1995 Campus At A Glance...

Looking Back

It seems as though it was just yesterday we arrived at St. Bonaventure as freshmen, unsure of what to expect. There were so many obstacles to overcome; new friends to be made and classes to conquer.

But, somehow, all of the adjusting wasn't as hard we thought. We made our friends and passed our classes. And now here we are, together, as the class of 1995.

As we enter the next stage of our lives we will carry with us the memories of St. Bonaventure. The friends that we have made, and the times we have shared will remain with us always.

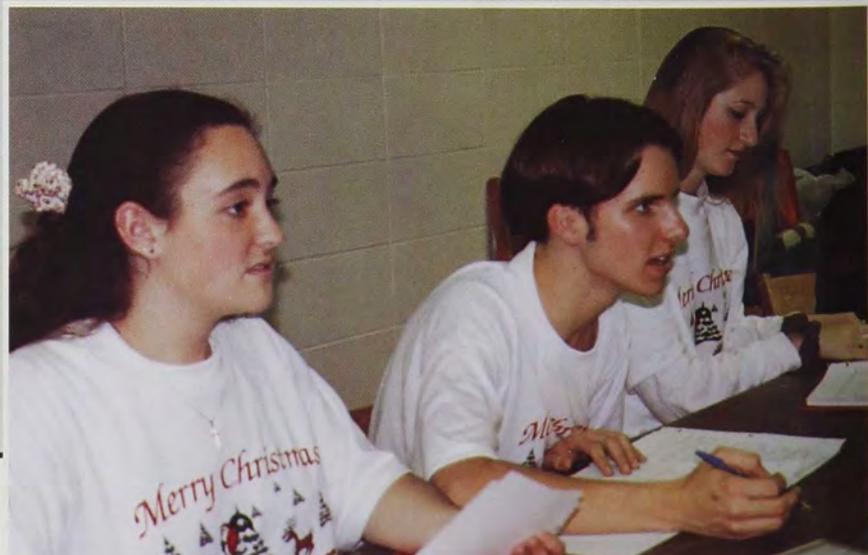

MCMM

Tis the season. As the Christmas season draws near at St. Bonaventure so does the anticipation of MCMM or the Merry Christmas Melody Marathon.

Each year the program works to raise money for less fortunate children in the community.

The event begins with a date auction. Those who wish to be on the auction block try to convince buyers that they are the best buy. All of the proceeds are to benefit the kids, of course.

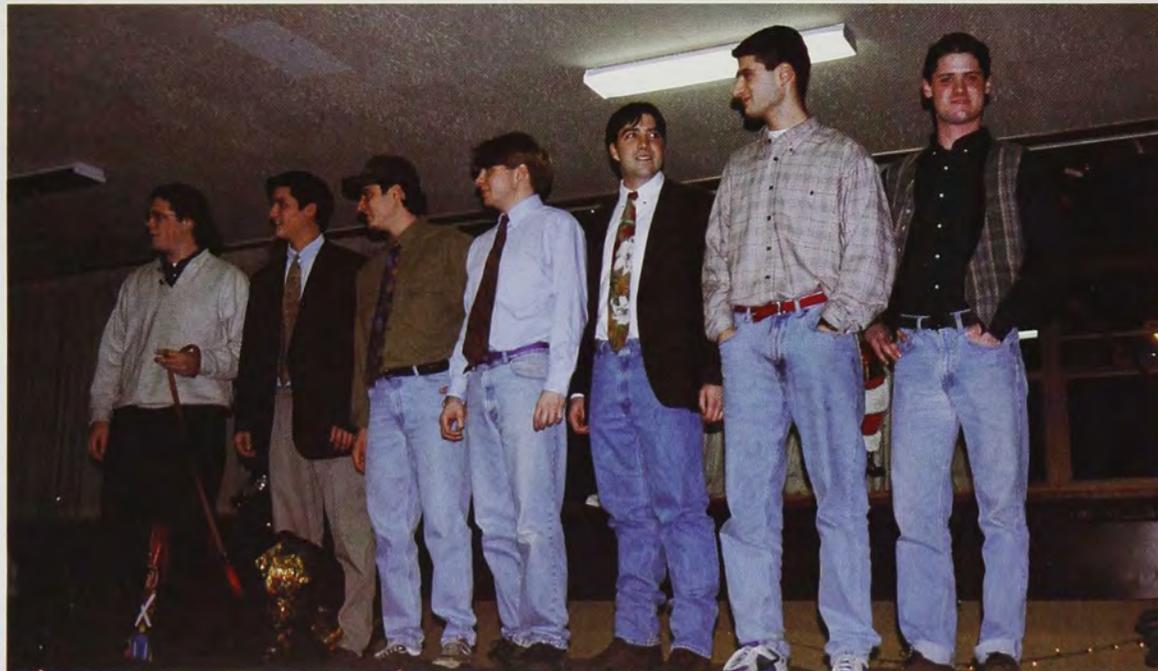

Students and their belongings are kidnapped and held for ransom. Others are dared to do embarrassing things.

All the while WSBU, FM, keeps the community informed on the events and broadcasts from downtown Allegany playing requests for $1 donations.

This fundraiser continues to be a success year after year and symbolizes the caring spirit of St. Bonaventure University.

STUDENT LIFE

"The Mountain"

Mt. Irenaeus

Mt. Irenaeus is a 228 acre, heavily wooded farm in the foothills of the Allegany Mountains. The main house is a gathering place for meals and there are three cabins off in the woods, a respectable distance from the main house. Self-sufficiency in the context of the community is encouraged here.

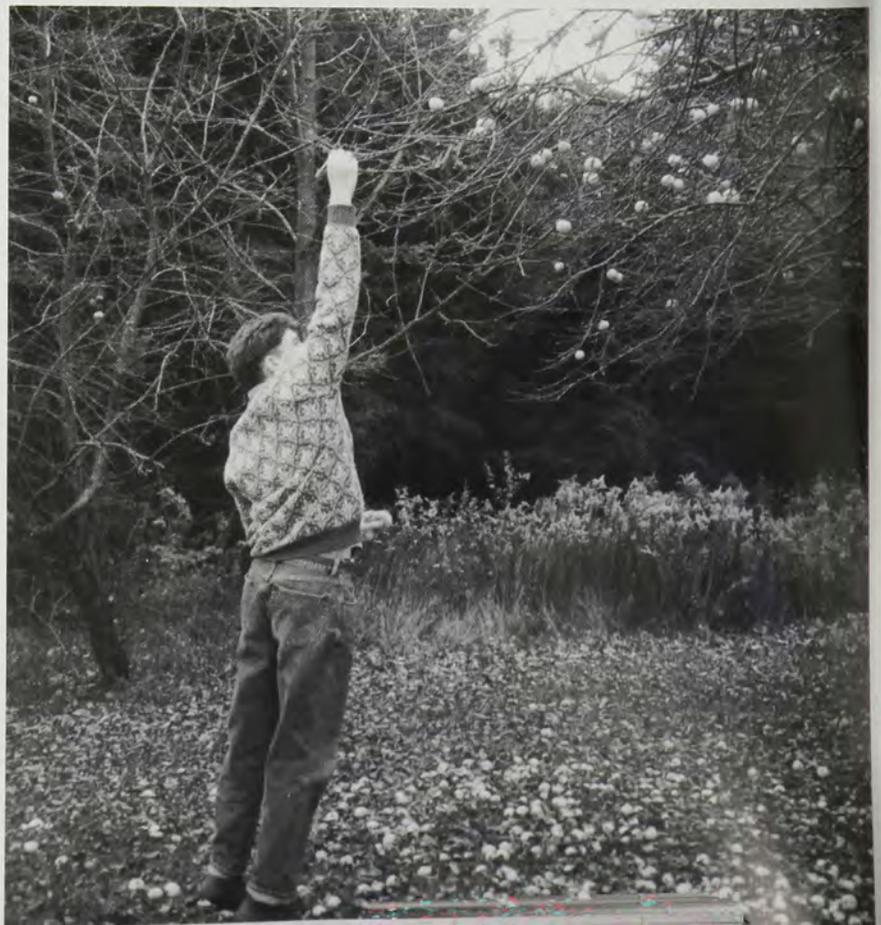

The chapel was framed in one weekend by a group of people who wanted to contribute their energy by helping to build a communal house of worship.

Many of the programs are inspired by the thoughts and actions of St. Francis of Assisi, who often went to the woods and mountains with his early followers to seek a clearer vision of life.

There is much to be done at this retreat haven, and help is always appreciated but never required. The earnest hope of the Franciscans at Mt. Irenaeus is that people will come to enjoy the serenity and peace that is there, and thus find it within themselves.

Men's Soccer

Fighting For Respect

The St. Bonaventure men's soccer team has had it tough as of late. They have the talent, but they had to endure another hard season. Although they kept it close in many of their games this year, they finished with a record of 2-17 overall (1-6 in the Atlantic 10).

Their record, however, wasn't their biggest loss. That came when George Perry III, the men's soccer coach for a number of years, left St. Bonaventure at the end of the men's fall season.

Additionally, the men's soccer team will have to fill the shoes of four seniors, including Justin Bigham, Mike Pierson, Dan Hartigan and Erik Swanson.

The Bona booters have many obstacles to overcome before taking the field again next season, but they have the drive to make it happen.

It's all in the wrist: A Bona booter demonstrates the art of the toss.

Bona's Lady Booters Give It Their All

The St. Bonaventure women's soccer team didn't match their record of last year, but they did finish with a 7-9 overall record (0-5 in the Atlantic 10). Wins included thrillers against Buffalo, Canisius and Fordham and blowouts over Niagara, St. Francis (PA) and Robert Morris.

Freshman forward Melanie Heeder led the team in scoring this season with 10 goals (22 points), followed by freshman forward Jo Storms with seven (20 points) and junior Erin Ferguson with five (18 points).

The Lady Bonnies should be a serious contender next year, for the team didn't lose any seniors this season.

It's all in the timing: Each Bona cheerleader works together to create a perfect act.

Caught in the act: The St. Bonaventure University cheerleaders finish off a halftime routine.

Cheerleaders: Whooping it Up!

The basketball players weren't the only ones practicing their high-flying tactics. The St. Bonaventure University cheerleaders took advantage of the hype of the 75th anniversary season, and passed with flying colors.

Although their space was limited this year with the addition of courtside seats, these ladies thrilled audiences with their dance routines, acrobatics and intricate pyramids.

In every game, the cheerleaders represented the spirit and pride that St. Bonaventure possesses. Although three of them will be leaving this year, the cheerleaders will be practicing for bigger and better routines in the future.

Every once in a while, you need reinforcement during a drill.

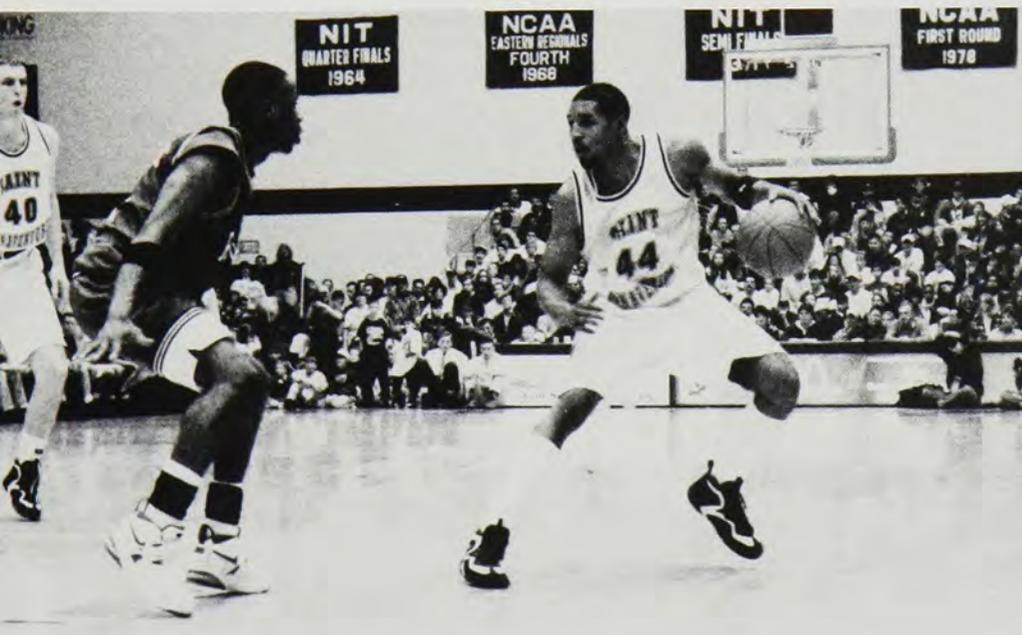

Getting the crowds into the game is only one aspect of cheerleading. The ladies were also involved in several promos, including the T-shirt giveaway during each game.

Several cheerleaders were honored during the Rutgers game as a tribute to all their hard work and dedication.

Bonnies great Bob Lanier makes his way onto the court to a standing ovation as St. Bonaventure honored 45 players and coaches during the 75th anniversary game against Duquesne.

The Bonnies' team unity was a big part of their spectacular season.

Senior David Vanterpool's quick agility catapulted him to the top of the scoring list for the Bonnies.

Senior Nii-Nelson Richards challenges his opponent. Richards' dazzling 3-point shooting assaulted opponents throughout the season.

Senior cheerleaders, players, managers and their parents were honored before the last home game against Rutgers.

Doing what she does best: Senior Suzie Dailer launches a 3-pointer. Suzie won the NCAA 3-Point Championship in Seattle during the Final Four in April.

Men's and Women's Basketball

A Year To Cherish

The 1994-95 basketball season is one that will be remembered in years to come. It was the year that marked two anniversaries: the 75th anniversary of St. Bonaventure men's basketball and the 25th anniversary of the Bonnies' 1970 National Invitational Tournament championship team (the Bonnies made the latter anniversary even more special by qualifying for the 1995 NIT.) It was a year that the Bonnies would take the number one team in the nation to overtime, and a year that past Bonnies greats would be honored.

It was a year in which the women's team gained the respect it deserved. And, it was a year that the rest of the nation learned something that was known at St. Bonaventure for four years: Suzie Dailer is a master at the 3-point shot.

Shandue McNeil proved to be the Bonnies' all-around player this season. Here, he splits two defenders during a lay-up attempt.

A Dream Team Helps The Bonnies Make A Dream Season

Fortunately, the first three games of the season were no indication of the rest of the season for the St. Bonaventure men's basketball team.

The drive and the play were there. After the 0-3 start the Bonnies began to electrify. Their proudest moment was Jan. 10, 1995, when the Bonnies took the University of Massachusetts, the number one team in the nation, into overtime. It was the beginning of a glorious season of Bonnies Basketball.

All year the Bonnies proved the critics wrong as the gathered wins against Atlantic 10 rivals West Virginia, Duquesne, Rhode Island and Temple (another thriller that ended in victory.)

In the end the teams hard work and dedication landed them in the NIT Tournament for the first time since 1993.

This was certainly a season to remember.

Post-Season Dreams Become

An NIT Reality

It was March of 1995. The Madness was beginning to sweep the nation, and a new craze was hitting St. Bonaventure's campus.

The Bonnies had just finished one of their best seasons in years. But it wasn't over yet.

The St. Bonaventure men's basketball team would do something it has't done since 1983: It qualified for the 1995 National Invitational Tournament. Additionally, the first game against Southern Mississippi was played at the Reilly Center in front of a standing room only crowd.

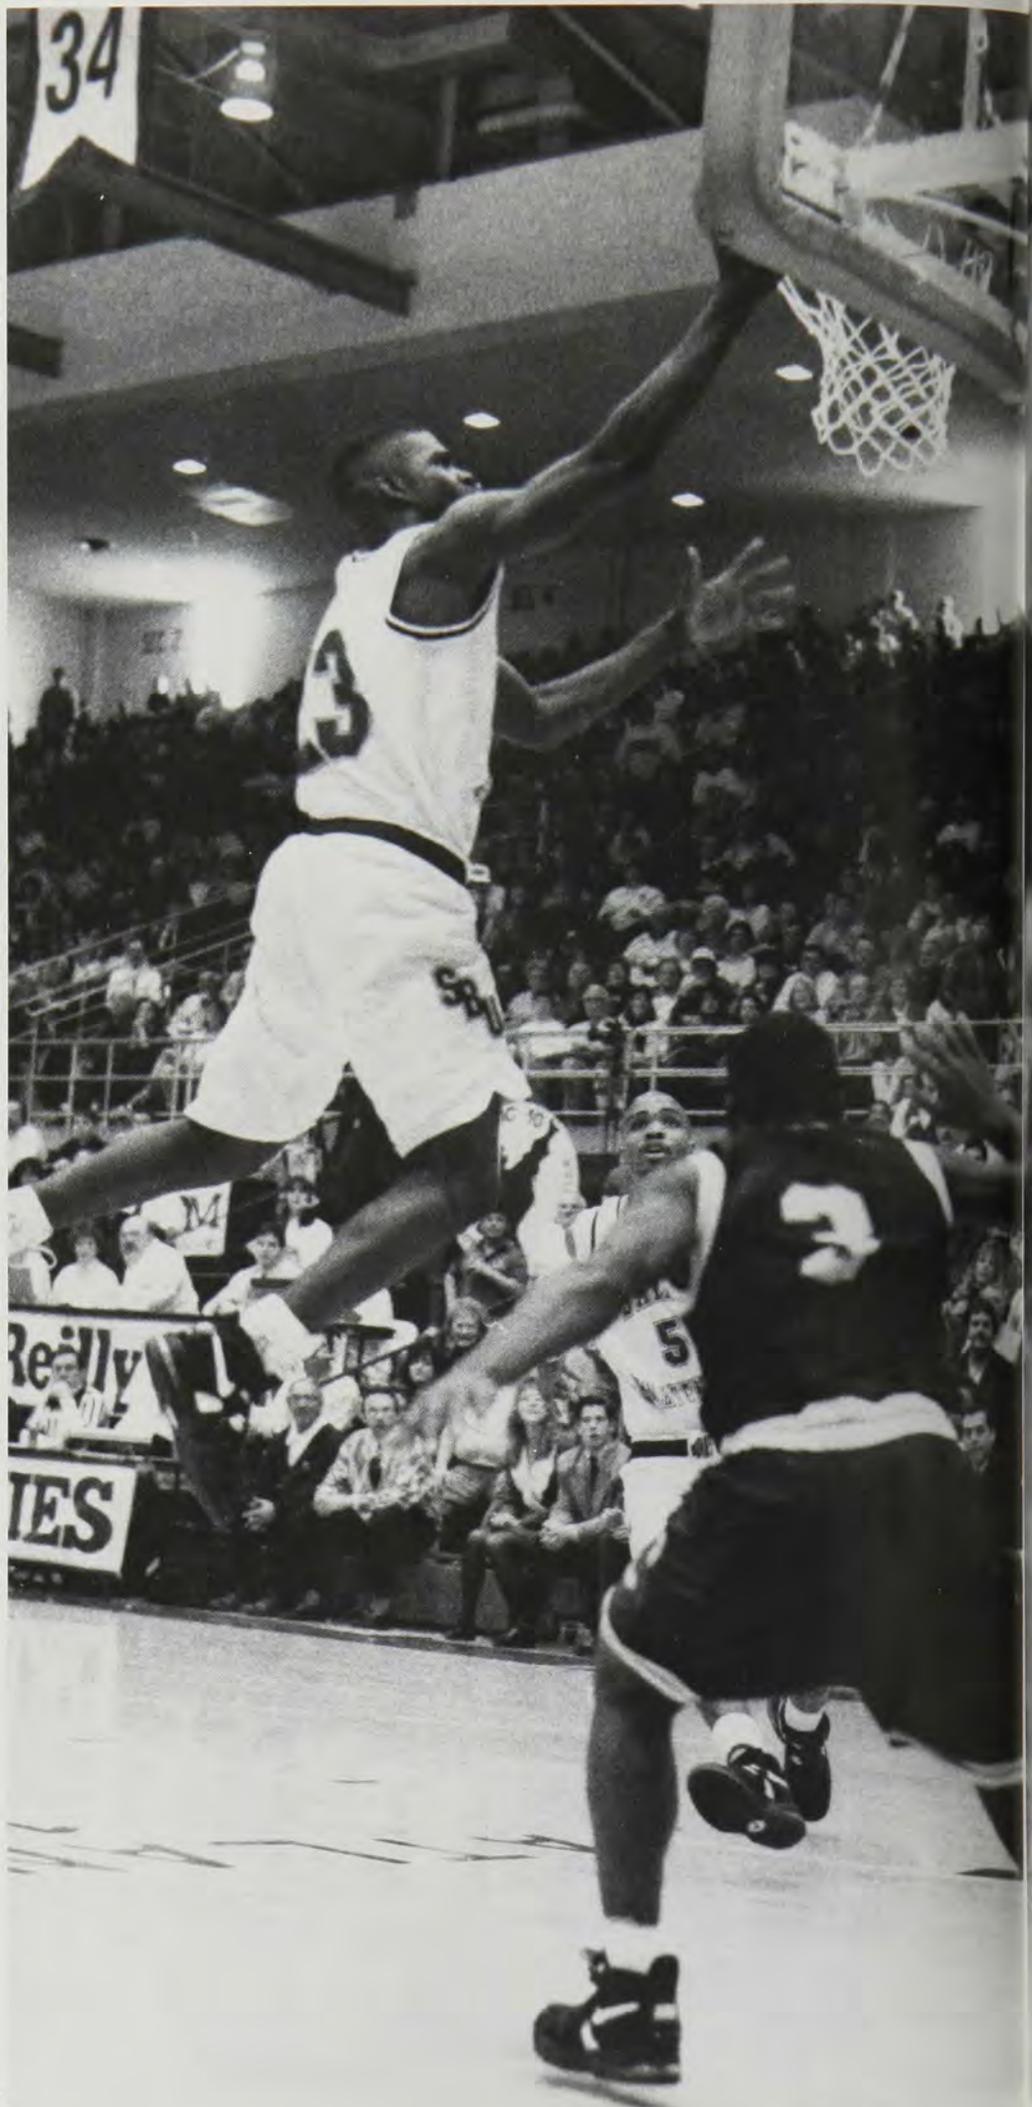

The mood was electrifying as the Bonnies played a crowd-pleaser from the start. The players could do no wrong, as shot after shot fell with remarkable accuracy.

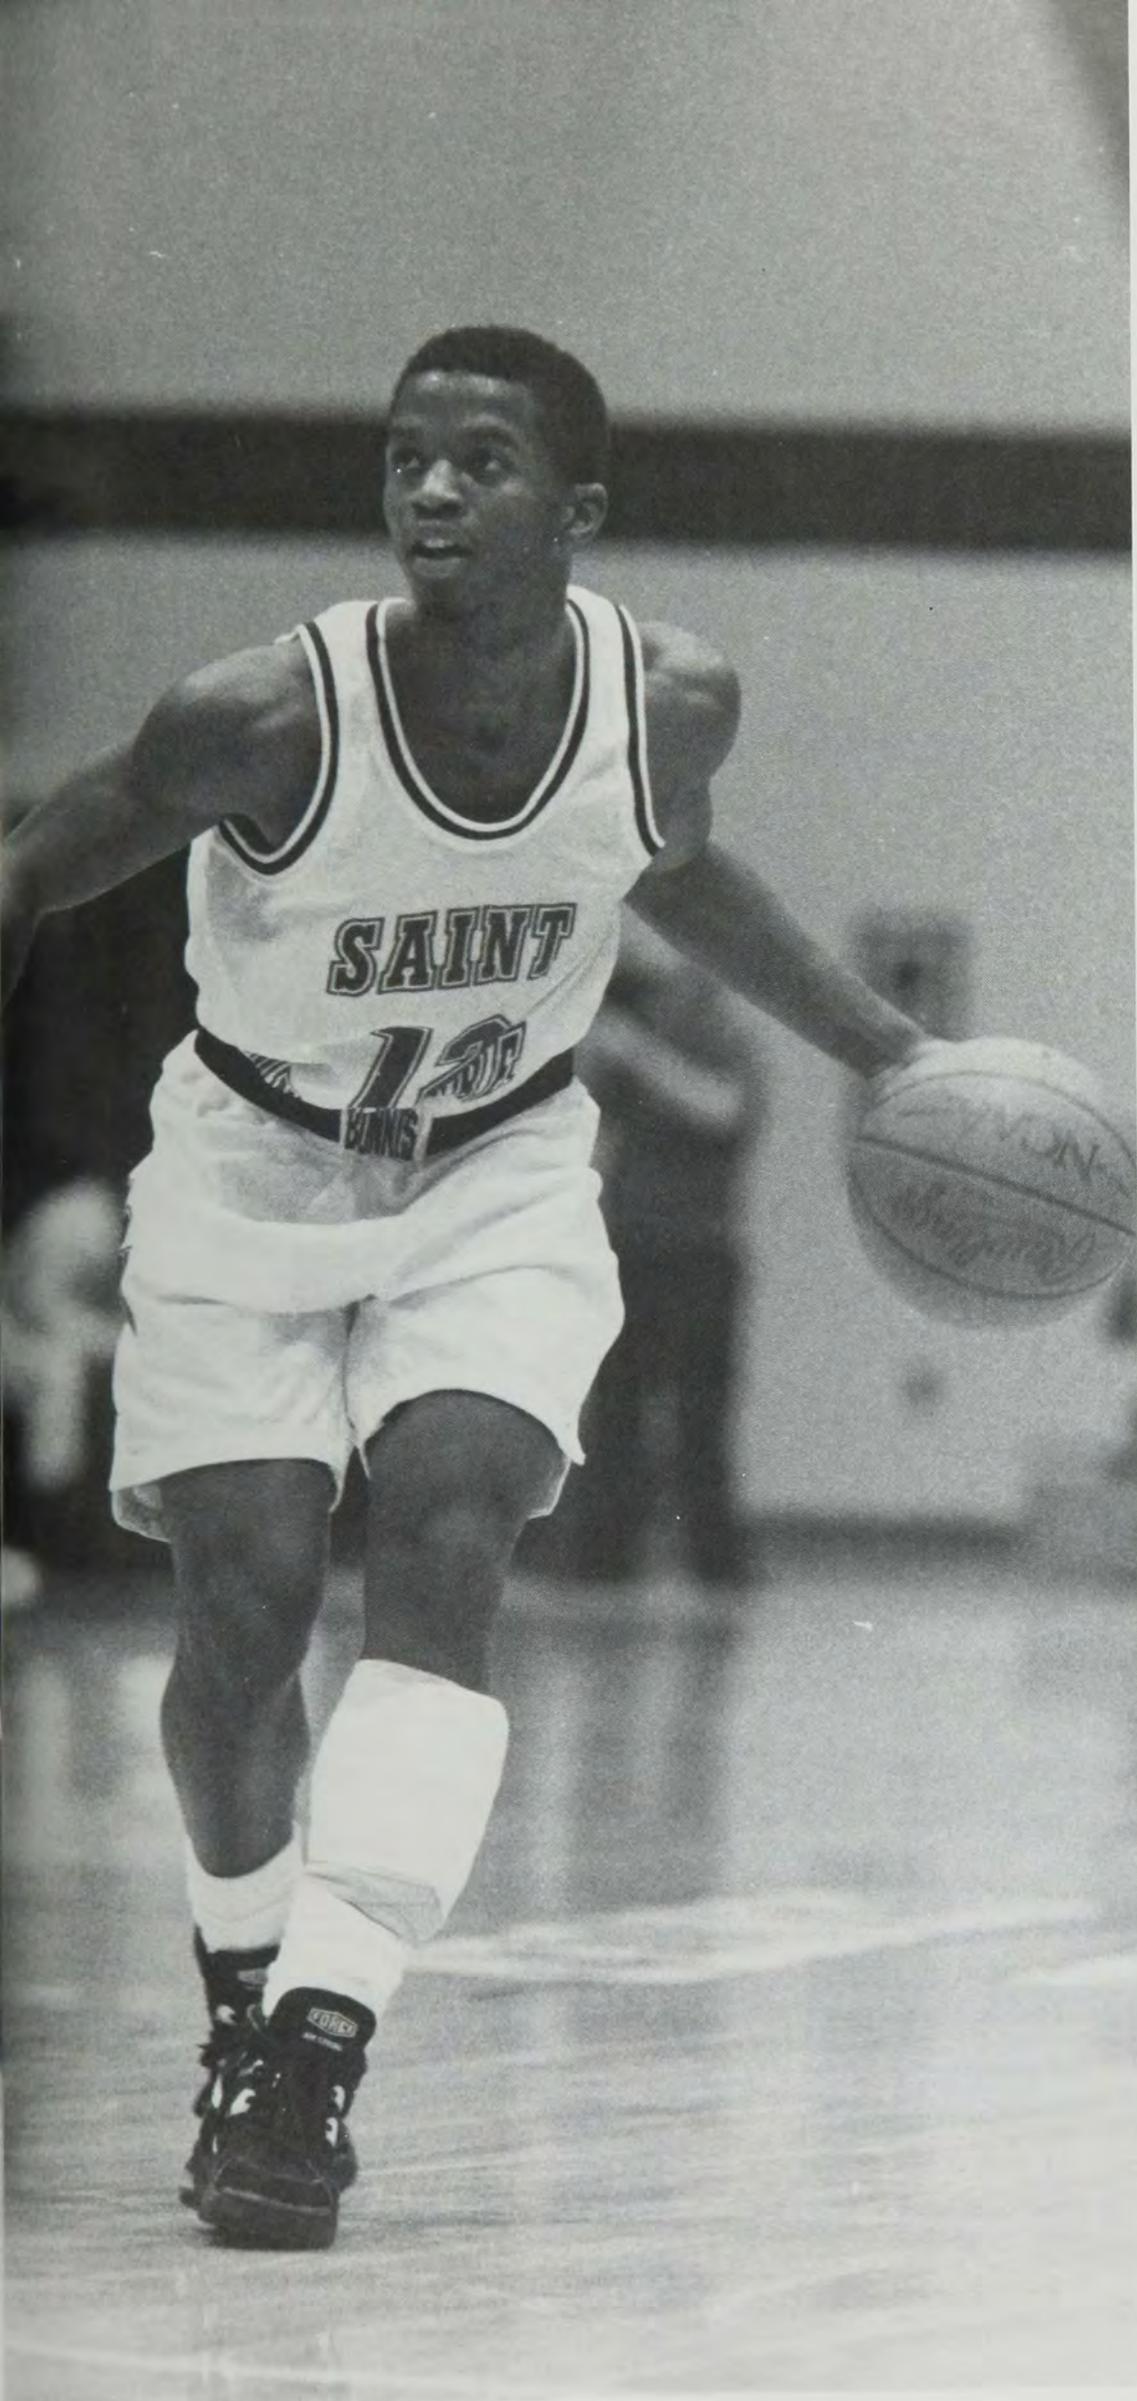

The Bonnies went on to win that night and catapulted the team into the second round against the Marquette Warriors.

Unfortunately, the Bonnies couldn't topple the Warriors, but it didn't matter.

It was truly a season to remember.

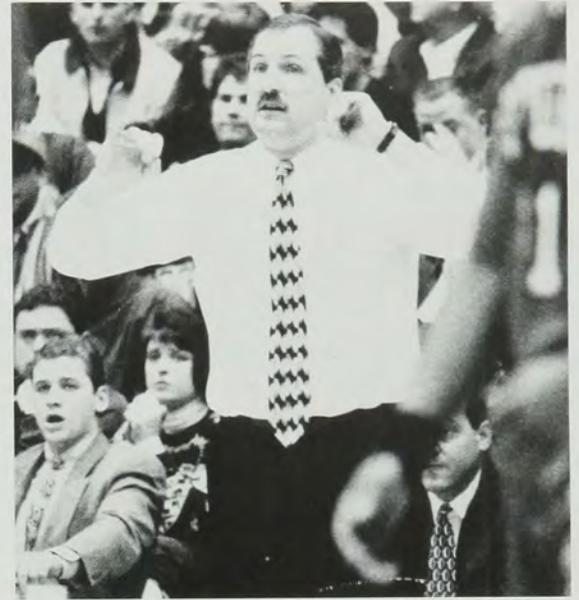

With the greatest of ease — Nii Nelson-Richards flies to greet the hoop with a picture-perfect layup.

Shandue McNeil keeps his eye on the clock as he moves the ball up court.

Suzie Dailer: A True Champion

When she came out of Wheeling, West Virginia four years ago, she had already been noticed by USA Today as an outstanding 3-point shooter. But it would take another four years for a nation to discover how talented she truly is.

In April of this year, Suzie traveled to Seattle Wash. to stake her claim at the 3-point championship. The odds were slightly against her.

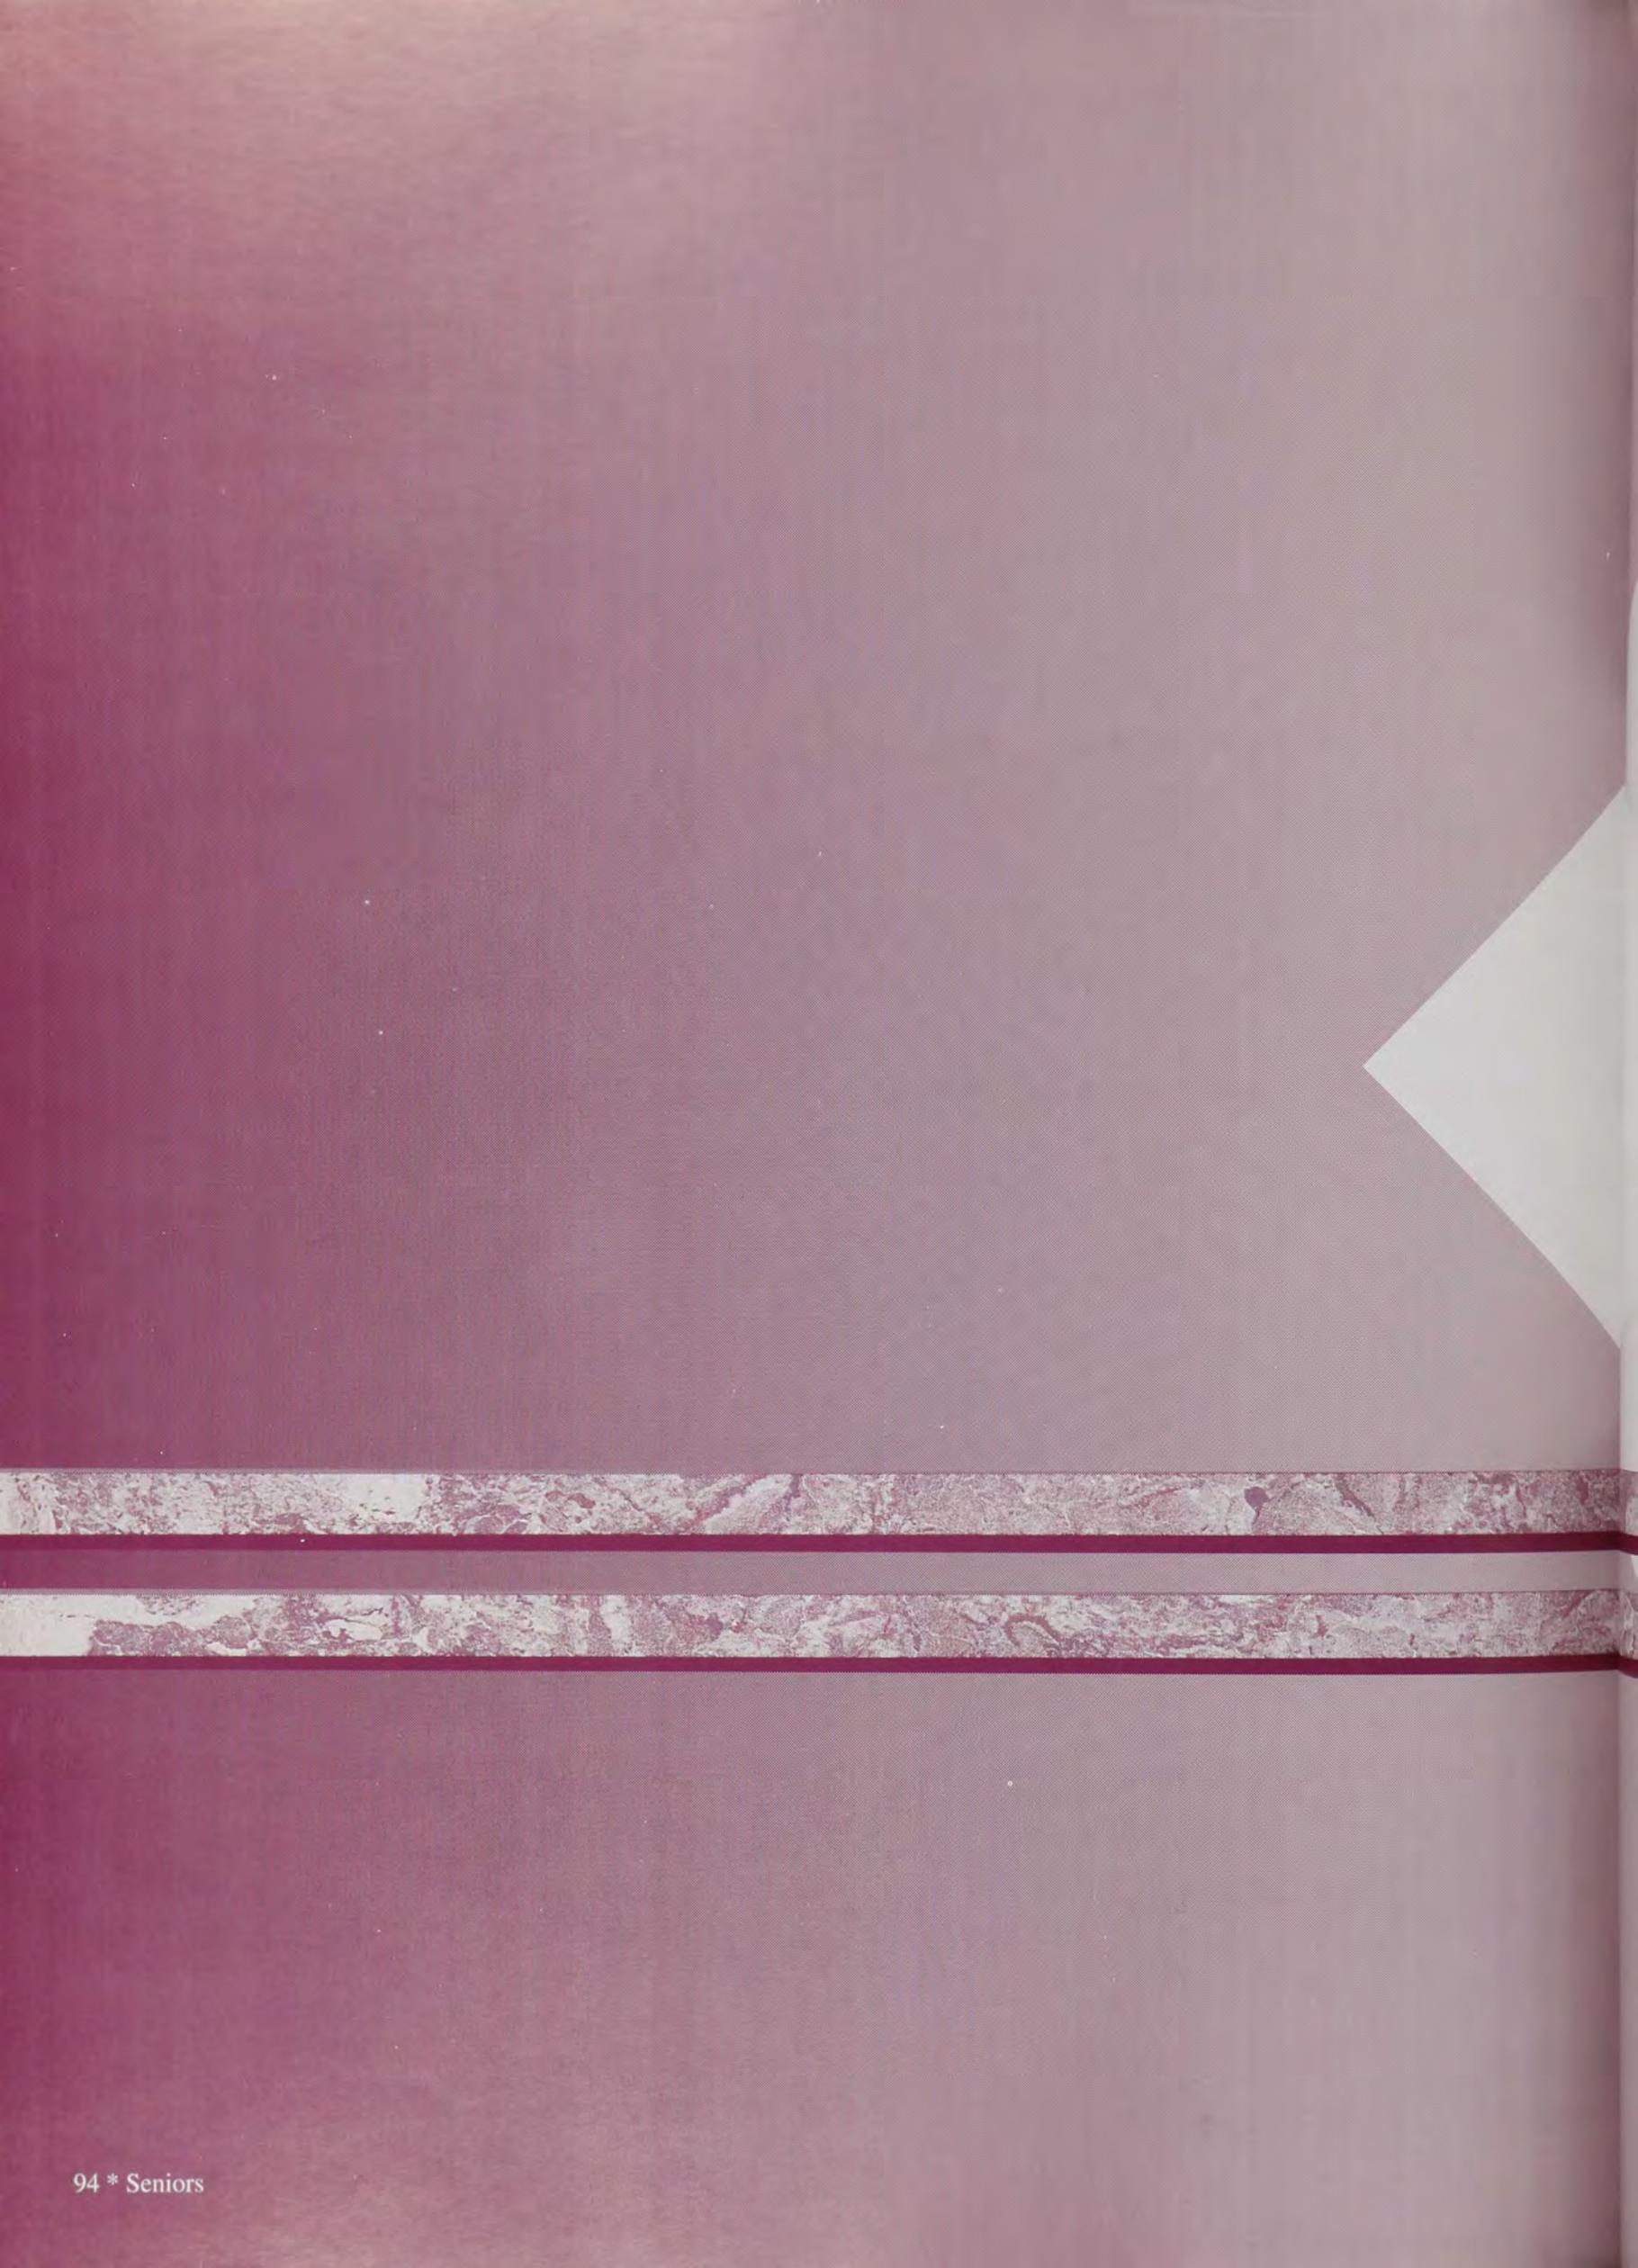

Two weeks prior to the contest, Dailer suffered a fractured hand. Although many weren't sure her hand would be healed in time, Suzie beat the odds and went on to win the 1995 3-point Championship. Four years of dedication and hard work have made Suzie Dailer a true champion.

Suzie, always a team player, looks for help as she finds herself in a spot of trouble.

Dailer may not have the size advantage of others, but she doesn't let anyone intimidate her.

Dailer drives up the court as she is double-teamed by two West Virginia players.
