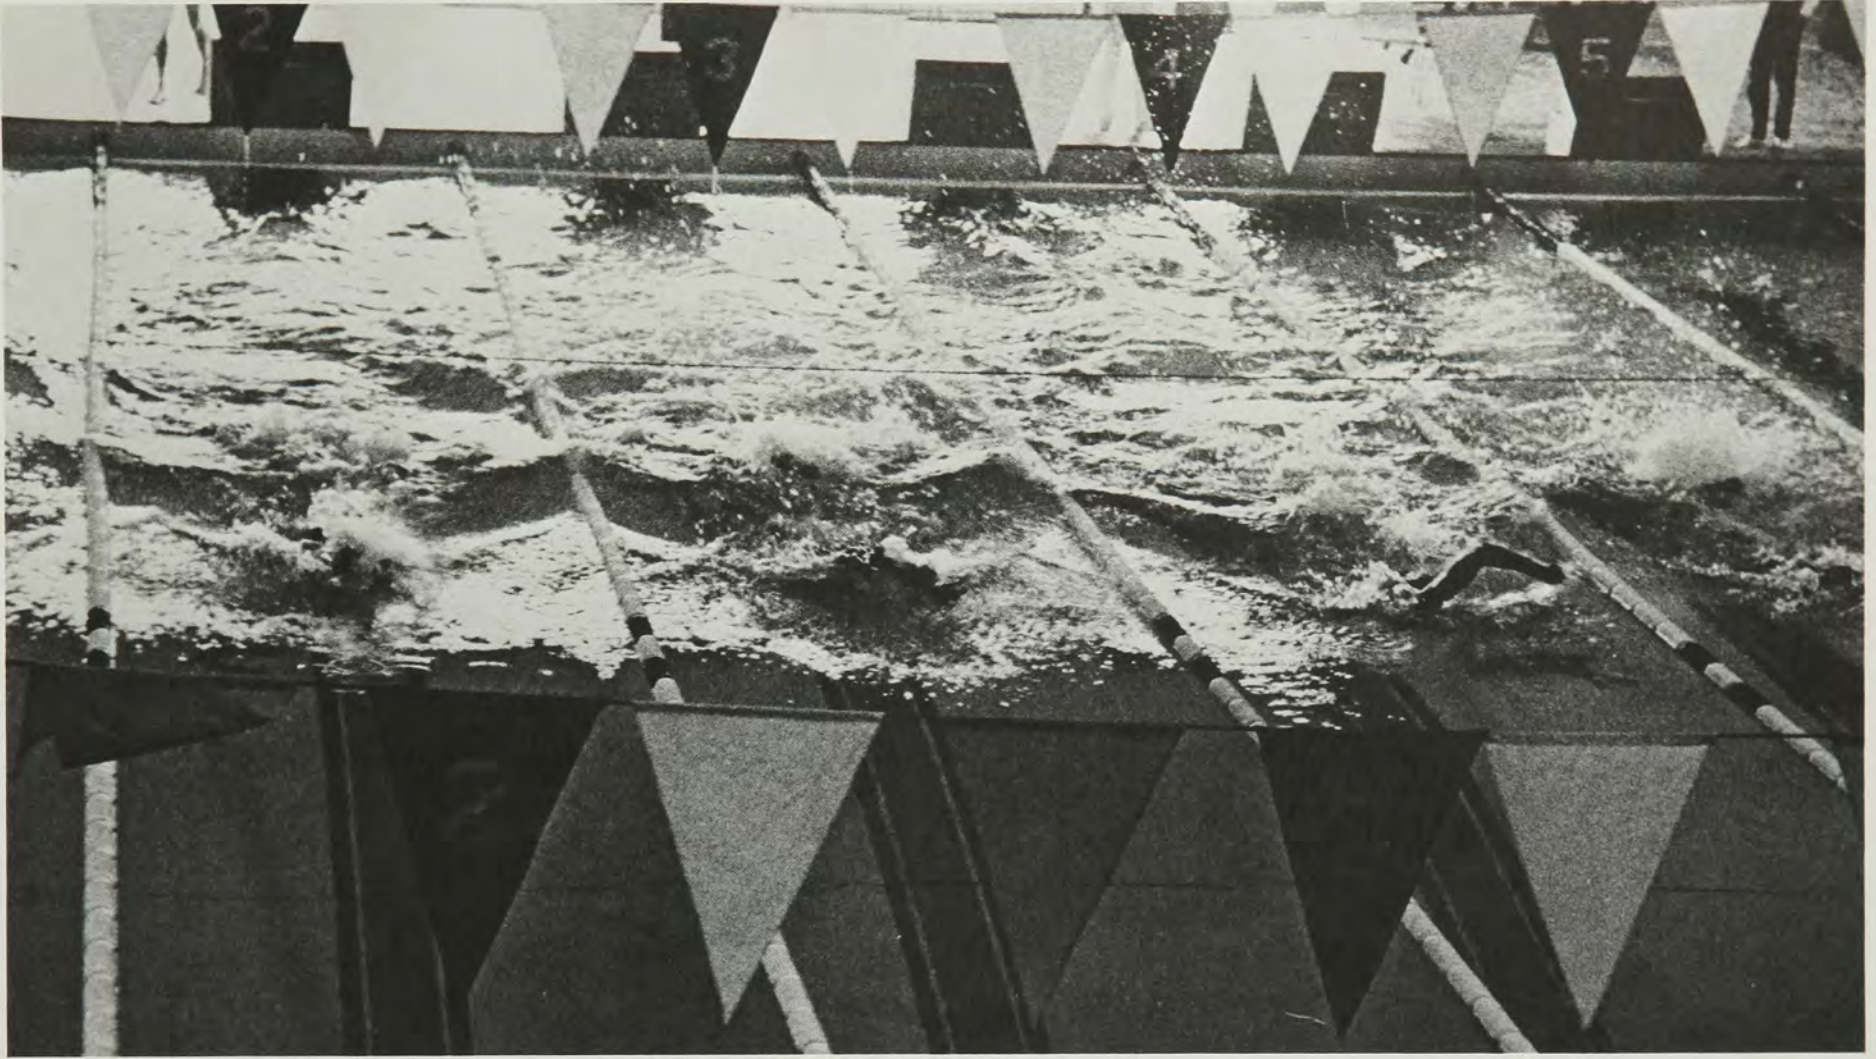

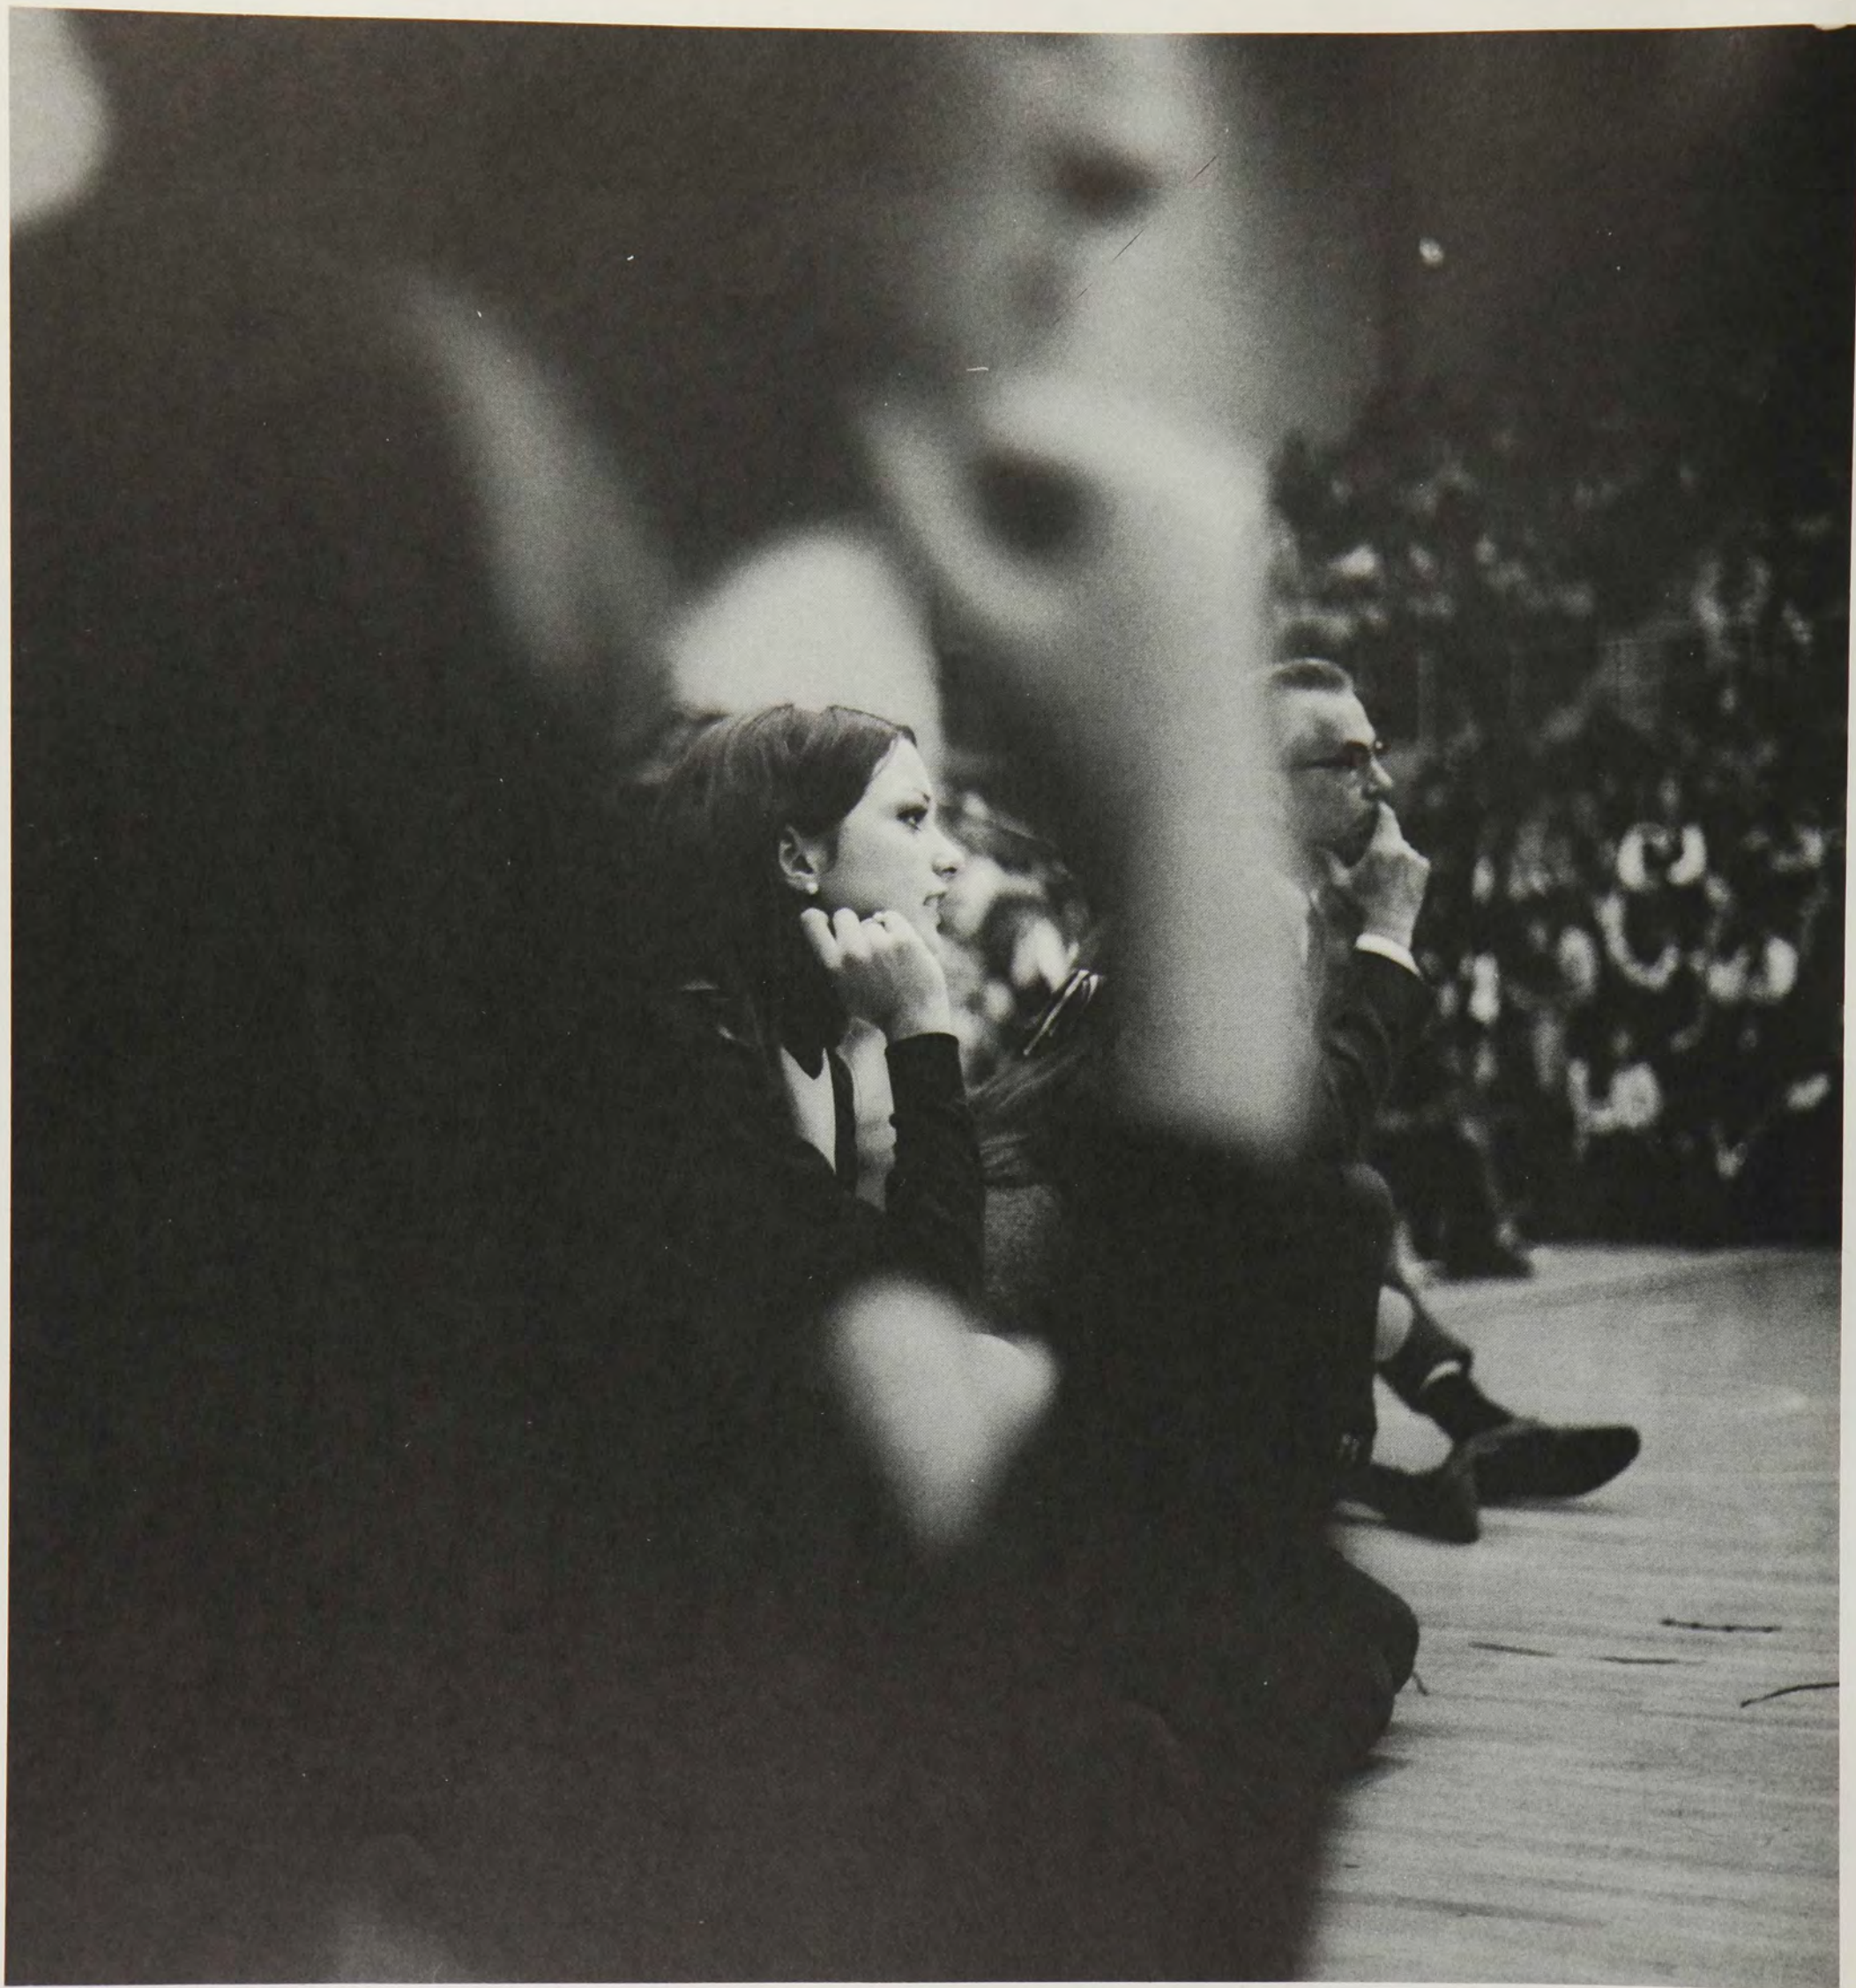

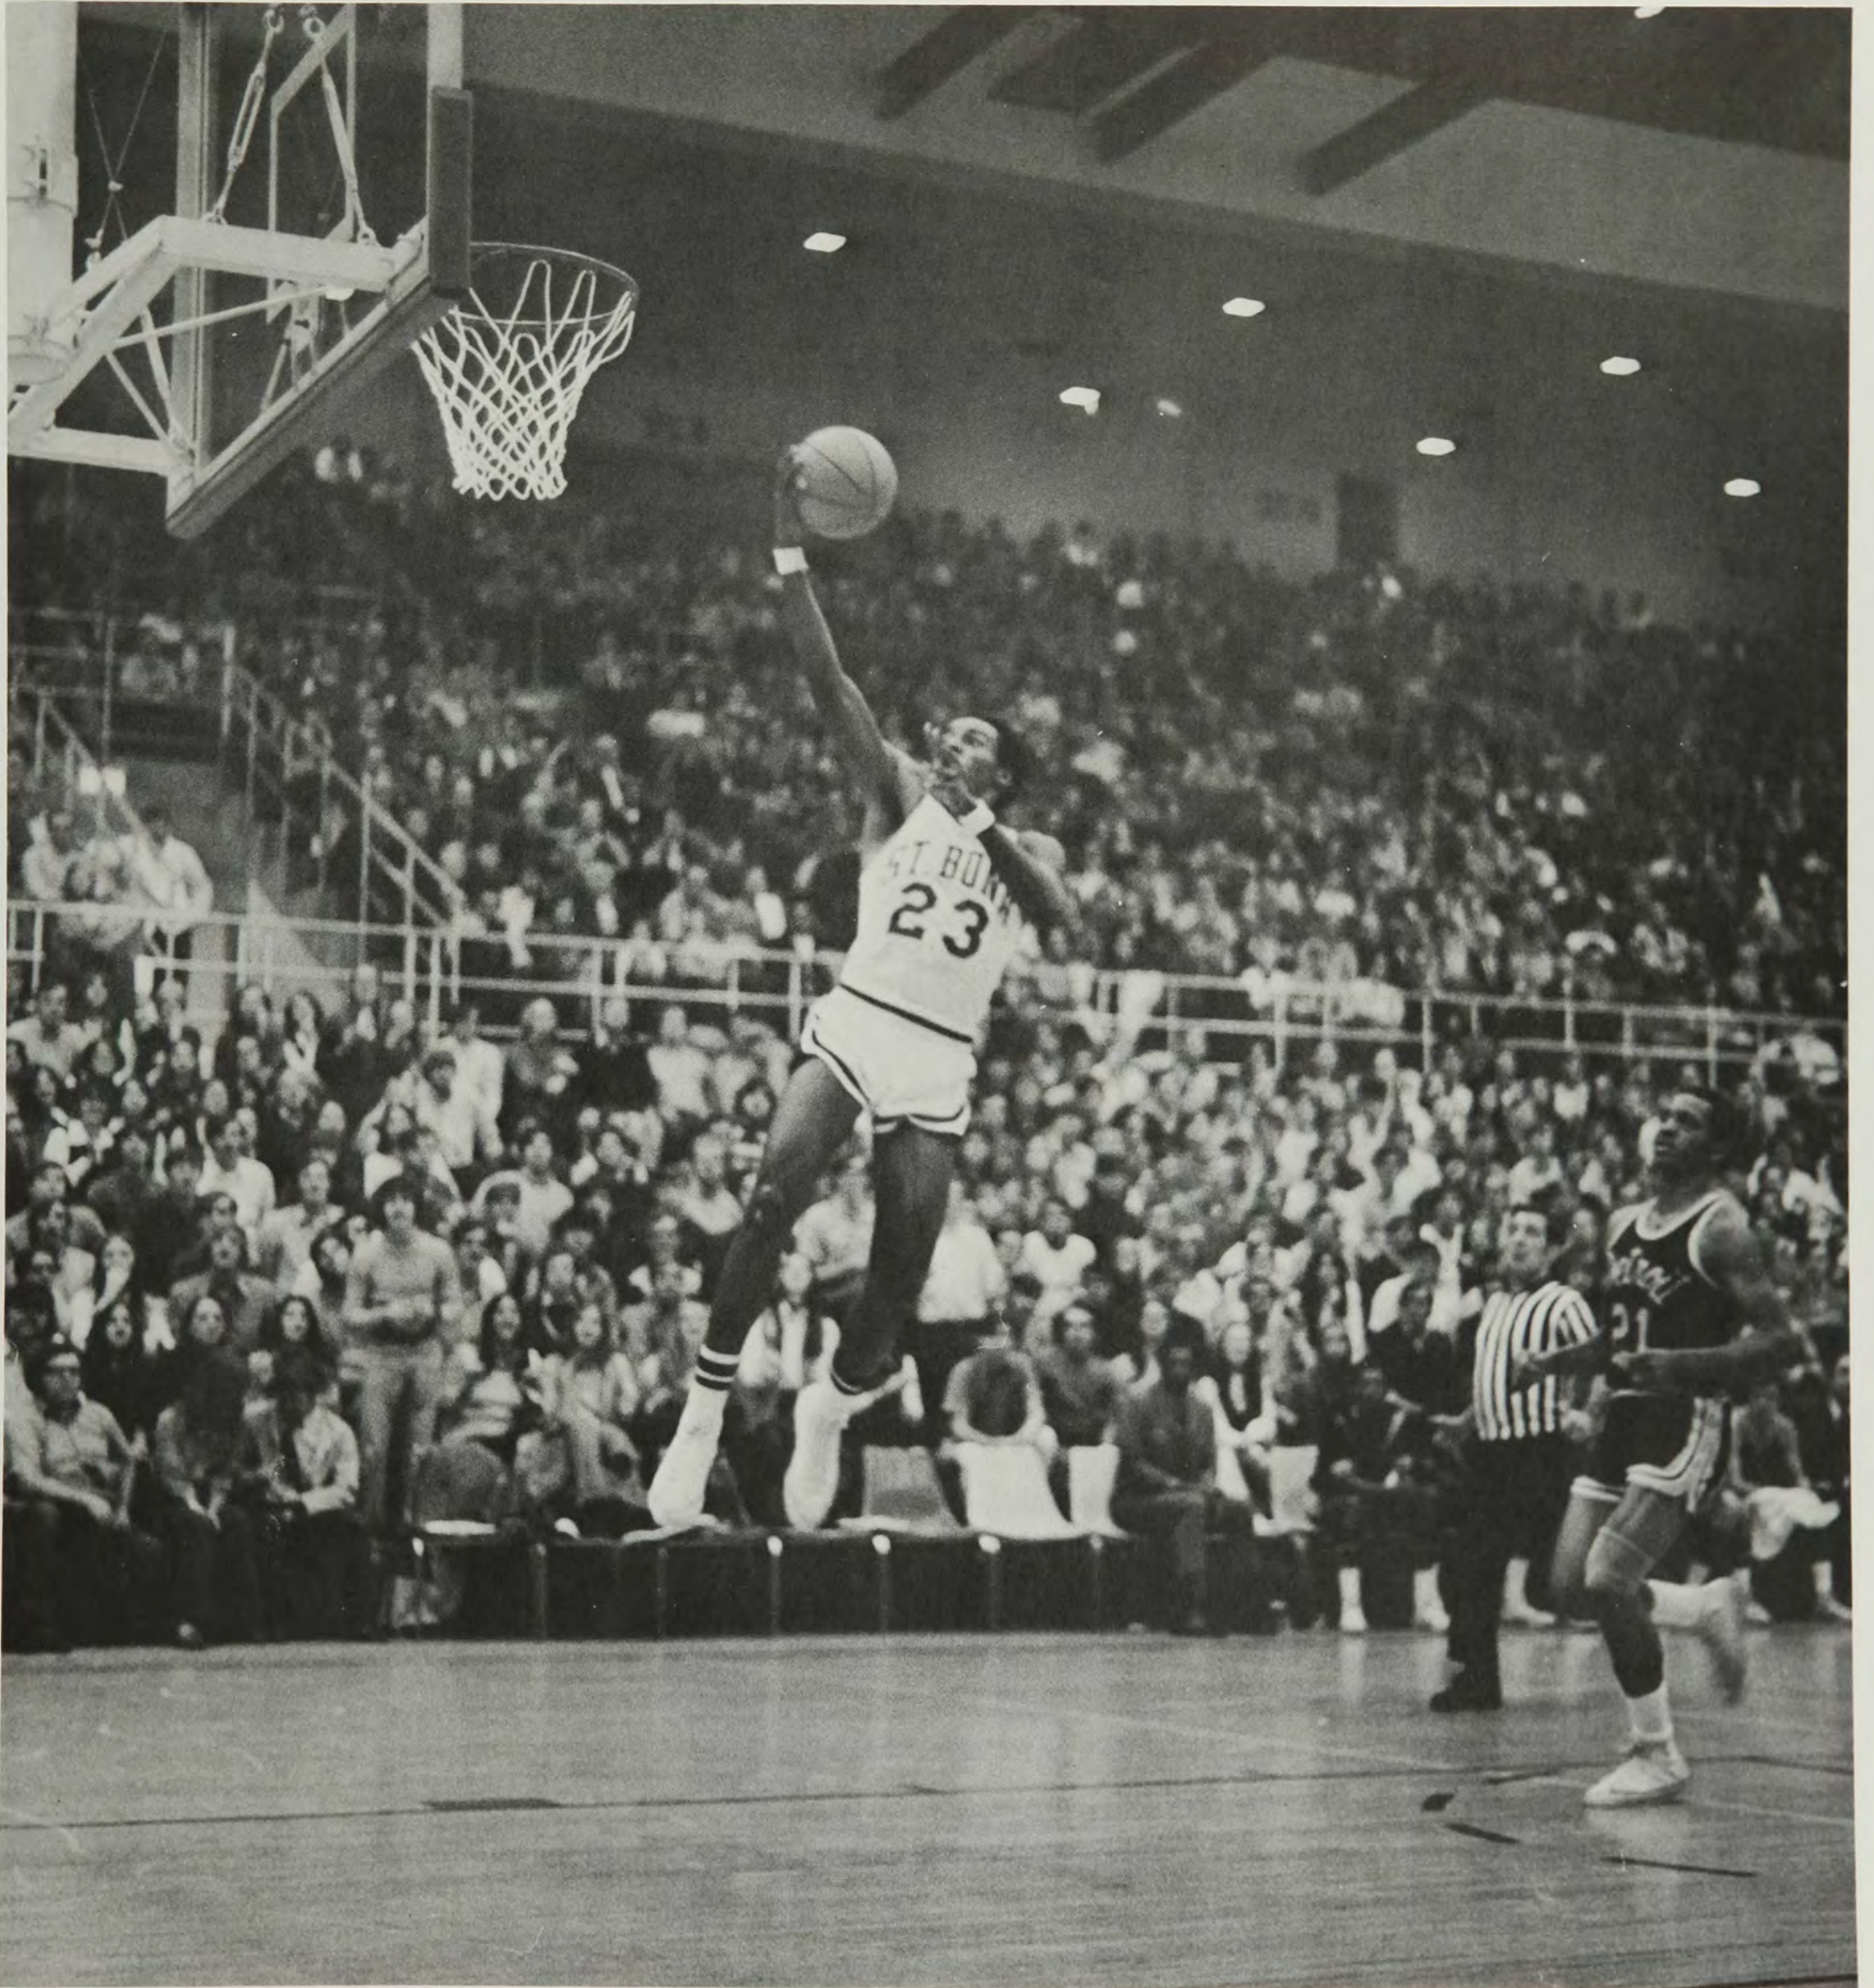

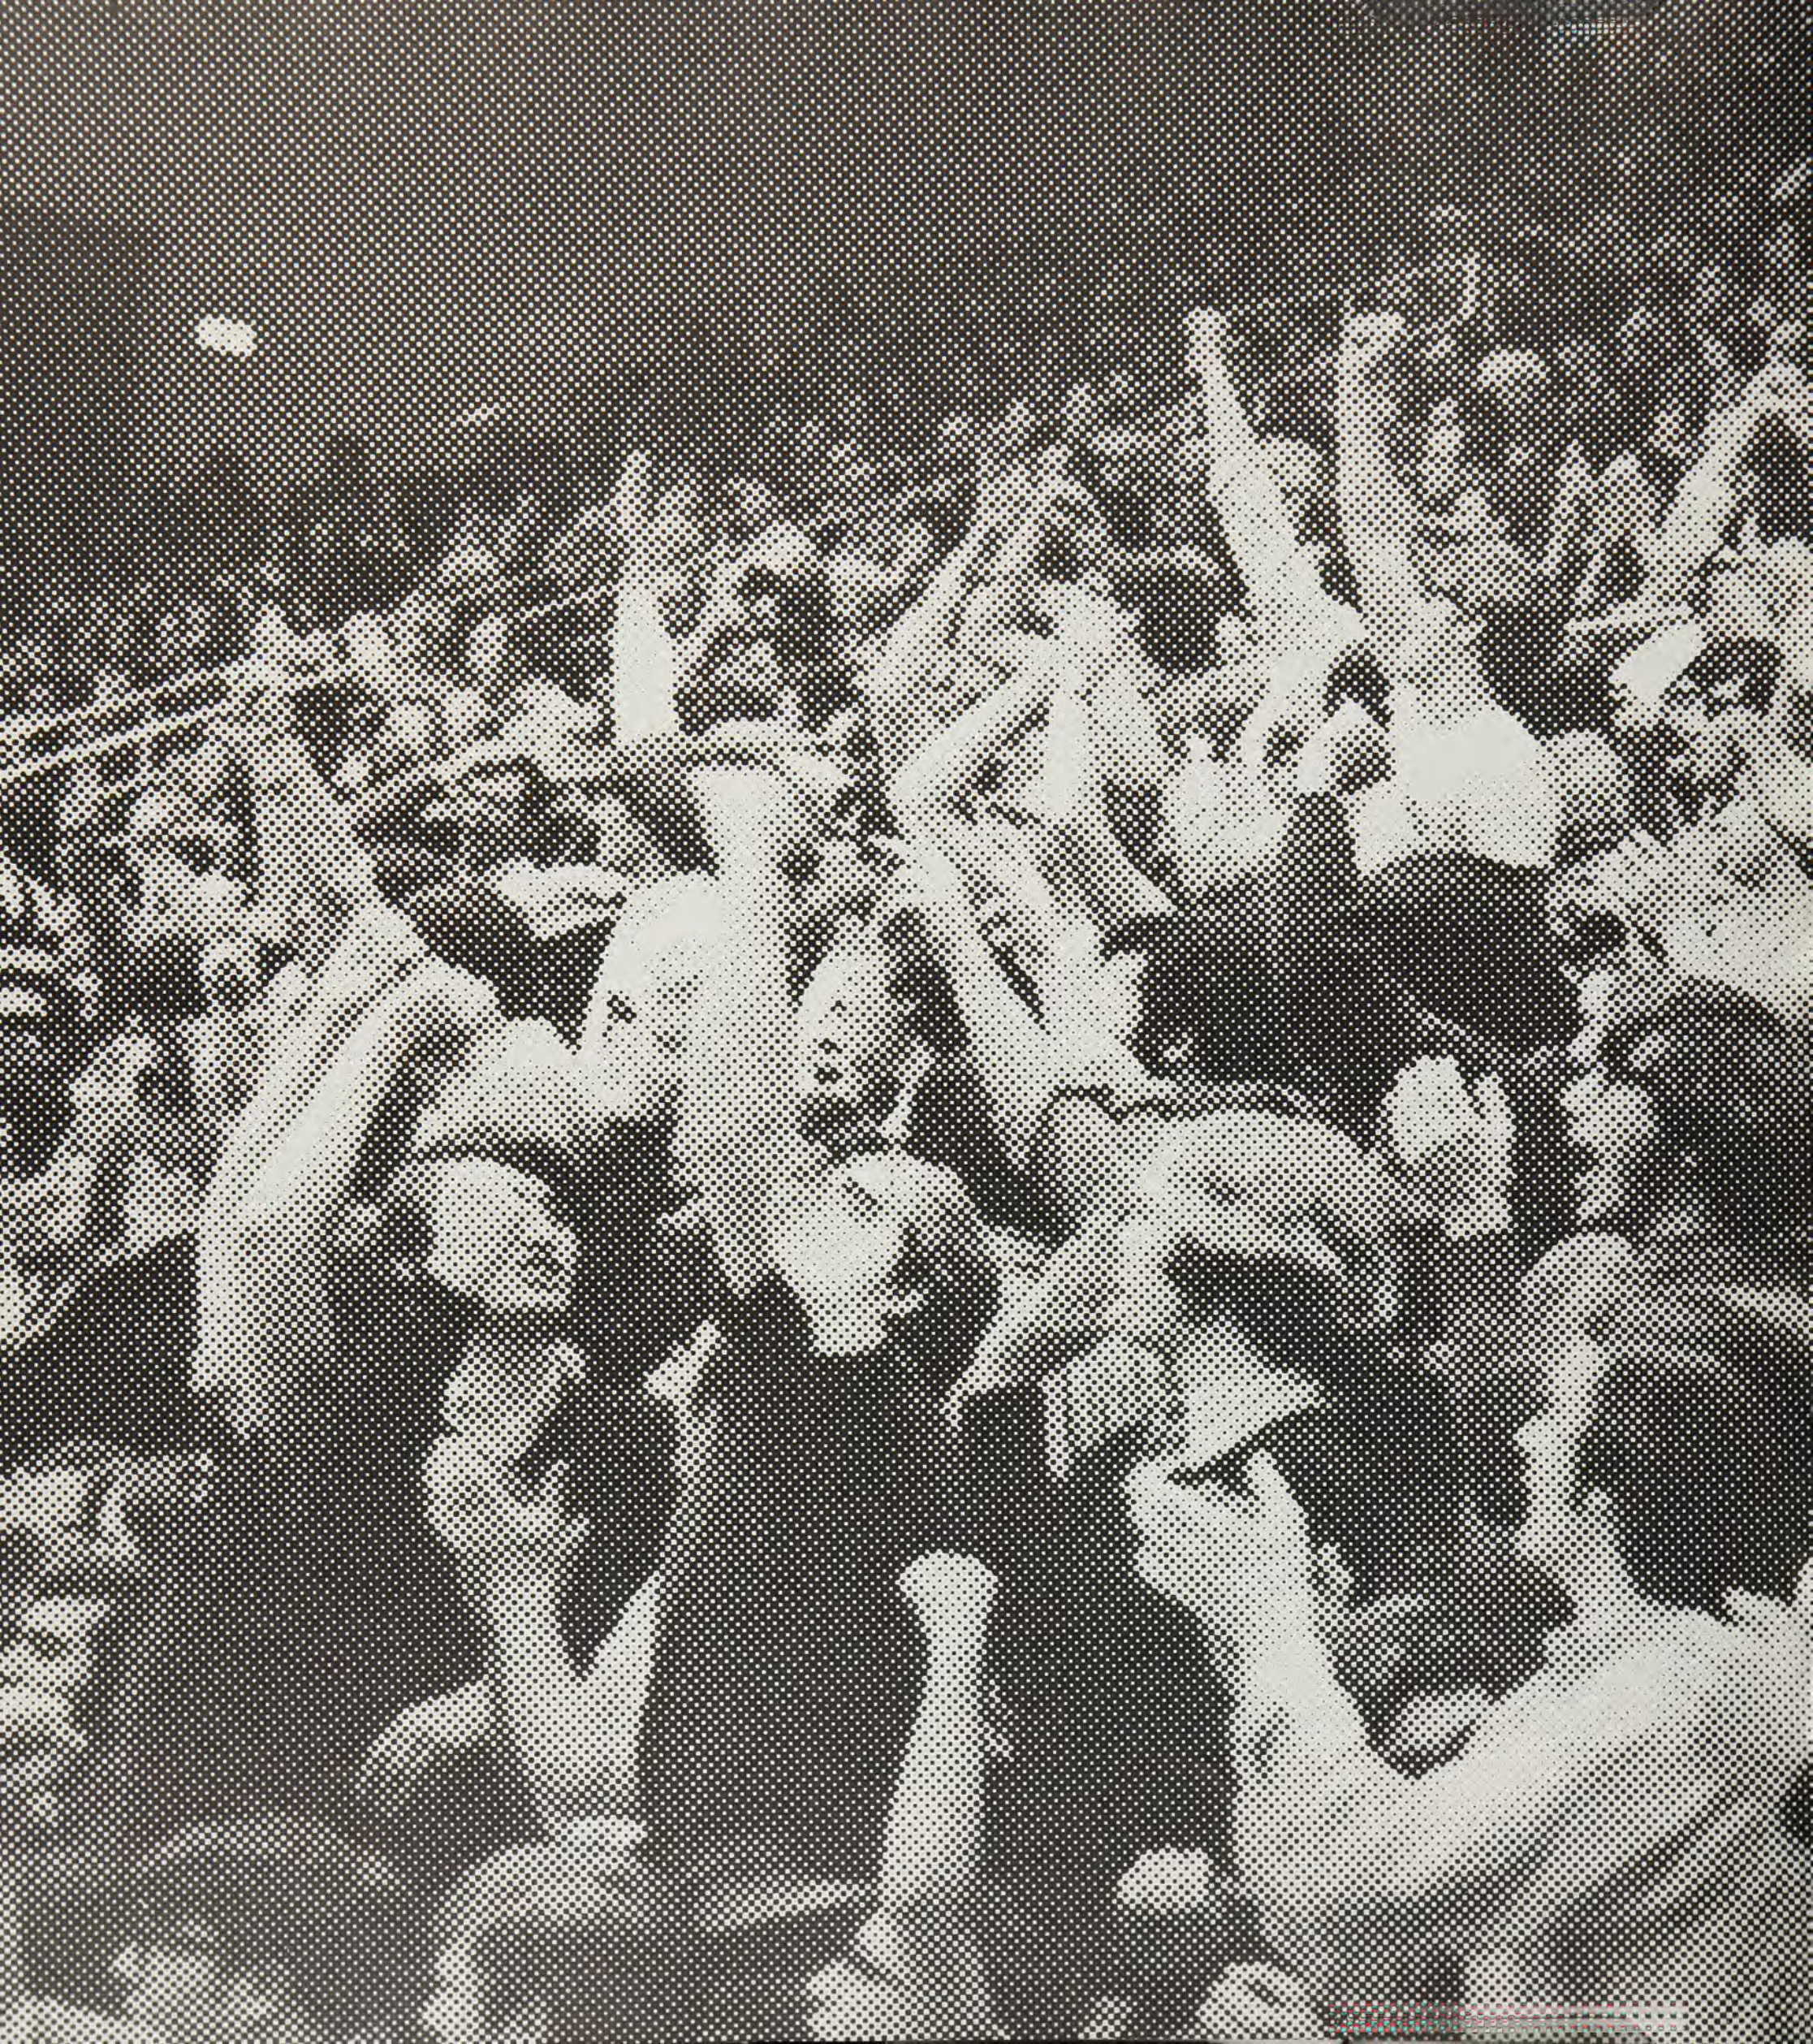

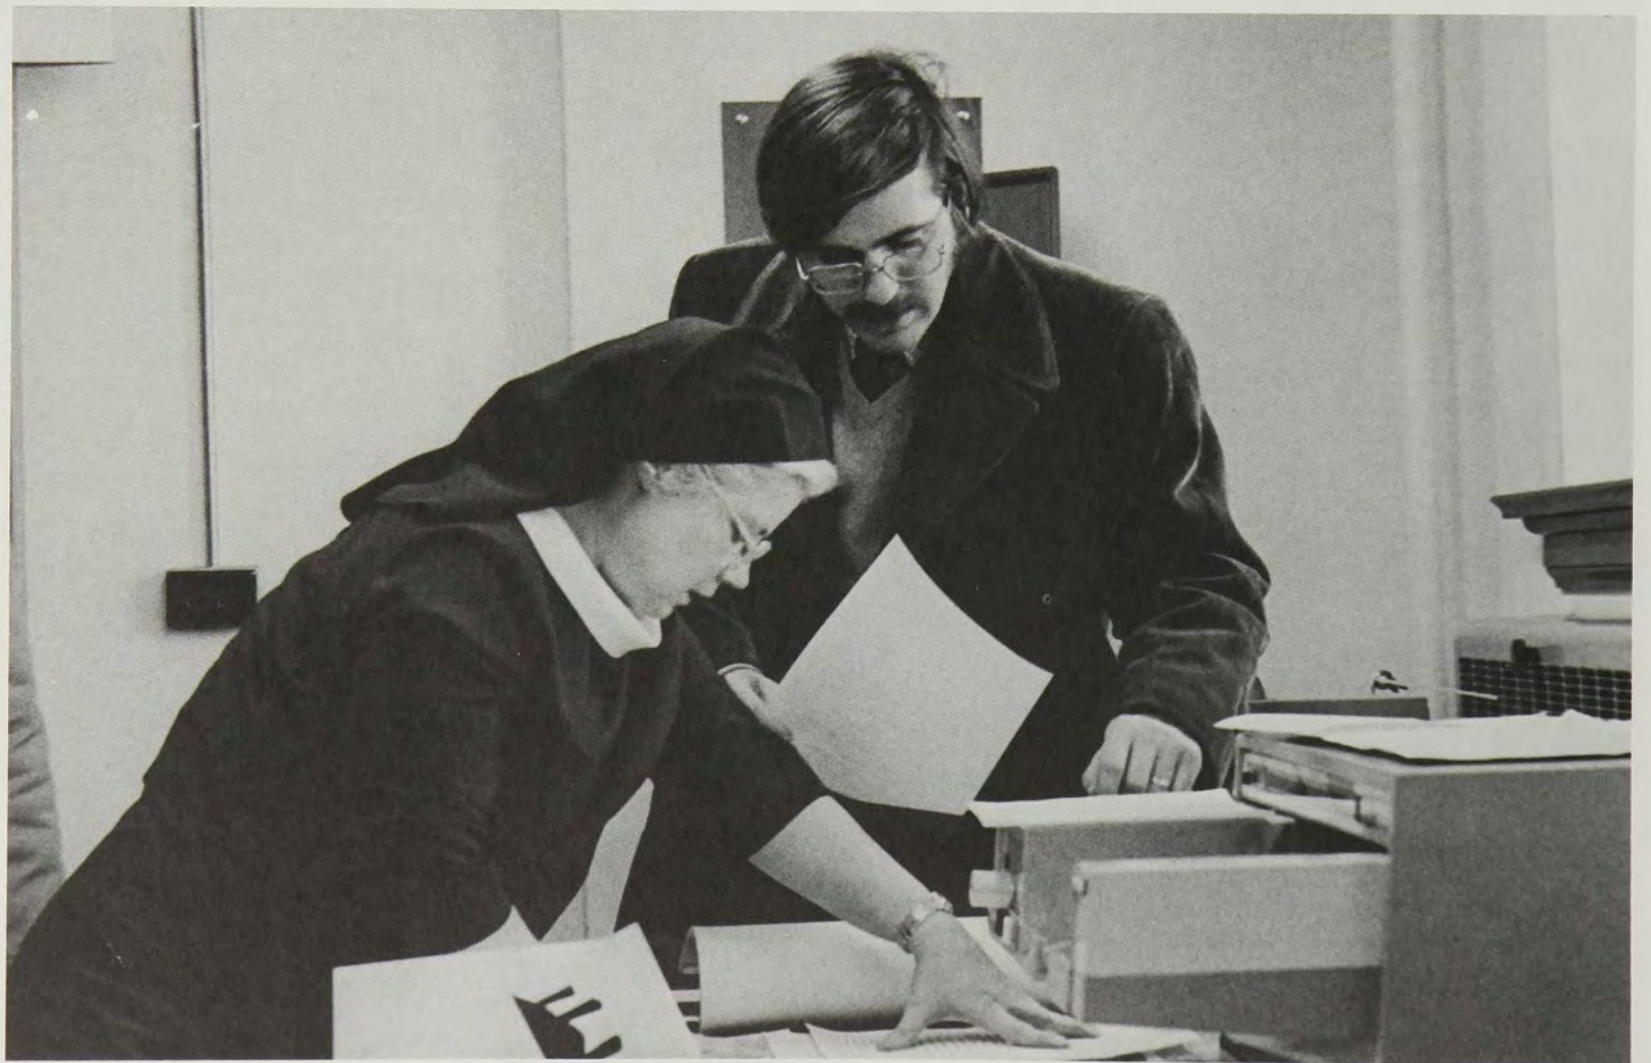

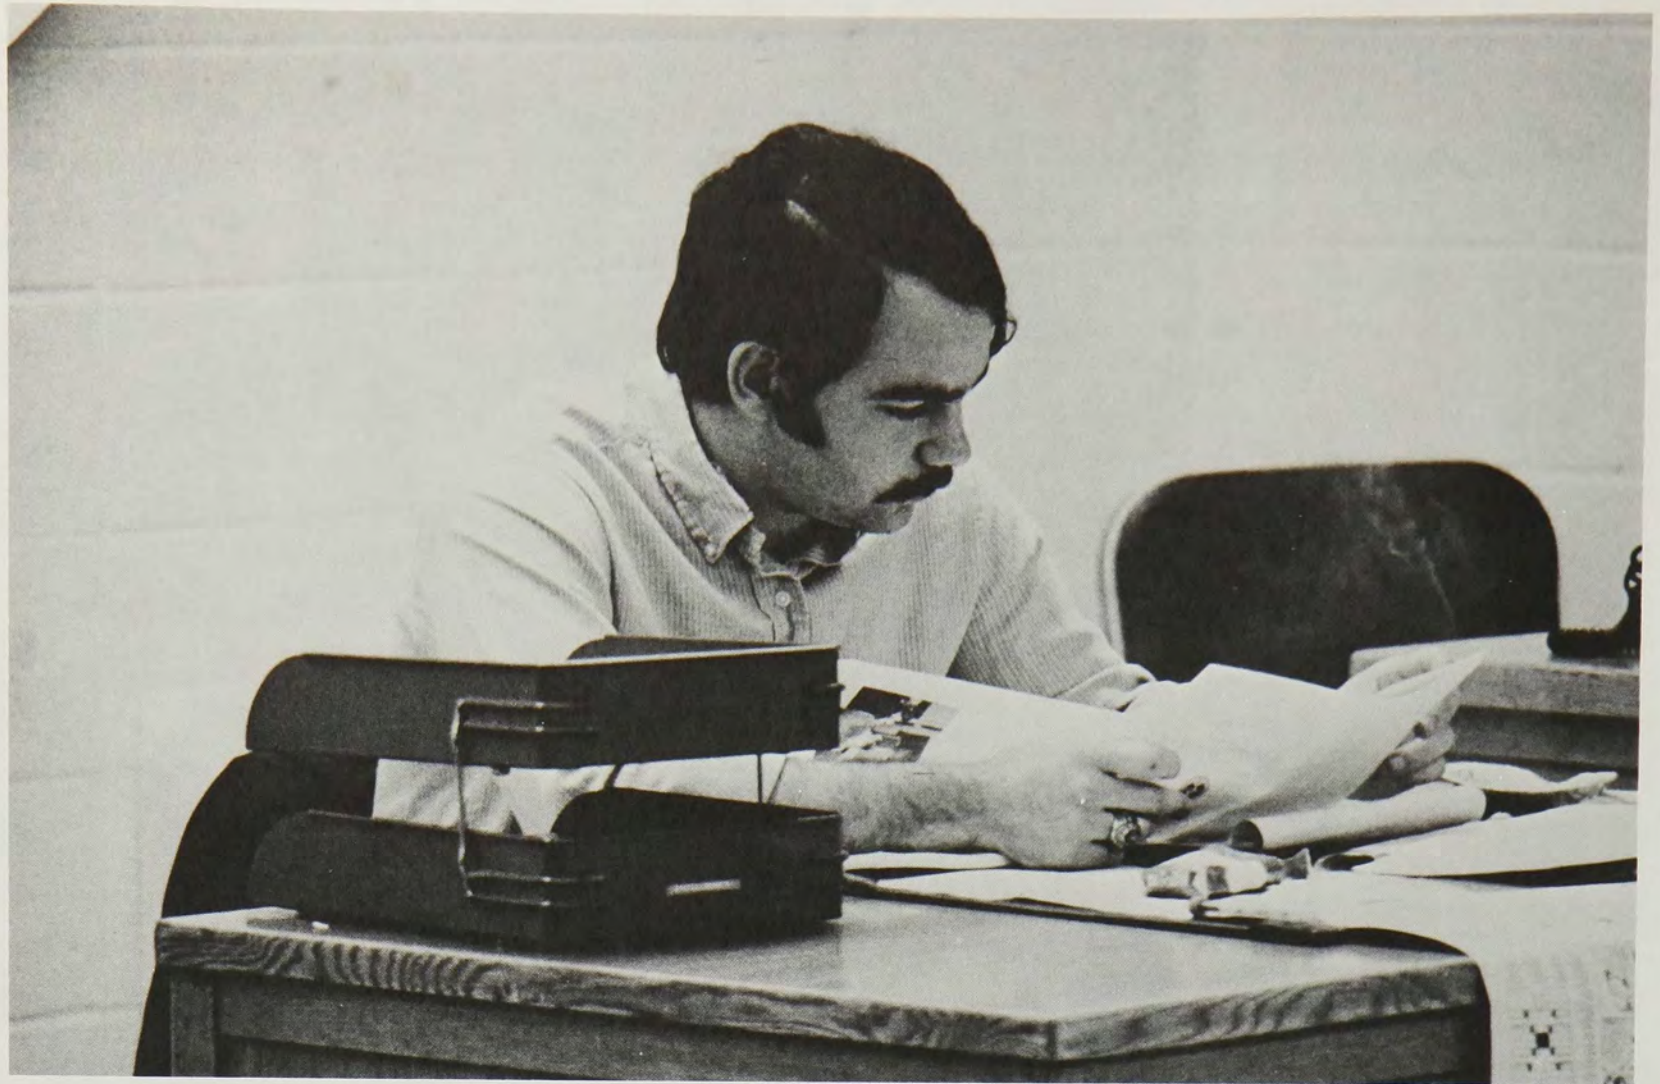

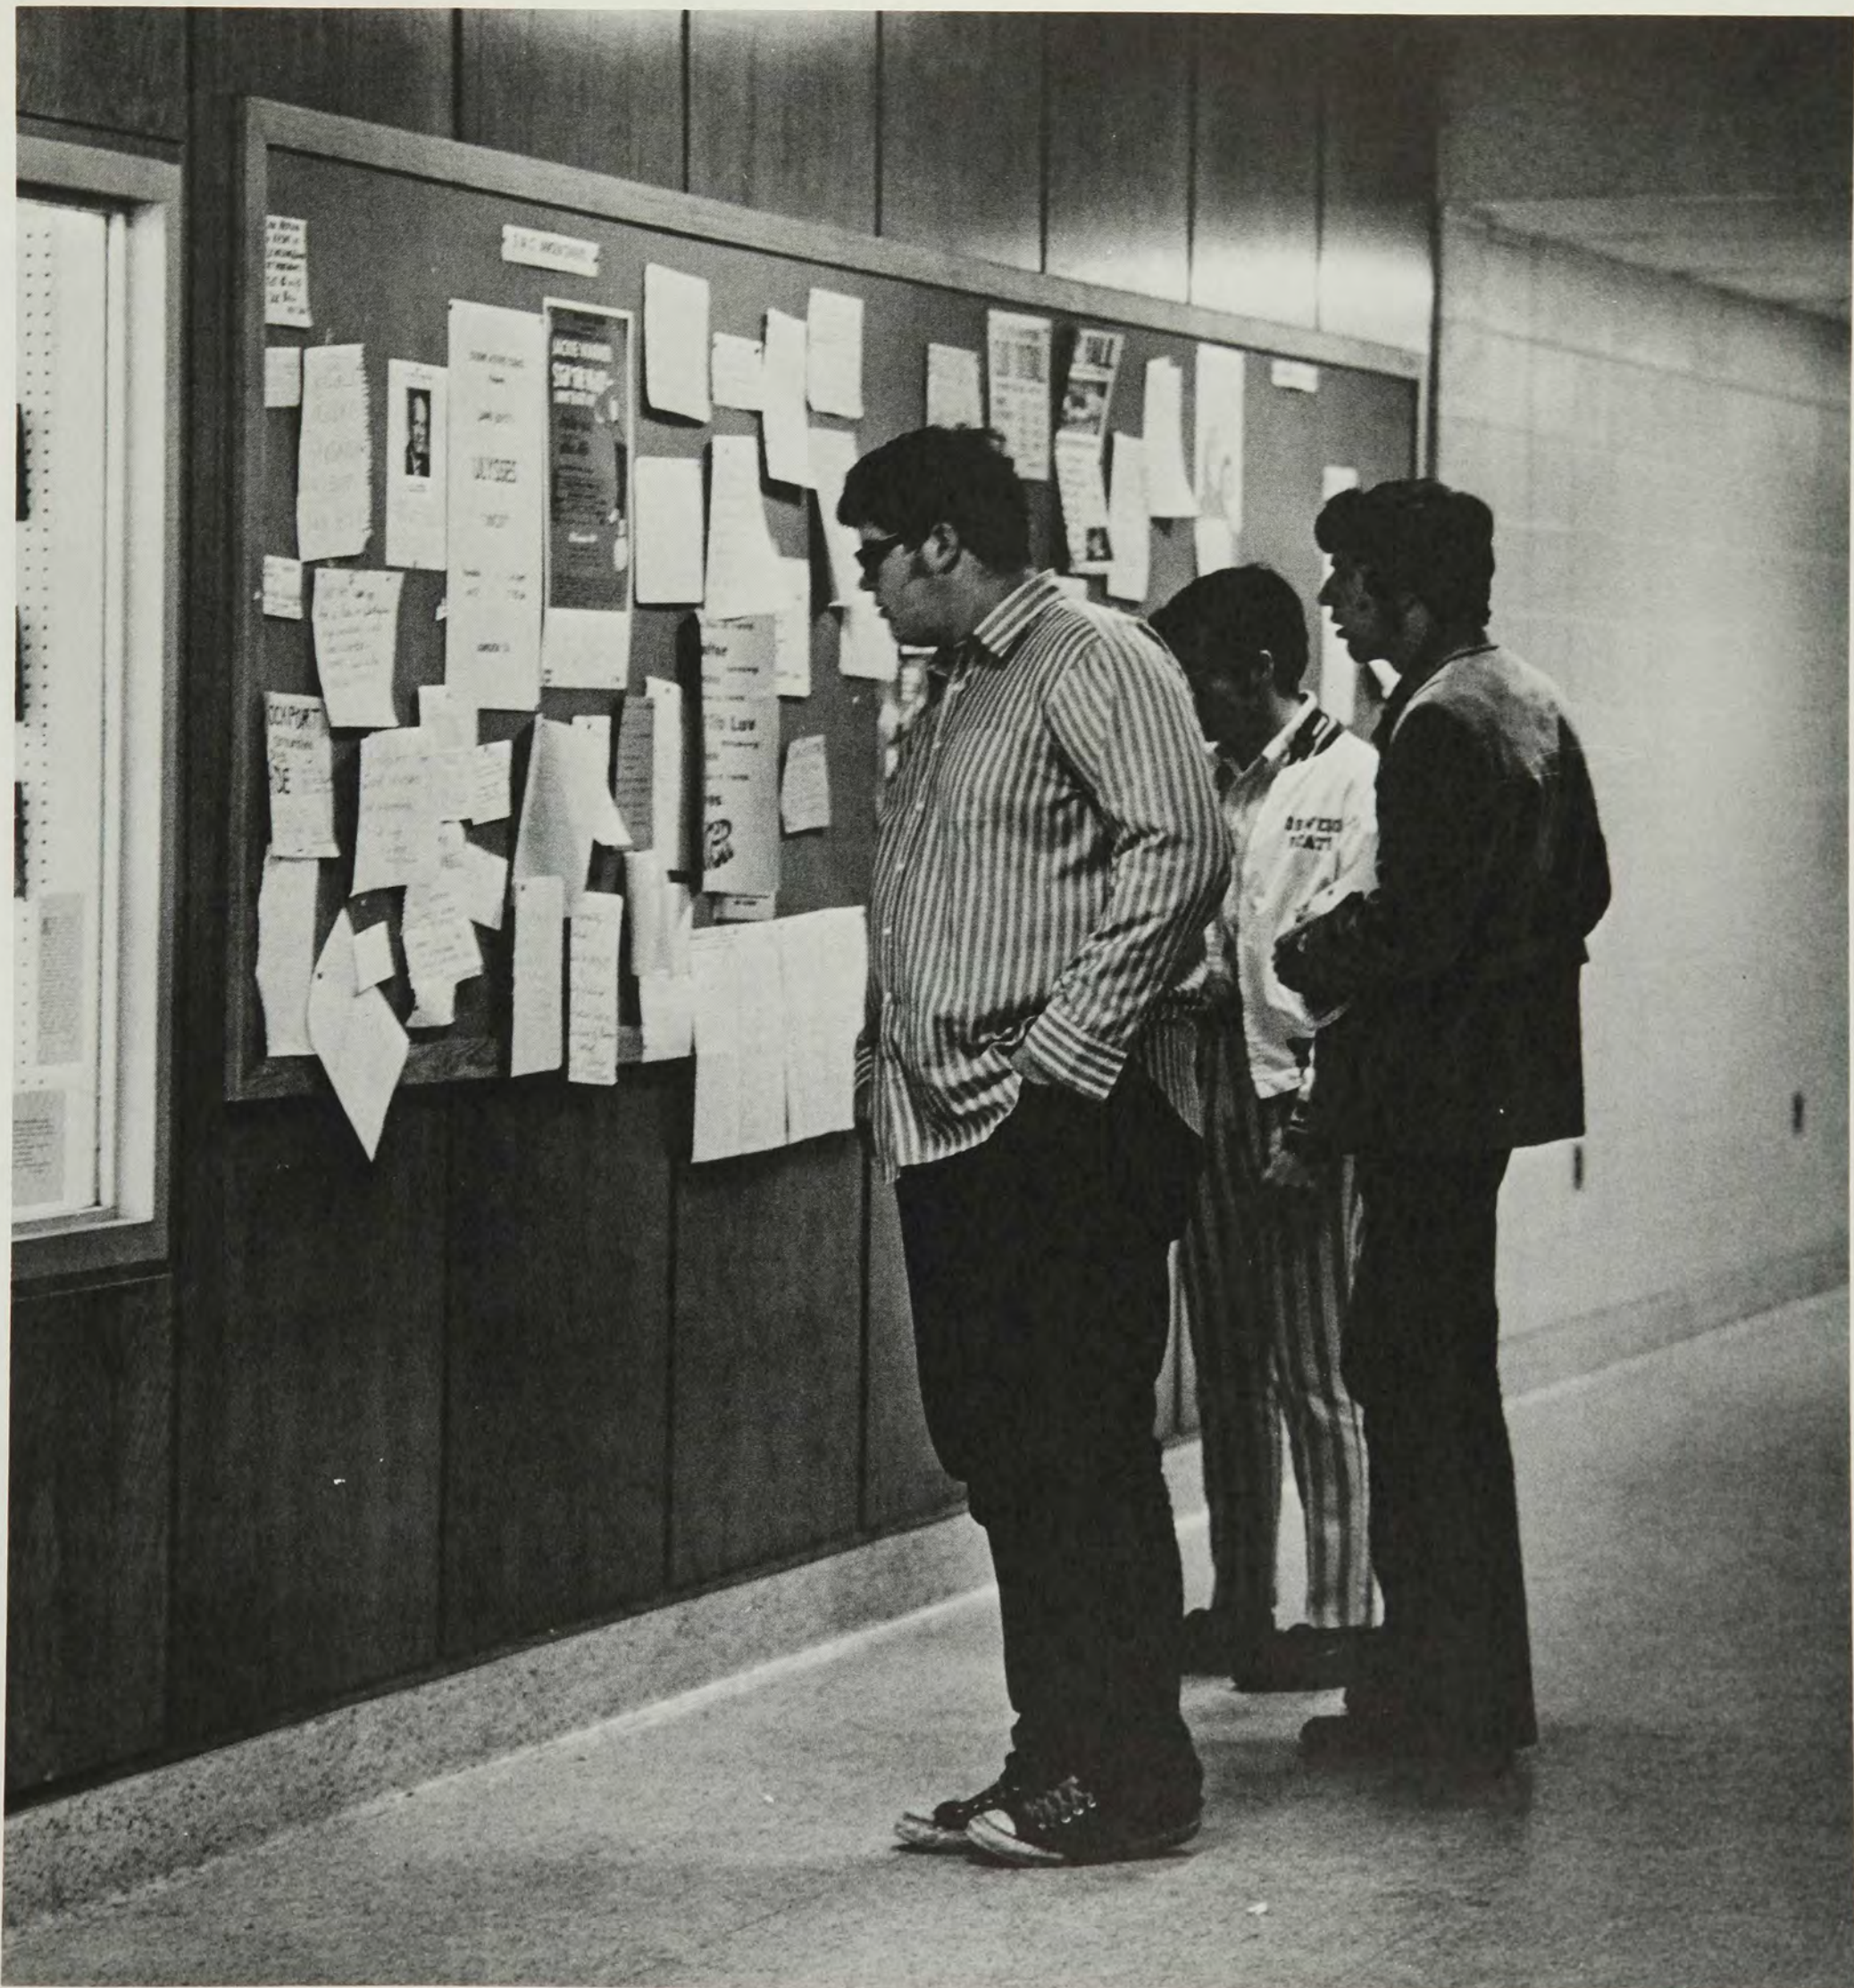

a friend and i
were talking today
about all the interesting people we knew
freshman year.
then we realized they were all gone . . .
did only the
dull people stay
or had we stopped noticing?

to be free
means we accept responsibility for all we are able to touch.

freedom
will not make life lighter to bear.
it makes life heavier —
but heavier with meaning.
