St. Bonaventure
University

Bonadieu

At Bonaventure, you've never been just another face in the crowd. Here at Bona's, you're a part of the Bona Family. You've ended your time at Bonaventure, but incoming freshmen are just beginning theirs. In this endless cycle, we're all brought together by this school, and that bond will never change. The memories of your time at SBU will stay with you forever as you continue to make your way in the world. You will always remember the professors who helped shape you into the people you are today, and the friends who became your family.

Congratulations graduates and best of luck as you continue to carry the Bonaventure legacy into the world. And remember,

Once a Bonnie, Always a Bonnie

Seniors in SBU Theater

After more than a century of academic theater performances at Saint Bonaventure, the theater program continues to impress. This past year seniors Emily West, Brett Keegan, and Ian Rogers have performed and worked behind-the-scenes to produce this season's three theatrical productions: 'More Than Before' in the Fall, 'the 'One-Act Festival VI: Knowing and Un-Knowing' in the Winter, and this years Spring musical 'A Year with Frog and Toad.' Each of these productions were held in The Garret Theater on campus.

Below, Emily West and Frederick Alvarez in 'More Than Before'

'More Than Before' by Kathryn Coughlin. A short play about a young woman's struggle after the death of her best friend and the strain on her relationships with her mother and boyfriend. Set design and costumes by Emily West.

The "One Act Festival VI: Knowing and Un-Knowing" included six one act plays each featuring two or more actors. Senior Brett Keegan performed in both "An Ongoing Examination of the True Meaning of Life" by Sheldon Senek as well as "Words, Words, Words" by David Ives. Set design and costumes by Emily West.

Below, Brett Keegan reads poetry to Tori Lanzillo in the one-act play 'An Ongoing Examination of the True Meaning of Life'

At right, Anna Martin, Makeda Loney, and Senior Brett Keegan in the one-act play Words, Words, Words.

At left, Ian Rogers does an interpretive rain dance in the Spring musical, 'A Year with Frog and Toad'

Above, Seniors Brett Keegan and Ian Rogers admire Toad's flower garden in the Spring Musical, 'A Year with Frog and Toad'

'A Year with Frog and Toad' written by brothers Robert and Willie Reale is based upon the beloved childhood 'Frog and Toad' stories. Throughout the year, Frog and Toad teach children important lifelong lessons through their sometimes silly, sometimes serious, adventures. Costumes by Emily West and Makeda Loney.

*Sammy Raye,
You have built a path with your hard work and dedication; we can't wait to see where it brings you. We are so proud of you and love you very much.

*"We can go where we want to,
a place where they will never find.
We can act like we come from out of this world, leave the real one far behind."
