Bonaventure . . . "bona ventura" . . . good trip definitely a trip
though somehow you never quite believe it's completely real.
For too long those mountains seemed like walls that blocked the world, leaving just that damned fog to get lost in,
too often wondering where those trains were going.

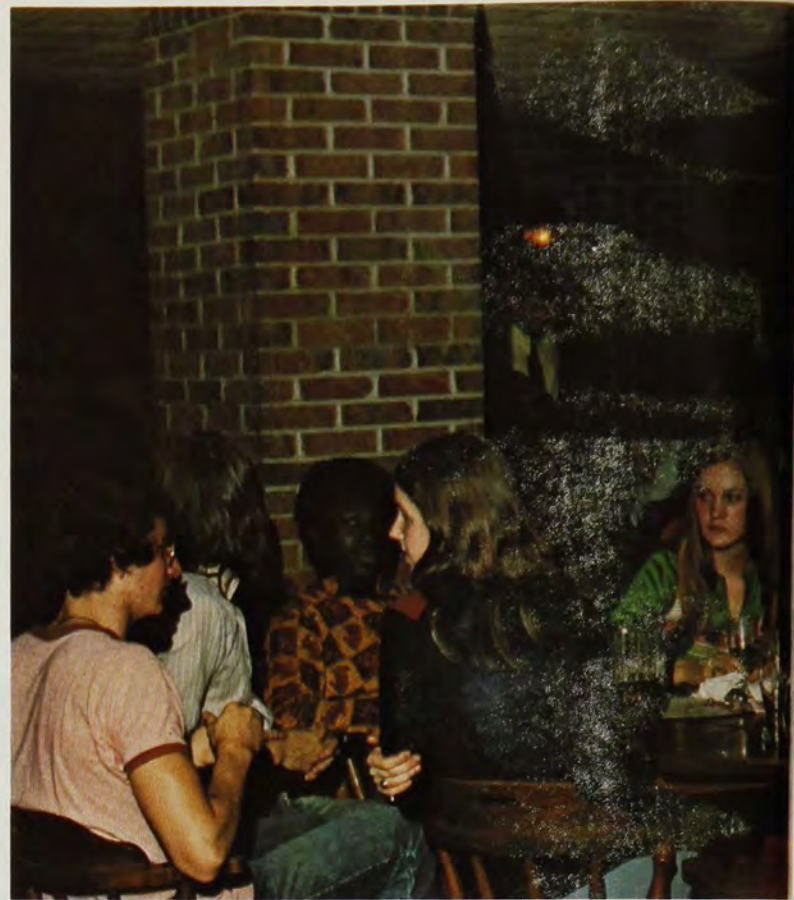

Yet there is something magical about the fog that draws the early morning curtain to each act inside these hills
Its not the magic of a Camelot because its something you learn . . . maybe that those hills are for running and thinking and resting and running again . . . that you are part of those hills
Its a very real magic to be found

There were certainly times when the faces looked all too familiar, when you felt you'd done everything there was to do
at least a hundred times
But necessity was part of it
... being forced to look at yourself,
at what you could do,
finding new ways to see

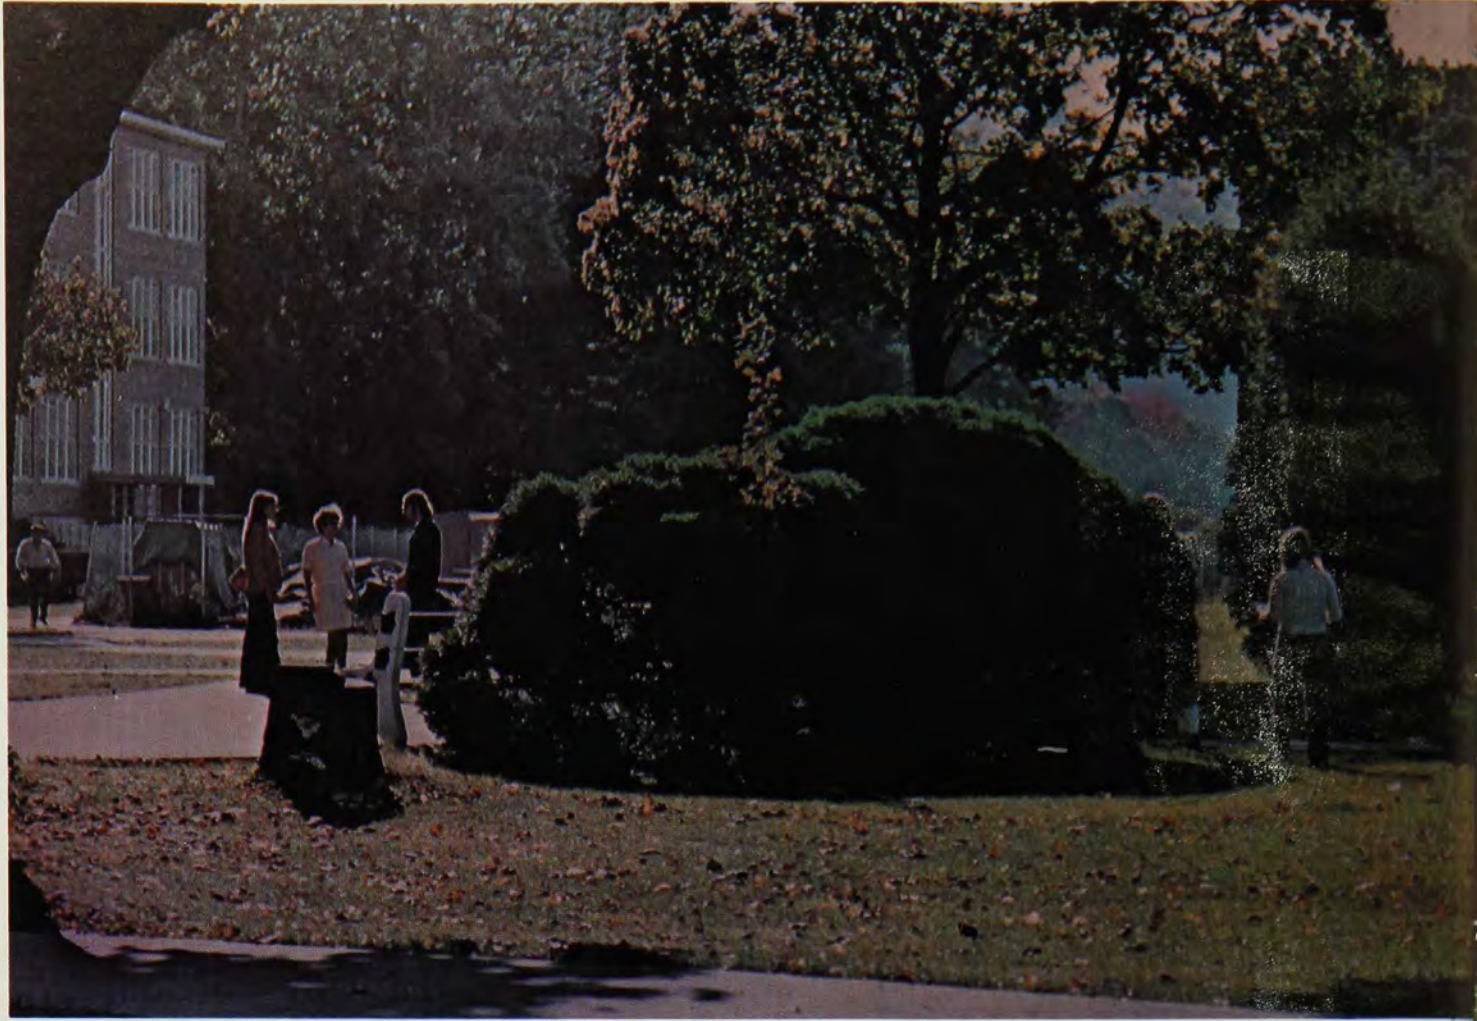

They say things explode here in the spring . . . new life . . .
but the real explosion was in those terrible February nights when maybe for the first time you found new life in one of those all-too-familiar faces or the times when the dining hall became such a spectacular show that the food really didn't matter at all

There were nights, too, when you wondered where all the 'good times' were leading or how good they really had become you had to know there was more
. . . that you saw only a part of the river and the dreams of where it flowed could bring a peace
. . . and kept you going

No, it never seemed quite real but if you knew the magic then you knew that the answers were here in the hallways, the skellar, on Plassman steps, in your room
. . . in these hills

football intramurals

Football was the first intramural sport of the year, but got off to a late start due to a lack of officials. The program was again divided into two leagues, Brown and White. Both leagues, for the first time in years, had "Off Campus" teams, as the Intramural Council voted to omit the annual off-campus draft picks for each floor.

The White League championship was not decided until the last game of the season. Off Campus had compiled an impressive 9-0 record; Shay was 8-0-1 and Fourth Dev West was 8-1. Although Shay still had a make-up game with the Tunas, their big game was against "OC" November 5.

Played on a cold, snowy day, neither team showed a substantial offense; yet, both were brilliant on defense.

Finally, with the score tied 6-6, Shay quarterback Bob Curran hit Tom Toohey for a touchdown with 1:06 left in the game. Shay won 12-6, and went on to tie Fourth West and win the White League title.

Off Campus dominated the Brown League through most of the season, but lost to strong Fourth Dev East, 1st Rob and Shay teams. Fourth East finished first, followed by Shay and Off Campus.

In the exciting, low-scoring playoffs, they beat the three teams they'd lost to, as well as First Rob, and advanced to the Intramural Super Bowl. Their opponents were the undefeated Shay team which was then 11-0-2 on the season.

Appropriately, in the Super Bowl, Off Campus took advantage of a number of early Shay mistakes, and quarterback Art Rooney hit Bob Ganley for a touchdown, just minutes into the contest.

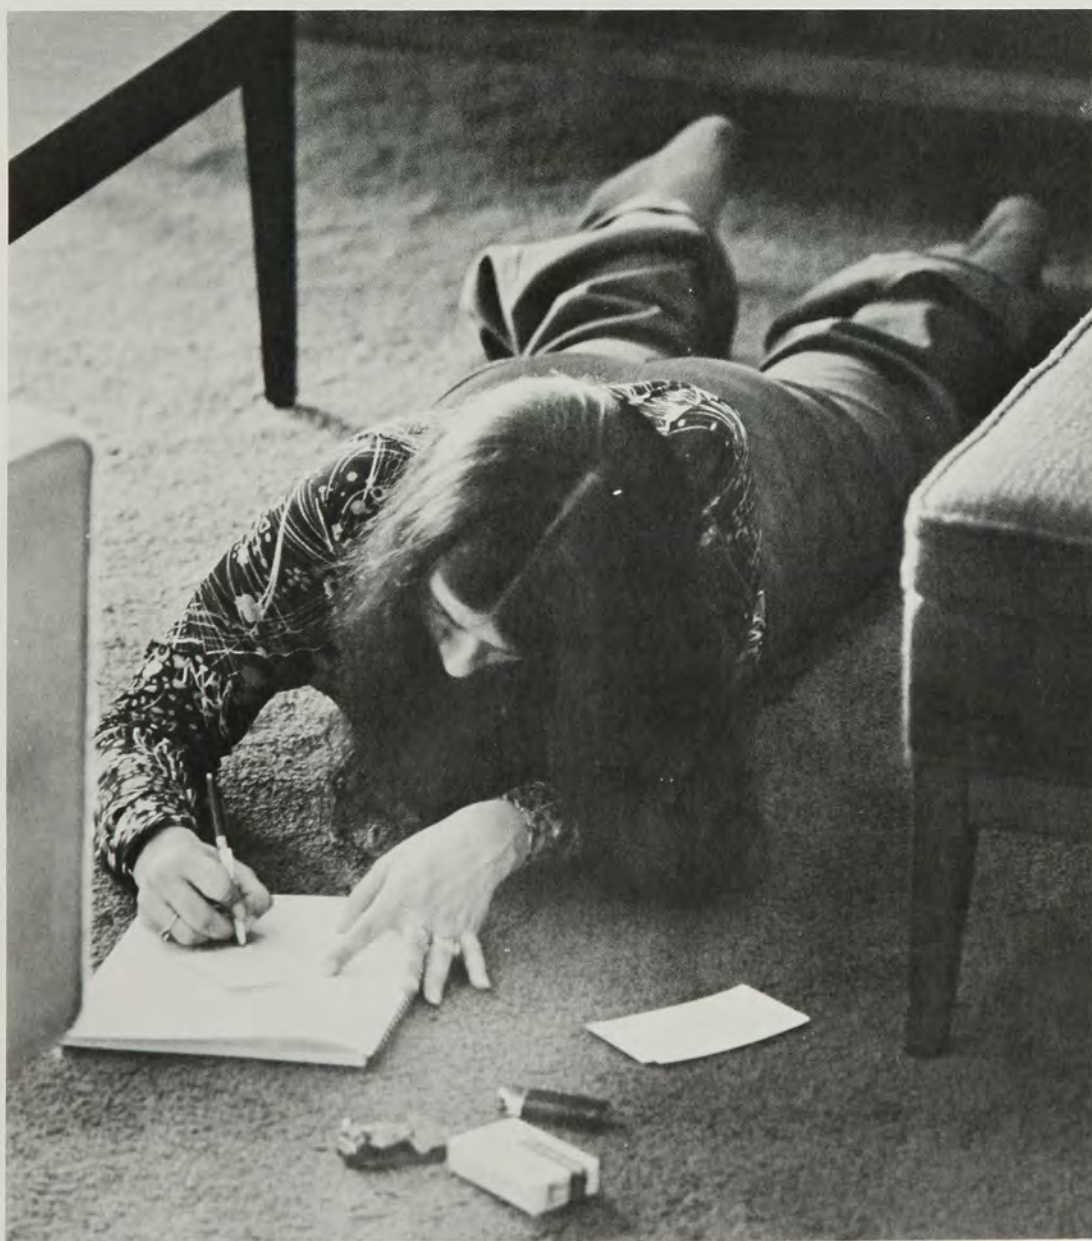

Then, in the second quarter, Bob Lindsey took a screen pass from Rooney and ran 35 yards for the score, making it 13-0 at halftime.

Shay's defense tightened in the second half and its offense started to move as it had all season. Freshman Jim Maroney hit Mike Zebrowski on a 20-yard scoring toss. Bob Curran caught the extra point to put Shay right back in the game 13-7.

Neither team could crack the other's defense after that, and it looked as though the game would not see another score. Zebrowski, however electrified the crowd with a 60-yard punt return for a touchdown with merely 3:20 left in the game. He then made a spectacular grab on the extra point attempt, putting Shay in front, 14-13.

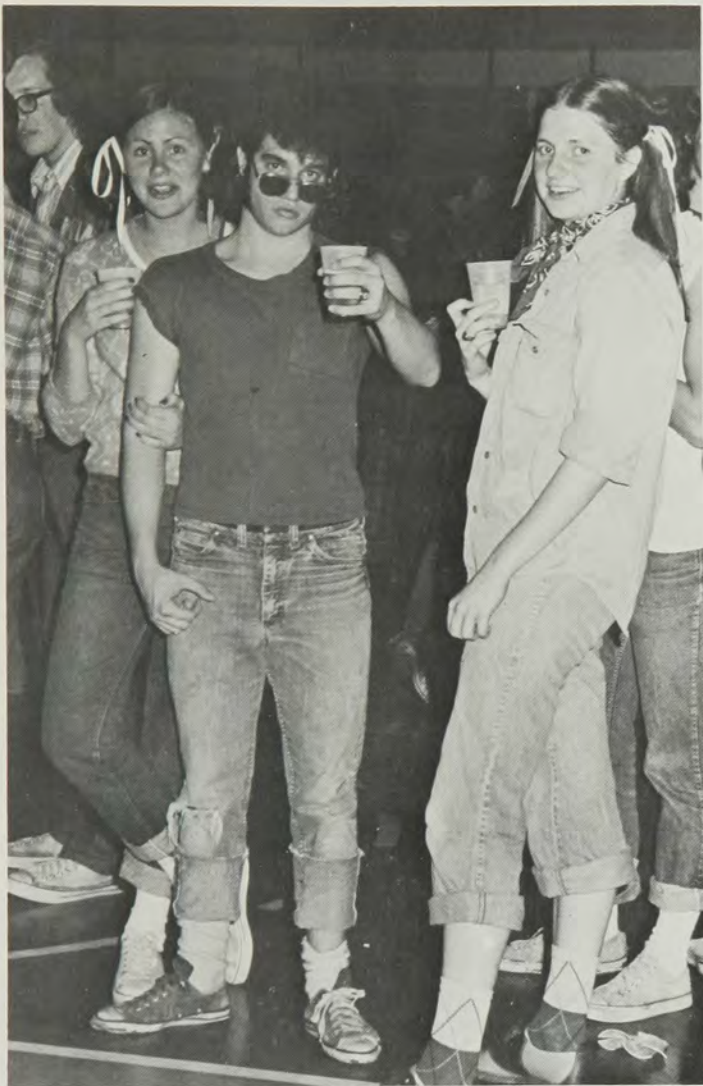

Rooney then calmly marched his Off Campus squad down to the Shay 2-yard line with one minute remaining. On their last down. Rooney hit halfback Rich Nicol in the end zone for the 19-14 victory.

sockey

In order to increase participation, the Intramural Council changed the Intramural Sockey program from the traditional double elimination tournament to a round-robin program.

Whereas previously teams could play as few as two games, the round-robin assured each team of playing six games, win, lose or draw. Another innovation of the 1973 Sockey season was abolition of the "five penalty kicks" awarded each team last year to break tie games. This year, ties were ties.

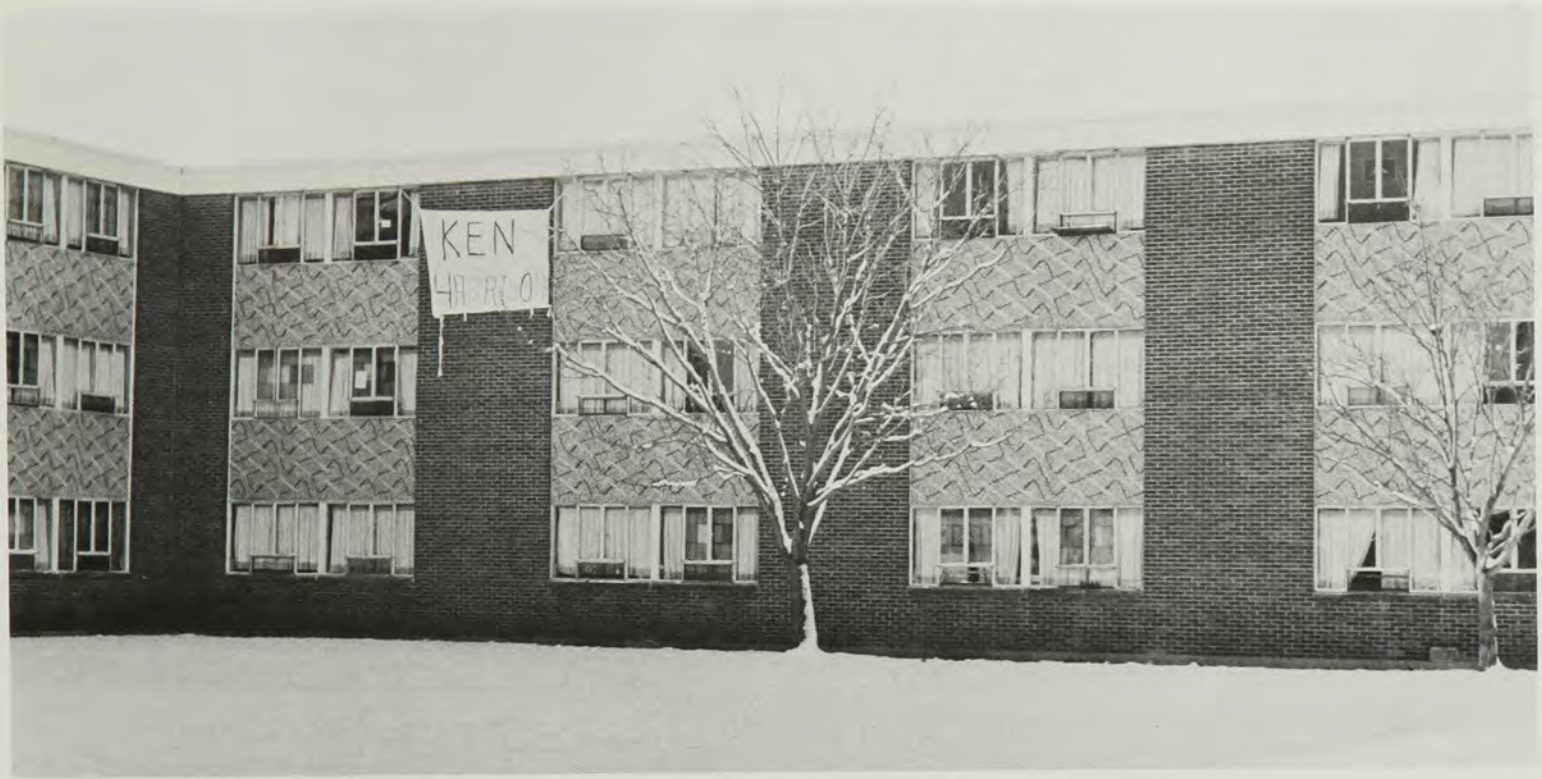

The season finished with four powerful teams tied for first place; First Dev, Second Dev, Third Dev West, and First Rob. All four teams compiled impressive 4-1-1 records to share the title.

basketball

The St. Bonaventure University's basketball 1973-74 unofficially began when former Bona star, and freshman coach, Jim Satalin took the head coaching position. Satalin replaced Larry Weise, who had led the Bonnies for thirteen years.

Before the season started, Satalin was optimistic considering the fact that he would have six experienced varsity players returning and a highly heralded freshman star named Essie Hollis.

Some fans predicted the Bonnies would lose as few as two or three games in their 26-game season. Others figured their record would be closer to the 13-13 campaign of 1972-73.

Starting senior captain Glenn Price, juniors Bill Moore and Steve Hocker and sophomore varsity veterans Tim Flanagan and Bob Rozyczko, the Brown Indians edged Illinois Wesleyan, 83-75 in the season opener, before 5,125 fans in the University Center.

maryann correnti, cheerleading squad captain

The Bonnies then revenged last year's double over-time loss to Georgetown with 75-68 win in the UC. Against Loyola of Baltimore three nights later, Glenn Price dominated the boards, grabbing a career high 21 rebounds as the Bonnies won 96-82.

With hopes of going to Los Angeles for the UCLA game undefeated, the Brown Indians reeled off three straight victories; St. Francis, NY (95-84), Xavier (93-67), and Baltimore (92-67).

Before 12,283 fans in the Pauley Pavilion in Los Angeles the UCLA Bruins trampled the Bonnies 111-59 in what would later prove to be their only substantial loss of the season. Again Price was the Bonnies only real bright spot as he netted a game high of 21 points.

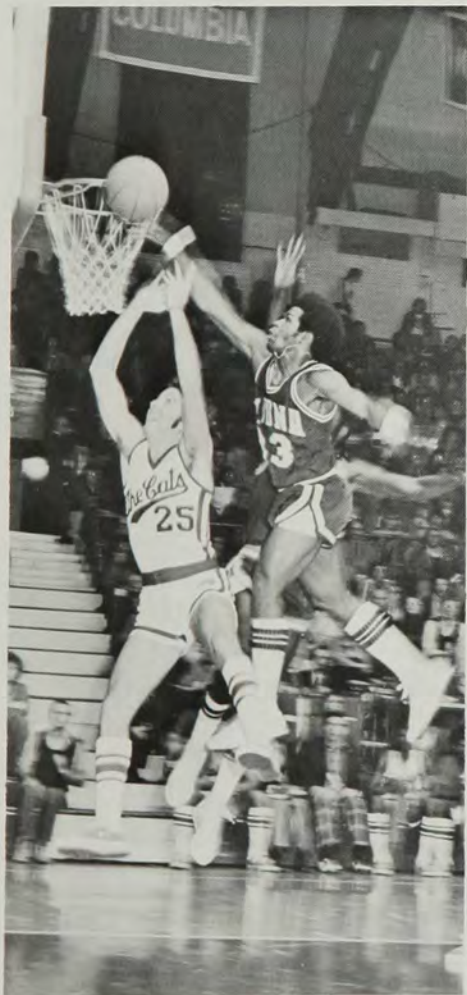

The trouncing by UCLA apparently took the heart out of the Bonnies, however, and they lost to a strong Cincinnati team, 71-65, in the opening round of the Quaker City Tournament in Philadelphia. In the next two rounds, however, the Bonnies toughened, beating Harvard, 70-69 and Pennsylvania, 77-70 to finish fifth in the tourney.

Things were looking good for the second half of the season when the Bonnies walloped Baldwin Wallace 122-72 to bring their record to an impressive 9-2. It was Price who led all scorers in that game with 27 points.

Then, before 10,000 fans in Virginia Tech., the Indians were nipped 77-75, as Price netted 26. Thomas More was the Bonnies' next victim, taking a 118-92 beating. But the Bonnies lost on a last second basket to DePaul, 79-77 in the UC.

Without the services of injured center Lionel Billingly, Duquesne could not handle Price (23 points), and the Bonnies won 84-71. It was the second half play of Flanagan and Hollis that insured the win.

The First Little Three game of the season was next, but the nations leading scorer, Canisius' Larry Fogle, led the Griffins to a 69-64 win. Price had 19 points while Hollis and Rozyczki poured in 16 and 14 points respectively.

Following the Canisius loss, Satalin decided to make some changes in the starting lineup in hopes of finding the right combination at guard. He inserted Howie Harrison and Pat Oliveto and the Bonnies whipped Belmont Abbey 81-70, as Essie Hollis poured in a career high 30 points.

In boosting their record 13-5, the Bonnies played perhaps one of their best games of the season at Villanova. Led by the offensive heroics of Price and Moore, Bonaventure tied the Wildcats in the last few seconds sending the affair into overtime. This time Rozyczko hit a clutch 15-footer at the buzzer sending it into second overtime period. Steve Hocker then "did it all", scoring all eight Bona points to the 66-64 triumph.

The Bonnies then beat Detroit its second time in a row with a 64-61 win. Again, it was the clutch shooting of Hocker, who hit both ends of a one-and-one with 33 seconds left, and a pair of clutch free throws by Price that capped the victory.

With post-season tourney hopes lurking ahead, the Bonnies needed a victory over nationally ranked Providence. An inspired Bonnie team outplayed the Friars for all but four minutes and were edged 74-69. It was the Friar's All-American Marvin Barnes (29) that led the Providence team, although Price turned in another excellent performance, out rebounding Barnes and scoring 20 points.

The Niagara game three days later was practically a carbon copy of the Providence game. Before 5,879 fans and the ECAC regional television audience, the Purple Eagles nipped the Bonnies on a last second tip-in by junior reserve Dave Tita. Bonaventure led for most of the contest and when Price hit two free throws with 2:40 seconds left, the Bonnies led by nine, 63-54. Unfortunately, that was the last Bona tally. Niagara ran off ten consecutive points to win the thriller, 64-63.

Price and Hollis combined for 56 points (both going 13-29 from the field) and 35 rebounds in an 84-77 win over Long Island University. Against Fairfield University earlier in the week, the Stags won 82-75, despite impressive performances by Price (26 points), Harrison (16), Hollis (15), and Moore (12).

With wins over Canisius, Niagara and Rutgers, Bonaventure would still be prime position for an N.I.T. bid. In a thriller in the UC, before nearly 6,000 fans, the Bonnies avenged their earlier setback and toppled Canisius, 85-82. This time, it was the combination of roommates Essie Hollis and Howie Harrison that killed the Griffis. Harrison scored inside all night, while Hollis scored from the outside all night, as both netted 26 points. For Harrison, it was a career high and probably his best game ever. Canisius led 82-81 with 1:04 left, but Price hit two free throws and Hocker stole a pass, before Moore hit both one-and-one shots to win it.

Though not as close a game, the game against Niagara in the new Niagara Falls Convention Center was every bit as exciting for Bonnie fans. Bonaventure won 80-71 in an excellent team effort, but the highlight of the game was 6'9" Capt. Glenn Price. It was his last Little Three game and he exited in style. Glenn hit 12 of 22 from the floor, scored a game high 27 points and blocked numerous Niagara shots. As Coach Satalin later commented, "It was a great way for Glenn to end his Little Three career. There are few better than him."

Unfortunately, Phil Sellers and company ended the Bonnies' 1973-74 season with a 90-85 Rutgers victory. In a commendable effort, Rozyczko, Price and Harrison led the Bonnies with 22, 21, and 19 points respectively. It was a career high for Rozyczko, who will be playing for two more years.

Promotional bumper stickers saying, "The Price is Right" before the season were ironically accurate. Glenn moved from 10th place to 4th place in all-time Bonaventure scoring. He ended his Bonaventure career with 1,577 points and was 13th in the nation in rebounding, averaging almost 15 per game. He carried the Bonnies.

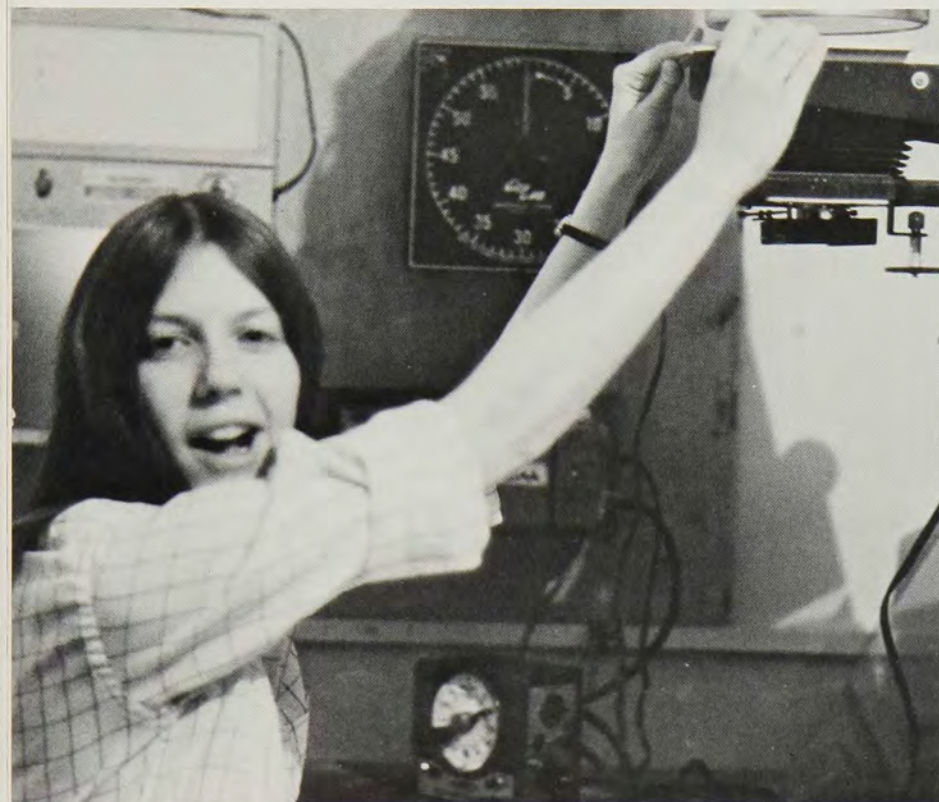

If the season was a disappointment, it was so for one reason only: The Bonnies lost eight games by a total of only 30 points. They could have easily have won any and all of those eight. The UCLA affair was the only "clear cut" defeat.

Losing eight experienced swimmers, including an All-American, to graduation would cripple if not destroy many top collegiate swim teams. Yet, Coach John Skehan battled fate, and led the 1973-74 Bonaventure Swim Team to a 7-4 record.

Taking over where Rich Bohan, Mark Lutterbein and company left off, Duffy Hickey and sophomore John Closs paced the Bonnies to the seven victory season they had enjoyed the previous year.

The swimmers opened the 1973-74 campaign with a dismal 13th place finish in the Penn State Relays and a loss to Hamilton College. They came back, however, to win three meets in a row: R.P.I., University of Buffalo and Hobart College.

A loss to perennial powerhouse St. John's University, 78-35, inspired the Bonnies for what proved to be the highlight of their season.

Only Duffy Hickey's outstanding individual performance prevented an uneventful shellacking at arch rival Notre Dame University. Hickey grabbed three firsts, winning the 200-yard breaststroke, despite the 76-37 defeat.

Against R.I.T. February 15, the relay team of Hickey, Closs, Peter Cavanaugh and freshman Paul Hoffman, won the last event to win the meet 60-53. A 64-49 victory over University of Rochester and an 81-32 loss to Colgate, another powerhouse, closed out the 1973-74 regular season for the Bonnies.

Under the leadership of Coach Dr. Justin Diehl, the Girls' Swim Team compiled an impressive 11-1 record for the 1973-74 season. The season started on an excellent note for the girls at the Ithaca College Relays. The Bona mermaids captured one first place, a third, a fourth and two seventh place finishes, in that December 1 meet.

Despite the eleven wins, many of the meets were extremely close. Against Geneseo State, the Bona girls won the meet in the last event with the Relay team of Horton, Lynes, Keenan, and Diehl. The score was 69-58.

The same thing happened against Elmira in a home meet. It was the same relay team which won the final event to win the meet 66-56. This had to be the "highlight" of the season, considering that Elmira beat the Bonnies in a 1972-73 meet by 63 points.

Unfortunately, the Girls' team was unable to compete in the States and/or Eastern Championships. Officials insisted that the team must be a member of the New York State Swimming Association in order to compete. 1973-74 was only the second year of organized competition for the girls and Coach Diehl has submitted an application to the New York State Association, insuring the chance for post-season competition for the girls next year.
