Describe Bona's in three words or fewer

Crazy, beautiful, fun
-Leah Oleski-

Home
-Jacqueline Ouriel-

Life changing experience
-Mike Grosso-

The three F's:
Friends, Family, Fun
-Bobby Gohn-

What's your favorite memory of Bona's?

Women's basketball making the NIT tournament and making it to the semi-finals.
-Sandra Wendela-

Spring Weekend, when Jarrad fell on his face running to first base.
-Rob Chatt-

My favorite memory is a moment I had up at the Buzz. That place was my home for my whole time at Bonaventure.
-Bobby Gohn-

Studying abroad in Europe with a whole gang of Bona's students.
-Anne Young-

Getting up each day knowing I'm guaranteed to pass by dozens of friends on the way to class and probably meet someone I didn't know when I got up that day.
-Charlie Specht-

Enjoy every minute of it because before you know it
it will be over.
-Cameron Smith-

Get your work done
early or on time!
-Sherri Thompson-

Don't slack off as a freshman, it prepares you for the rest of your time here. Start off good and finish good...with a bang!
-Hope Tuck-

Do as much as you can while at Bonaventure, but make sure to save time for yourself and to be social. Bona's is what it is because of the friends and the community, so don't let it pass you by.
-Ruth Harper-

Don't be shy in classes, the teachers here will not bite you, and don't forget to work out at the Richter Center after eating at the Hickey everyday!!
-Carolyn Neal-

What advice would you give freshmen?

What would you do if you could rule campus for a day?

I would pave the roads all over campus. Better food in the Hickey.
-Bobby Gohn-

-Sandra Wendela-

Let students park anywhere they want!
-Anne Young-

I'd have celebrity and famous speakers come to the university for a discussion panel.

-Hope Tuck-

I would cancel classes and have everyone go to O'Dea's snow tubing for the day or float down the Allegheny River, depending on the weather.

-Emma Riley-

I would have a huge parade/festival on the lawn between Plassmann Hall and the Reilly Center for the entire school with a popular band playing and food and drinks and then a huge movie screen for when it got dark out and everyone could watch a movie.

-Carolyn Neal-

Spectacular, ready for the real world!
-Hope Tuck-

Ready to succeed.
-Cameron Smith-

Geniuses
-Rob Chatt-

Fun-loving, dedicated, connected, and ready for anything.
-Anne Young-

How would you describe the senior class?

Good friends and good times.
-Jacqueline Ouriel-

Wild.
-Sherri Thompson-

We're one of the tightest, closest groups of kids I've ever been around. There are very few cliques because we've always had this feeling that everyone's in this together. It seems as if everyone in our class has this crazy, unlikely story about how they made it to Bona's. But we all made it—and that has bonded us in a special way that will keep us together long after the memories fade into legend and we move from this special place.

SIFE

SIFE, or Students In Free Enterprise, is an organization that welcomes students of all ages and majors, with a strong focus on community involvement and creating connections. I have been involved in SIFE throughout my four years here as an undergraduate, and it has provided me with unique opportunities that challenged my abilities as an individual in addition to contributing to my strengths and confidence as a leader and coordinator of projects. SIFE has ultimately contributed to the person that I am today.

I joined SIFE as a freshman education major, looking to get involved in university activities and meet new people. Little did I know the profound impact that joining an award-winning organization such as the St. Bonaventure chapter of SIFE would have. With the progression of each year, I became more and more involved, eventually holding significant leadership roles within the organization. As a sophomore, I was on the SIFE leadership team, and as a junior, I was co-vice president and a leader on the Bahamas Planning Team. Finally, my senior year presented me with the opportunity to become co-president and provided me with the most extensive leadership chances, such as coordinating Junkanoo USA: an experience that connected Bahamian teachers, professionals and schools with local elementary schools in Olean through the immersion and active involvement in the Bahamian celebration Junkanoo, essentially increasing the local students' global awareness.

Ultimately, my involvement in SIFE has prepared me for life post-graduation. While my five trips to the Bahamas were certainly my most profound experiences as a SIFE member, I believe that the growth I have obtained as a person is a direct result of all of the opportunities that SIFE and its director have presented me with, and I accomplished things I never thought were possible, setting me apart from graduates of other universities. The choice to involve myself in SIFE only comes second to choosing to attend St. Bonaventure University, and I could not be more prepared for life in the "real-world" than I am now.

Stephanie Socci

Middle: Lauren Scorse, Sara Prucha, and Ashley Kotz make decorations for the Junkanoo festival.

Left: Morgan Nyweide helps fifth graders during SIFE week in the Bahamas.

Over the past four years, Students In Free Enterprise has played a major roll in my life at Bona's. Early in freshman year, I knew SIFE was different, and it was something that I wanted to be a part of. Between meetings, presentations, projects, and conventions SIFE has truly made me an extraordinary person in and outside the classroom. SIFE embodies exactly what St. Bonaventure prides itself on: tradition, excellence, and Franciscan service. Tradition in the way I've been taught to hold true to the colors brown and white. Excellence in the way I've been taught to conduct myself professionally and casually. Franciscan Service – something that should be kept in the forefront of every true Bonaventure student's mind. SIFE has brought me abroad while keeping my focus on local issues and kept me local while realizing there is a global need for volunteering and service. SIFE is easily the reason that I am so well prepared for life after graduation and the reason I've had extraordinary stories and experiences at St. Bonaventure. Success after graduation will not come in the form of a paycheck. Rather, I will know I'm successful when I can have as much of an impact on other people as SIFE has had on me. Thinking Global, Acting Local, Living true to Brown and White.

The BV is everything you want a newsroom to be, and it's everything you're not supposed to have in a real-world environment.

From the time I stepped into the newsroom as a scared, shy freshman until the day I walked out of it for the last time, I can say I became a better journalist every time I was there. The BV is real, but it's also a place to learn. The good stories are real, the mistakes are real, the criticism is real, and the deadlines are real. However, from each of those, we all learn something that makes us better. And nothing makes Sunday and Tuesday meetings, Wednesday all-nighters and Thursdays without eating feel better than picking up the paper Friday morning.

The learning is good, the praise is better, but the experience is the best. Although we try and keep the atmosphere as realistic as possible, I'm almost certain there aren't dance parties, wall quotes and sports discussions at 2 a.m. in normal newsrooms. We teach one another, and we learn from one another, but that's not all we do. We laugh together, we cry together, and we're always there for one another. Whether we need comfort or advice, there's always someone there.

As my time at Bonaventure and at the BV ends, I know many of my life-long friends, in one way or another, became my friends because I worked at the BV. That's something no amount of red ink or editing marks can change.

Dedication

The decision to dedicate the 2010 St. Bonaventure University Yearbook to Marissa Sangiacomo was an easy one. Throughout her college career, Marissa has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership, professionalism, passion and commitment in her service as the leader of the Bonadieu Staff. Truth be told, if it weren't for her extraordinary efforts the production of the last four yearbooks would not have occurred. Marissa, on behalf of the entire campus community, I want to express our heartfelt gratitude and thanks for your hard work and dedication. You have been an exceptional representative of the student body and a true pleasure to work with. We wish you the very best in your future endeavors and always know that you have a home at St. Bonaventure University.

All the Best!

Mallory,

To live a successful life does not require Money, fame, power, prestige or status symbols...
It's more a matter of Being true to your own beliefs and principles.
Doing your best,
Even in the smallest of things,
And never taking for granted
The simple joys in life--
Such as laughter, a perfect day, or a loyal friend.
For all the money in the world
Can't buy self-esteem, character,
Contentment, love or happiness--
And these are the very things that make life worth living.
However you define
Happiness and success,
May you find and enjoy them
every day of your life.

Congratulations, you have achieved your dream...we are so proud of you!
With all our love Dad, Mom and Ryan

Ashish,

1ST 100 DAYS

ONCE INAUGURATED, President Barack Obama got down to business, signing executive orders banning harsh interrogation techniques of suspected terrorists on his second day in office. The ban was Obama's first step toward closing the prisons at Guantanamo Bay. ONE WEEK LATER, the president signed a labor act guaranteeing equal pay for all workers. Regarding the act, Obama explained that he saw the inequality as a family issue, not just a women's issue. ATTENTION TO THE ECONOMY brought the $787 billion economic stimulus package in the form of February's American Recovery and Reinvestment Act, controversial legislation which the administration claimed sparked growth as early as the third quarter.

A TOTAL TROOP WITHDRAWAL from Iraq by the end of 2011 was announced on February 27, and just a month later Obama announced a renewed commitment to Afghanistan and plans to send an additional 21,000 new troops there. LONDON'S G-20 SUMMIT allowed leaders from nations worldwide, as well as regional groups and international institutions, to strategize ways to revive the global economy and stimulate growth.

31 Nearly 40 unemployed New Yorkers took part in the Unemployment Olympics, a day of fun and games in Manhattan's East Village planned by a recently laid-off computer software worker.

7 The Connecticut women's basketball team won its sixth national title, defeating Louisville 76-54 in a St. Louis Final Four tagged "March to the Arch."

12 Argentinian golfer Ángel Cabrera won the Masters at 12 under par after a three-way playoff against Americans Chad Campbell and Kenny Perry.

23 Apple's iTunes App Store knew in advance that some lucky buyer would download the company's one billionth app on this date and they offered prizes galore.

SOMALI PIRATES hijacked an American ship in the Indian Ocean off the Horn of Africa and took Captain Richard Phillips hostage in April. The ship, the Maersk Alabama, was carrying food and other aid supplies for the World Food Program. The five-day ordeal ended when U.S. Navy SEAL snipers killed three pirates, freeing Phillips. BEA ARTHUR, two-time Emmy award winner, died of cancer at 86. Probably best known for her Golden Girls character Dorothy Zbornak, Arthur began her acting career on Broadway, winning a Tony in the original stage production of Mame. A 50 TO 1 LONGSHOT won the 135th Kentucky Derby. Jockey Calvin Borel and Mine That Bird came from behind on a muddy track to win the race by nearly seven lengths. VOCALIST SUSAN BOYLE became an overnight sensation on Britain's Got Talent. Her performance quickly became one of the most watched videos on YouTube. Despite a second-place finish in the competition, Boyle's first album, I Dreamed a Dream, became the biggest-selling album in the world for 2009 in just six weeks. NORTH CAROLINA'S TARHEELS beat Michigan State 89-72 in the men's Final Four, avenging a title game loss to Kansas the previous season. With the help of upperclassmen Tyler Hansbrough, Wayne Ellington, Ty Lawson and Danny Green, all of whom opted to return for another year with coach Roy Williams rather than heading to the NBA, the Tarheels cruised to their fifth national title and their second in five years. A unanimous pre-season No. 1, the team was UNC's first since 1982 to start and finish the year in the nation's top spot. CONFICKER WORM, a computer virus that targeted the Microsoft Windows operating system, was estimated to have infected more than 15 million computers. It was believed to be the worst computer virus since the SQL slammer worm in 2003. In February 2009, Microsoft offered a $250,000 reward for help with finding and arresting the people who created the computer worm.

FLUSHOTS

FLU SHOT CLINICS were set up in workplaces and schools from coast to coast as the government and the CDC suggested that as many people as possible be vaccinated against the H1N1 virus that led to hundreds of school closings in the spring of 2009. AN EARLY START to the flu season meant victims were affected in higher numbers and more extremely than usual, and that the flu's peak activity came in late October and early November rather than March. Until the vaccine arrived, anyone with H1N1's potential respiratory symptoms was encouraged to stay home rather than infecting classmates or co-workers. IN OCTOBER, the vaccine began arriving in both injected and nasal spray forms. Within four months, 97 million H1N1 vaccine doses had been given to 86 million people in the United States. TRULY PANDEMIC, the H1N1 influenza infected approximately 57 million Americans or slightly more than 18 percent of the population between April 2009 and February 2010. About 11,690 people died and nearly 260,000 were hospitalized from the viral infection, which was also known as swine flu. THE THREAT of an additional outbreak loomed as the annual flu season waned.

JOB MARKET DETERIORATION continued, despite some tentative indications that the economy was improving. The federal unemployment rate peaked at 10.1% in October, but the economy continued to shed jobs at the rate of more than 263,000 a month. Data showed a loss of 8.4 million jobs since the recession's start in December 2007. THE UNDER-EMPLOYMENT RATE of workers whose hours had been cut or who were working part-time for lack of full-time positions hit 17% — the highest since they began tracking the category in 1994. FORECLOSURE FILINGS in the third quarter hit a record high. Despite government-led and lender-supported relief efforts, nearly a million U.S. homes — 1 in every 136 nationwide — were in foreclosure by October. FEDERAL RESERVE CHAIRMAN Ben Bernanke announced September 15 that the recession had "very likely ended" while warning that it may not quickly affect the unemployment rate.

MTV'S 2009 VIDEO MUSIC AWARDS were going to be different from the start. In addition to recognizing current work, anticipation of a Michael Jackson tribute ran high. Instead, Kanye West literally stole the show, grabbing the mic during 20-year-old country/pop star Taylor Swift's Best Female Video acceptance speech for a quick rant about Beyonce Knowles being more deserving. Swift went on to win the Grammy for Album of the Year for her second album, Fearless. ACTOR PATRICK SWAYZE died at age 57, after suffering from pancreatic cancer for nearly two years. Of his more than 30 movies, he was best-known for his roles as romantic leading men in the films Dirty Dancing and Ghost. A GIANT MYLAR BALLOON took off from a family's yard in northern Colorado, and nationwide panic erupted when it was reported that the six-year-old son might be aboard the 20-foot-long, saucer-shaped helium flyer. A runway at the Denver airport was shut down and search and rescue crews scoured the area below the craft's 50-mile flight path for the child, who was later found hiding in the garage. Subsequent interviews revealed that the event had been planned. The couple was billed for search services and both parents were sentenced to jail time. THE WORLD'S TALLEST BUILDING, the Burj Khalifa in Dubai, U.A.E. was completed on October 1 and opened on January 5, 2010. Named after the leader of neighboring oil-rich Abu Dhabi, which contributed billions of dollars to keep Dubai afloat, the building housed a hotel, offices and luxury apartments. At 2,717 feet, the tower with a public observation deck on the 124th floor was the tallest man-made structure ever built. "BEATLES DAY" was celebrated worldwide on 09/09/09 when re-mastered versions of The Beatles' albums were released, on the same day the video game The Beatles: Rock Band was released. In the major music markets of North America, Japan and the UK, consumers purchased more than 2.25 million copies of re-mastered albums in the first five days of release. In addition, more than half a million Rock Band units sold during the game's first month of release. Incorporating many of the gameplay features of the Rock Band series, the game included 45 songs by the popular British rock group.

The second edition in the Twilight series had fans crazy for vampires. The film was the fourth highest grossing in the U.S. for 2009, bringing in $296 million and causing debate among supporters of team Jacob versus team Edward.

A YANKEES WORLD SERIES WIN gave the team its 27th championship with a 7-3 victory over the Phillies in Game 6. Using a two-part satellite, scientists said they created a collision, then measured the debris it created. The discovery was good news for explorers who wanted to set up labs on the lunar surface and to the scientists who hoped that the water, in the form of ancient ice, would reveal information about the history of the solar system.

HEALTHCARE

HEALTH CARE REFORM was a priority for President Obama and the Democratic leaders of Congress. In November, they came close to creating a comprehensive system of national health insurance when the House approved an overhaul of the system, 220 votes to 215. MAX BAUCUS, Senate Finance Committee chairman, had presented a plan that included many new insurance industry regulations but no government-run health care. The Democrat from Montana believed his bill could bring together Republicans and Democrats for an ambitious overhaul of health care. TEA PARTY

PROTESTS sprung up from coast to coast, providing a platform for citizens wishing to speak their discontent. While groups of those who felt they could no longer sit still and quietly observe governmental changes that made them uncomfortable took on many traits, the newly empowered activists worked to be visible in many parts of the country. SENATE VOTES in November were followed by the Senate's approval of an $871 billion bill in December. While the two Congressional branches worked to reconcile their bills, it became apparent agreement was not imminent; the debate would continue for months.

HAITIAN EARTHQUAKE

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION were apparent immediately following the temblor which struck near Port-au-Prince, the capital city of Haiti. While fatality estimates topped 200,000, officials conceded that the burial of uncounted corpses would prohibit an exact tally. The quake, which was "felt strongly" in Cuba more than 200 miles away, damaged thousands of homes, including the president's residence. BUSH/CLINTON HAITI RELIEF FUND, designed to demonstrate American unity, raised more than $17 million in under two weeks. In the month following the quake, American charities sent more than $790 million in charitable aid. WYCLEF JEAN, GEORGE CLOONEY & FRIENDS hosted concerts in New York, Los Angeles and London to raise funds for earthquake victims. Called "Hope for Haiti Now: A Global Benefit for Earthquake Relief," the January 22 concerts included performances by Bruce Springsteen, Madonna, Mary J. Blige, Taylor Swift, Justin Timberlake, Coldplay and Bono. In addition, a remake of the 25-year-old anthem "We Are the World," featuring more than 70 big names representing all genres of music, was recorded to benefit Haitian aid groups.

JAMES CAMERON'S AVATAR broke all kinds of records en route to becoming the highest grossing film of all time. Development of the science fiction epic spanned 15 years, partially because Cameron had previously determined that the necessary technology was not yet available to portray his visions for the film. Released for both traditional two-dimension projection and 3-D, Avatar was also the first film ever to gross $2 billion, and it was nominated for nine Academy Awards, including Best Picture and Best Director. TIGER WOODS was named the Associated Press Athlete of the Decade in December. Despite a personal scandal that led to an indefinite break from professional golf, he collected nearly as many votes as runners-up Lance Armstrong and Roger Federer combined. Woods won 64 tournaments including 12 majors and earned more than $81 million during the decade. A TERRORIST ATTACK on a December 25 Northwest Airlines flight from Amsterdam to Detroit was thwarted after a student with suspected al-Qaida ties attempted to ignite explosives in flight. FIFA WORLD CUP SOCCER tickets went on sale globally, adding more than 1 million new seats to those nearly 700,000 tickets already sold for the June/July soccer matches in South Africa. CONAN O'BRIEN left NBC and The Tonight Show on January 22, just eight months after he took the reins from Jay Leno. Despite ongoing unsuccessful negotiations with the network, O'Brien planned a busy last week hosting Robin Williams, Barry Manilow, Tom Hanks and Will Ferrell, and he took to the stage playing 70s rock anthem "Free Bird" with the band during the closing credits of his final show. THE U.S. HEALTH CARE REFORM BILL passed by the Senate on December 24 was expected to extend insurance coverage to 30 million additional Americans. Following the January 27 State of the Union Address where Obama vowed not to "walk away from" his drive for health insurance reform, additional modifications were made to the White House's proposed health care plan in preparation for a February 25 televised bipartisan health care summit. The six-hour summit was covered on C-SPAN and was the day's news focus.

VICTORY in hockey gave Canada the Olympic gold the host nation craved on the last day of Winter Games. The 3-2 win over Team U.S.A. came 7:40 into the extra period when 22-year-old Sidney Crosby sent goalie Ryan Miller a surprise wrist shot. Miller was the series M.V.P. and Crosby, a native of Nova Scotia, became the youngest ever captain of a Stanley Cup-winning team in 2009, when his Pittsburgh Penguins beat the Detroit Red Wings four games to three. CANADA'S JOANNIE ROCHETTE captured viewers' hearts, competing in women's figure skating after her mother succumbed to a heart attack in Vancouver just days before. The 24-year-old from Quebec took bronze and became one of the most personal stories of the Vancouver Games. dislodged another massive block of ice from the continent in February. The original iceberg, known as B9B, measured 60 miles in length and had broken free from Antarctica more than 20 years ago. The new iceberg weighed in at roughly 700 billion tons and, at 48 x 24 miles, contained the equivalent of one fifth of the world's annual total water usage. The two icebergs drifted together off the east coast of Antarctica. U.S. BOBSLED GOLD ended a 62-year Olympic drought for America when two-time World Champion Night Train pilot Steve Holcomb with crew Justin Olsen and Steve Mesler and brakeman Curtis Tomasevich dominated action in Whistler. The win meant Germany's Andre Lange, who took gold in the two-man race, failed in his attempt to capture five Olympic golds in as many attempts. AN 8.8 EARTHQUAKE IN CHILE on February 27
